THE VALUE OF PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE

Personal knowledge is the winning factor in the culminating contests of this competitive age and when of ample character it places its fortunate possessor in the front ranks of

The Well Informed of the World.

A vast fund of personal knowledge is really essential to the achievement of the highest excellence in any field of human effort.

A Knowledge of Forms, Knowledge of Functions and Knowledge of Products are all of the utmost value and in questions of life and health when a true and wholesome remedy is desired it should be remembered that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., is an ethical product which has met with the approval of the most eminent physicians and gives universal satisfaction, because it is a remedy of Known Quality, Known Excellence and Known Component Parts and has won the valuable patronage of millions of the Well Informed of the world, who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual use that it is the first and best of family laxatives, for which no extravagant or unreasonable claims are made.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent family laxative. As its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well Informed of the world to be the best we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of—Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects, always note, when purchasing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, whether you call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

AMUSEMENTS

"Uncle Tom's Cabin.

That which is described as "the biggest and best Uncle Tom's Cabin Company" travelling, will appear at the Eugene theatre on Tuesday January 7. It is known from ocean to ocean as Leon W. Washburn's Stetson Uncle Tom's Cabin Company, and is composed of fifty men, women and children, all capable actors, actresses, singers and dancers. As a scenic production, it is said to be better than any other. Among others worthy of especial mention are the Ohio river by moonlight, the beautiful Vision scene, and the gorgeous transformation scene at the close. The parade is led by Washburn's Great Military Band and is worth going a long way to see.

Stetson's big production has been organied this season in a manner that will make it far superior to any previous attraction ever seen here. Special attention has been given to the staging of the piece and the scenery faithfully portrays several scenes of Southern life during ante-bellum days in the far South. A large number of genuine colored people, who introduce cake-walks, buck dancing, Southern Jubilee singing and funny scenes in the cottonfields add materially to the production. Misses Kitty Morgan and Bertha Crosbie are the two Topsies; Messrs. George Harris and Nick Glinn ar ethe two Marks and Stetson's original Uncle Tom, Mr. Fred Bennett, will also be in the cast. Of late years the stage has been deluged by so many cheap companies that the public has been led to regard an announcement of an "Uncle Tom" production with a great deal of mistrust. Mr. Leon Washburn, the manager of this company, has, however, succeeded in organizing a cast composed of especially selected players, chosen for their adaptibility for the parts assigned them, and has received his reward in the generous patronage of the public and praise from the press. It is doubtful if "Uncle Tom" even when a novelty and new to the stage, ever received the attention so liberally bestowed upon it as now during this sumptuous revival. A street parade will be given that is said to delight every juvenile spectator beyond measure.

PRESS ENDORSES MISS GLORIA DARE

Following are recent press comments concerning the ability of Miss Gloria Dare as an tentertainer:

"The concert at the Congregational church last night was the most successful of the course. Miss Gloria Dare as an entertainer is a peer among her profession."—Creston (Iowa) Advertiser.

"The Elks' entertainment last night possessed a star in Miss Gloria Dare, 'The Rocky Mountain Girl,' who made good instantly and permanently."—Duluth News-Tribune.

"Never has a Topeka audience been entertained by so versatile an entertainer as Gloria Dare, 'The Rocky Mountain Girl.'"—Topeka (Kas.) News.

"Miss Gloria Dare's ability as an entertainer is unequalled."—Kansas City Star.

"Her ability in recital is among the very best."—Minneapolis Tribune.

"If all the entertainments in the Y. M. C. A. course are as good as the opening one last night, given by Miss Gloria Dare, 'The Rocky Mountain Girl,' the course is an assured success."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

"Gloria Dare's recital last night in the Rodenbush Academy was a feature of the Miller course."—Marie News, St. Paul.

"As a performer on the piano her touch was perfect and the rendering and her classic selections was more than pleasing. They were just perfect. She surely captivated her audience with her popular and classic selections. She has one of those rich, rare voices seldom heard and never without paying a good price. This recital surely showed enterprise on the part of the committee and they deserve the thanks of Everett citizens."—Everett Daily Tribune.

