OREGON DELEGATION ARE IN DEADLOCK

Washington, D. C., Dec. 23.—Indications point to a deadlock in the Oregon delegation over the nomination for a man to succeed District Attorney Bristol. Senator Bourne is expected to stand pat for Schuebel, regardless of the intentions of the remaining members not to endorse him. An effort will be made to have a meeting this week with a view of demanding a recommendation before Senator Fulton leaves for Oregon.
He will leave here this week for New York and then go to Oregon to remain until the close of the recess.
Fulton saw the president this morning but did not discuss the attorneyship. He declines to talk of Honey's visit.

CALIFORNIA BANKS
OPEN UP STRONG

San Francisco, Dec. 23.—The period of legal holidays declared by Governor Gillett to meet the recent financial stringency having expired at midnight last Saturday, all the leading banks transacted business in the usual way. Normal conditions prevailed and there was no run or crash of people anywhere. Many deposits were made and the withdrawal of funds did not exceed the amount customary during a day's business.
Clearing-house certificates continued in circulation, but when coin was required it was readily obtainable.

MEETING OF BOARD OF GOVERNORS

VARIOUS MATTERS OF IMPORT-ANCE DISCUSSED BY PROMO-TION DEPARTMENT OF CLUB.

At a meeting of the board of governors of the Commercial Club promotion department last night, Dr.
Paine, who has been appointed a committee of one to interview Tom Richardson in Portland, made his report last evening in regard to the Eugene Commercial Club working with the Alumni Association in behalf of the State University apporportionment. The Alumni Association at its last meeting decided to work in conjunction with the Commercial Club in this matter and appointed a committee of five for this purpose.
A meeting will be held by this committee and the promotion department next Friday evening at 8 p. m. at the Commercial Club business office.

Several suggestions for public improvement, including more lights on the streets, and for advertising Eugene and Lane county were also discussed at length, and Manager Hartog was authorized to go ahead and use his judgment in regard to the advertising proposed.

It was decided that it would be a good thing for Eugene and the county to have the fact of the county seat having 2174 school children enumerated, made known to the rest of the state and especially to the people of Portland.

A vote of thanks was ordered sent to the ladies who so beautifully decorated the club rooms last Wednesday, the ladies being Mesdames E. O.
Potter, S. D. Allen, Stafford and Edmundson.

EUGENE PROPERTY WILL GROW VALUABLE

Blair street addition property is sure to double in value within the next two years. Two electric railways are coming up the valley from Portland and both of them must enter the city from the west, and the line that will tap the Sluslaw county can not go out in any other direction. As sure as water runs down hill, Eugene must build down the valley—because the business is there.

There are both acreage tracts and large lots in this addition, only a mile from the business center and three blocks from the Geary public school.

Prices are very reasonable and you may make your own terms, a small payment down and monthly installments if you desire.

See the Oregon Land Co. at 412 Willamette street, or write them for particulars and prices.

CARLOAD HAS ARRIVED.

Big Shipment of Pianos for Elfers' Piano House Here.

"The holiday trade on pianos and organs this year greatly exceeded that of past years," says the local Elfers Piano House management.
"Our stock was reduced so low that we felt almost ashamed to have customers call at our store, but now we have a large stock again and can supply all classes of trade at the lowest prices and easiest terms ever before offered."

In this progressive day and age no home should be without music. Culture and refinement demand it. Go and talk the matter over with the Elfers men and see what you can do in the piano and organ line.
