given to the most popular young ladies in Lane county.

Many of the candidate are now doing good, effective work, which the change in the line-up of totals will show, but there is plenty of time between now and the close of the contest to catch the leader in your district, and candidates who are a few thousand votes behind number one in each district should not feel a bit discouraged, but go after it more determined than ever—and leaders should not overlook the fact that they should from now on try to retain the position they now hold, as the other contestants will do their level best to displace her and carry off the honors of the district.

Every contestant in the race who has any intention of winning one of the valuable prizes will make a vigorous campaign from now on, and put forth every effort to capture the leading position of her particular district, and do her utmost to retain it.

This is the proper spirit to have when competing in a contest of this kind, for, as a general rule, candidates who enter the race determined to win and go about getting votes systematically, generally finish at the top of the list, when the last count of votes is made.

The Way Prizes Will Be Awarded

Capital prize—Grand upright piano, valued at $350, will be given to the young lady who secures the most votes of any candidate in the contest, irrespective of the district she may represent.

First prize to each district—To the four young ladies who finish with the largest number of votes to their credit in each of the four districts, after the capital prize has been awarded, will be given a first-class free trip to Los Angeles and return, including the very best hotel accommodations for one week while in the city of Los Angeles, under the escort of a chaperone, who will be a resident of Lane county.

Second prize in each district.—Then to the four young ladies who finish with the second largest number of votes in each of the four district, after the capital and first prizes have been awarded, will receive a six-months' full course scholarship at the Eugene Business College, one of the best educational institutions in the state of Oregon.

Lane county will be divided into four districts, to which each will be awarded at least two of the prizes and one of the four districts will receive three of the prizes, including the grand upright piano.

District No. 1.—Includes all of the city of Eugene.

District No. 2.—That part of Lane county south of Creswell, including Cottage Grove, Wildwood, Hazel Dell Dexter, London and Lorane.

District No. 3.—Junction City, Florence, and all of Lane county west of Eugene.

District No. 4.—Includes Springfield, Coburg, Wendling, Creswell Thurston and Marcola.

Cut out the coupon published below and fill in the name of some married lady who is a resident of Lane county. It will count for 25 votes and nominate her.

Every candidate in The Guard's great $1000 prize voting contest is requested to clip the special chaperone vote coupon (which is good for 25 votes) and fill in the name of some married lady who is a resident of Lane County, whom she would like to have act as an escort for the winners of the Los Angeles trips, and mail or bring it to this office before Monday, January 9th, when the list of names of prospective candidates will be published.

Every Married Lady Who Is a Resident of Lane County Is Eligible to Compete.

The chaperone contest, unlike the regular contest, is an open-for-all affair, and the married lady who is favored with the largest number of votes will receive a free trip to Los Angeles and return, including first-class hotel accommodations for one week at a leading hotel in the southern metropolis at the expense of the Eugene Daily Guard.

Every candidate in the contest no doubt knows of some married lady, who would be delighted to make a trip with the winners of the Los Angeles trip prizes, and it remains with them to cut out and send in as many special 25 vote coupons as possible to give their particular favorite chaperone candidate a good start in the race.

A chaperone coupon good for one vote only will be published each day from now until the close of the contest February 8, and the candidate who receives the largest number of votes will be pronounced the winner when the final count is made the last night of the contest. Be sure the name of your favorite candidate appears when the list is published next Monday, January 9th.

Every married lady who contemplates entering the race should communicate or call at The Guard office and get posted as to the conditions of the contest, etc.

Spirited Rivalry in All Districts.

The fourth week of The Guard's popular ladies' prize voting contest opens today with renewed activity, and with a prospect of the remaining weeks of the contest seeing some spirited rivalry for the grand upright Kimball piano, the free trips to Los Angeles and return, and the five six-months full course scholarships to be

SPRINGFIELD MATCH FACTORY'S FIRST SHIPMENT

The Oregon Match Company is now running full blast and yesterday shipped their first consignment of matches to Portland, which consisted of fifty cases. Manager Duffie informs us that they have orders for three hundred more cases and are working from eight to ten people steadily. The industry is a good one and will prove profitable for those who are interested.

L. C. Beadle, brother of Herb Beadle, of this place, arrived from Crystal Valley, Mich., a short time ago and has decided to make this his permanent home. He is a cement sidewalk and concrete builder, and intends following that occupation in Springfield, as there will be a great amount of work in that line to do in the next year.

The Booth-Kelly mill hands were called to work again Monday morning for a few days, possibly owing to receiving a few orders for lumber. Rumors are numerous that the mill is about to change management, but so far the News has been unable to obtain any information that would justify such rumors. However, the annual meeting will be held some time this month and the public must wait developments.

Revival meetings at the Methodist church began last Sunday evening. George H. Feese, conference evangelist, is assisting the pastor. The interest has increased every day and many people are becoming serious about religious matters. The meetings will continue all of next week.

Chester Nolan, who has for the past two years been operator at the Springfield depot, has severed all connection for the time being with the company and Tuesday took his departure for his home at Creswell.

The switch engine that has been in use here for the past year switching cars for the Springfield, Coburg and Wendling yards, was taken off Monday and now the work is being don by the Coburg-Eugene passenger train.

The students of the Springfield high school are preparing to publish a school paper, the first issue to appear about the first of February.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bryan returned from a several days' visit with Mr. Bryan's parents at Philomath Tuesday evening.

Mrs. W. E. McElroy and little son, of Salem, are visiting their cousin, Mrs. A. S. Shaw.—News

NORMAL SCHOOL OFFERS SPECIAL OPPORTUNITIES

The Southern Oregon State Normal school at Ashland offers special opportunities for teachers to review for the teachers' examinations in February and August, and to take work in pedagogy and special methods in teaching the various grades of the training school. Since the public schools of Oregon are calling for teachers who can teach manual training, many are taking advantage of the industrial work lately installed in the school. Expenses of board and lodging and tuition nominal.

The State Normal School at Ashland is enjoying the largest appropriation of state funds ever granted a normal school in the history of Oregon. Catalogues sent on application to the president. j31