Indications are that the Eugene theatre will be packed by a representative audience on Wednesday evening to hear the concert and recital, arranged by the Eugene Military Band. A special program has been arranged by the band and Eugene citizens, knowing of the genius and ability among them are anticipating a rare treat. Much interest is shown in the fact that Gloria Dare, whom the St. Paul press describes as "the little lady with the mellow contralto voice," is to be made a feature of the evening.

Besides being a vocalist of ability, Miss Dare also comes to us highly recommended as an elocutionist of power.

Prof. Reed, our able band master has composed a song entitled "Good Night." This song, which he considers especially adapted to Miss Dare's quality of voice, is respectfully dedicated to her, and will be sung by her with full band accompaniment, for the first time on next Wednesday evening.

The fact that prominent society ladies have, at this early date, reserved boxes and are arranging theatre parties, indicates not only their desire to take advantage of the rare musical treat offered them but their readiness to support our most excellent band.

Kubelik Denies that He Had a Gypsy Father

Jan Kubelik was astonished and irritated to learn that some critics have made the statement that he was of gypsy parentage. He is a true Bohemian, and although of humble birth, is not ashamed of his country or his parents. In speaking to an interviewer the other day he said:

"The Romany people came from Asia five or six hundred years ago and overran Hungary and Bohemia, and have roamed about these countries ever since. I do not think that, by chance or otherwise, these Romany people, who are the true gypsy type, have ever intermarried with people of consequence or become associated with the aristocracy of either Hungary or Behemia. They are to these countries what the Indians are to America as a social or civilized factor; but Indians were aborigines, or original settlers, while the gypsies of Bohemia were invadaders of the wandering type and have nothing to do with the government of the country, and they are not absolutely interested in its advance, nor have they contributed to art or literature.

"I am not ashamed of the fact that my father was a good but humble citizen of Bohemia, a self-taught man and a musical genius, who was forced by reason of circumstances to be a gardener—but do not mistake me, he was not a gypsy. He thought that my older brother was the musician of the family, but soon gave him up in that line and devoted his attention to me, I having attained the dignity of marked taste for music. After he had labored with me for a year he concluded to send me to an advanced teacher, but that is not the question. I am not a gypsy, but a true, full-blooded Bohemian, and this mistake, which is now being circulated of my life, should be corrected at once."

Kueblik appears at the Eugene theatre Friday night, January 10. Hear him. May be the opportunity of a life time.

PRIZES OFFERED FOR SALMON INFORMATION

South Bend, Wash., Jan. 2.—Ex-State Senator H. S. McGowan is offering three prizes of $100, $50 and $25, and a special prize of $25, for the best paragraph or article showing the "Destruction of Salmon Fry in Non-Salman Streams." Instructions have been sent to the state fish commission and the various hatcheries throughout the state. The prizes are donated by searchers for facts relating to the destruction of salmon fry.

It is generally admitted that the young salmon fry have many enemies during the "alevin" stage, but the United States bureau of fishieries and the Oregon fish warden contend that the fry are practically safe after the egg-sac has been absorbed if proper care is used in liberating them. Every statement of facts must be capable of proof, supported by affidavit of some trustworthy person, if required. This effort is open to all members of the aatchery force of Washington state fishieries department.

Mr. McGowan requests all articles be addressed to H. S. McGowan, McGowan, Wash.

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood—they work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily; when unhealthy some of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with the kidneys.

W. W. Gossett, of 558 Madison street, Eugene, Or., says: "I served during the war in the 77th Ohio regiment, under General Grant, and came through the battle of Shiloh without a scratch. For about four months last year I had a most persistent dull aching across the loins and kidneys. It hurt me if I stooped or made any sudden movement. When splitting some wood out in the yard a sharp sudden twinge of pain caught me in my back and I could not move to save me. A little while afterward I happened to read about Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box at W. L. DeLano's drug store. I began the treatment and it effected a permanent cure." (From statement made March 10, 1903.)

Cured to Stay Cured.

On February 9, 1906, Mr. Gossett confirmed the above statement, saying: "I have had no occasion to use any kidney medicine since 1903. The cure I described before is permanent."
