MUDDY-FACED DRUNK
FINED DOUBLE EAGLE

BADLY INEBRIATED CITIZEN
ROOTS AROUND IN THE
STREET—ANOTHER DRUNK
GIVEN TEN DAYS

In the police court this morning two drunks appeared for sentence, they having been taken into custody last night by the officers. T. J. McCulloch was assessed $20 for his wrong doing and the amount was paid. He was wandering around in the rain last night and had fallen down in the street. When the officers took him into custody he presented a sorry looking spectacle. His features were unrecognizable because of the mud, and his clothes were simply a mass of Eugene real estate. His fall occurred at the corner of East Ninth and Oak streets. He was crossing the street when one of his rubbers came off and in attempting to replace it on his foot he lost his balance and fell into the deep mud. A passerby saw his plight and helped him to the sidewalk. He then wanted to treat his benefactor to a supper and started into one of the restaurants on Ninth street in that condition, but was not allowed to enter. Previous to this experience McCulloch made a nuisance of himself at the Hoffman House, where he went to sleep in the cloak closet off from the office, and had to be put out. He then returned and fell headlong to the floor in the hallway between the office and dining room.

Ed Sherbondy was the other drunk and he was given ten days in the city lock-up.

A Real Wonderland

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mount City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great medicine, that saved his life and completely cured him." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles, by W. L. DeLano, druggist, 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.
