TELLS STORY OF MRS. GOULD'S MISCONDUCT

HELEN MER'S CHAPTER OF SEN-SATIONS—SAYS SHE DISCOV-ERED TWO IN COMPROMISING POSITIONS—THEY QUARREL-LED—THAT COLONEL CODY AL-LEGED ATTEMPTED POISON-ING

New York, Nov. 24.—Helen Mer, who came from England to testify in the Howard Gould divorce case, revealed today for the first time the details of the testimony she gave on Thursday behind closed doors in the office of David McClure, the referee appointed by the supreme court to hear the evidence in the suit for separation.

At the Continental Hotel in New York this afternoon Miss Mer said:
"I testified before Mr. McClure that once in the Hoffman House in this city and once in a residence on First avenue, in Chicago, I discovered Miss Katherine Clemmons, who is now Mrs. Howard Gould, and "Buffalo Bill" Cody in compromising positions. I testified also that Colonel Cody once accused Katherine."

HOWARD GOULD.

Third son of the late Jay Gould, now being sued by his wife for a limited divorce.

He Clemmons of having tried to poison him.

Cody Would Not Give Her Money.
"I told the referee that Miss Clemmons, with whom I lived in Chicago, in New York and in London, told me that although Colonel Cody made $200,000 with his Wild West show in Chicago during the World's Fair, he refused to give her money enough for household expenses. She told me she was afraid he was trying to cast her off."

"At the close of the World's Fair the three of us came to New York and stopped at the Hoffman House.
Colonel Cody's room was directly across the corridor from the room which was occupied by Miss Clemmons, and upon one occasion, upon going to our room, I found Colonel Cody and Miss Clemmons there together. Soon after I arrived Colonel Cody went back to his own room."

Accuses Her of Poisoning Him
"He and Miss Clemmons quarreled continually. He was bitter toward her. Once when he was very ill after eating dinner, he accused Miss Clemmons of trying to poison him.
She protested her innocence, but she was always afraid he would leave her penniless. He went away from the Hoffman House leaving us there and Miss Clemmons was fearful that the manager of the hotel would eject us because we could not pay our bill.
"If he does," she said to me, "I'll sit on my trunk in front of this hotel."

and tell all the reporters in New York the story of my relations with Colonel Cody. I want him to back a theatrical company which he has promised to put out for me."
