DEAF MUTES DANCE OLD YEAR OUT AT SEATTLE

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 1.—Deaf mutes from all over Puget Sound met here for New Year's eve festivities last night at the labor temple. The occasion was the first annual ball given by the Puget Sound Association of the deaf, and the program included merrymaking of a most unusual character.

Waltzes, two-steps and Virginia reels, all without music from piano, clarinet or violin, were carried off in almost perfect time, and with a spirit and vim strangely infectious to one familiar with the silent language of the fingers. Except for an occasional burst of laughter the dance was gone through with almost noiselessly. More than 50 persons were there, most of them deaf and dumb, although some were deaf only. Members were present from Bremerton, Anacortes and Georgetown, while one man came all the way from Butte.
