CITY NEWS

Weather Prediction
Tonight and Saturday, occasional rain; fresh southwesterly breezes, diminishing tonight.

Skating at the Underwood rink tonight. A pleasant time assured. If

The W. R. P. L. will meet with Mrs. S. J. Hard, on East Eleventh street, tomorrow afternoon.

The probate court will meet next Monday, but the county commissioners' court will not meet until January 2.

"The Lion and the Mouse," one of the strongest dramas on the road this season, is billed for the Eugene theatre tonight.

Be sure and attend the dance Saturday night, hear the music and meet the professor and his wife at Davies' hall.

Tomorrow is pay day for the teachers of the Eugene public schools. At that time the sum of $2524.91 will be distributed as salaries for the past month.

A car of mill feed from Junction for the Eugene Transfer Company was among the car load lots shipped into Eugene this morning.

The water of the river had begun to back up into the mill race this morning, but the water power was not affected, the mills running along as usual.

The Chambers-Bristow Bank announces that it will pay out no more Eugene clearing house certificates. Whenever a check is presented cash will be paid.

YOUNG MEN of good character and able body are wanted for the U. S. army. Apply at recruiting office, McClung building, Eighth and Willamette streets, Eugene. dwf

The slough in the southern part of the city was badly swollen by the heavy rain, and in some places was out of its banks this morning, but it has subsided and no damage was done.

Members of the local aerle of Eagles have received word from Roseburg that about 20 members of the aerle there are coming down tomorrow evening on the flyer to attend the smoker to be held here tomorrow night.

Professor Ford and family will give a dance Saturday evening in Davies' hall. Professor Ford and family are professional dancers. They have leased the hall and have come here to stay. They will give lessons three times a week. Come and hear the music whether you dance or not. 50 cents. Ladies free.

A carload of stone for the Divinity School building arrived here this morning from Oakland. Three weeks ago the quarry men promised to deliver three carloads each week, but this is the first one to arrive since. The work of erecting the building is badly handicapped by the slowness of the stone in arriving.

Frank Knox was this afternoon elected manager of the high school football team for 1908.

An advance rehearsal of "The Lion and the Mouse" occurred about 2 p. m. today in front of the Gross Hotel, entitled "McMurphy and the Rat." After a desperate combat the rat succumbed to the prowess of Mr. McMurphy and his umbrella, and yielded its innocent life.

"Woman, the fairest work of the divine author. The edition is large and every man should have a copy." Rev. Trimble speaks on "How to Be Happy Though Married" at the Methodist church at 7:30 p. m. Sunday evening. This is the second of the series on the "Home."

The Eugene Business College basketball team went to Harrisburg to play the town team there tonight. The members of the local team and their positions are as follows: Ralph Shisley and Roy Finseth, forwards; Harry Holt, centre; O. A. Smith and Carl Williams, guards. Louis Miller went along to act as referee.

The Modern Brotherhood elected new officers last night as follows: President, M. J. Wald; vice president, Mrs. S. W. B. Haynes; secretary, May T. Moon; treasurer, Martin Miller; chaplain, Mrs. Adrian; conductor, Hannah Gardner; watchman, J. F. Ross; sentry, Mrs. V. Kroeger; physicians, Marquam and Day.

In the billiard tournament being held at Bingham & Smith's parlors the results of last evening's contests were as follows: Peterson defeated Smith 100 to 61 in class A and Bonney won from Deeds 100 to 90 in class B. Peterson went out in 47 innings, with an average of 2 1-8. His high run was 8. Bonney went out in the 117th inning with an average of 100-117. His high run was 5, while Deeds ran 7. Tonight Wallace plays Peterson in class A. As these two men have each won their games at this contest promises to be very exciting. Wilson will play Flinton in class B.

The hardest storm of the season occurred last night, the wind blowing a veritable gale and the rain falling in torrents a greater part of the night. Last night the weather was warm bringing the river up to nearly a flood stage, but this morning early the atmosphere turned perceptibly cooler and the snow in the mountains stopped melting, preventing a freshet. The river at the bridge in this city was eight feet above low water mark, having risen three feet during the night. It came up some after the measurement was taken, but this afternoon it has been at about a standstill. The rainfall between eight o'clock yesterday morning and eight o'clock this morning, as measured by E. G. Briggs, local government weather observer, was an inch and a half. The rainfall for the 24 hours previous to 8 o'clock yesterday morning was one-tenth of an inch.

AMUSEMENTS

Henry B. Harris is sending "The Lion and the Mouse" to the Eugene theatre for one night only (December 13) tonight. The famous drama of American life, by Charles Klein, will be presented by the same great cast which recently presented the piece for two weeks at the Van Ness theatre, San Francisco, to capacity houses.

The critics of that city pronounced the company and production "the best that Mr. Harris has sent to the Pacific coast."
