AN INDEPENDENT PAPER Member of Associated Press

MONDAY, JANUARY 6, 1908

Never in the history of Oregon was the state receiving such an enormous amount of advertising as at the present time. The writers who are contesting for the 80 prizes ($5000) offered by the Portland Commercial Club, have seemingly been busy in every state in the union. Some of the contestants have written a series of articles covering several editions of the same newspaper, thoroughly discussing the attractions and resources of the state. Governor Chamberlain will be requested to name his three judges and they will begin their work February 1. Commercial Club Bulletin.

PRIZE CONTEST GROWS DAILY IN INTEREST

The Guard's prize contest is growing daily, and assuming many of the characteristics of a genuine popular election. The candidates and their friends are actively at work in every part of the county, and are securing large numbers of votes, which will be deposited in the ballot box in due course of time.

The Guard is pleased to note this increasing interest and trusts the campaign will be characterized by good nature and a fair spirit of rivalry throughout. On our part, we will guarantee an absolutely fair contest, in which no employe of the paper will be allowed to take any part, or extend to any candidate any assistance or courtesy that is withheld from another. The prizes are valuable, and every one of them worth striving for, and they will be awarded just as advertised; no matter whether the contest results in bringing a large amount of business, the winners will be treated just as liberally as if the returns were larger.

There is no necessity for the contest costing a candidate a single dollar, nothing but a reasonable amount of work and effort, that will really be of benefit to them in the acquiring of the practical business experience that it will afford them. In this fall season, a popular election in Lane county should prove a welcome diversion and especially so when the candidates are young ladies who are deservedly popular with their friends and acquaintances, and for whom the finest prize on earth would be none too good.

This is an opportunity for every good citizen of the county to vote early and often without running a risk of being challenged for "repeating." It gives, furthermore, an opportunity for an illustration of the practical working of "equal suffrage," the ladies having every right accorded to their earwhistle lords and masters.

WOULD APPLY HENRY GEORGE THEORY IN EUGENE

In the Guard today is a communication from a "newcomer" in Eugene, who thinks unimproved real estate is held too high, in and about the city. He suggests as a remedy for this condition the higher taxation of such property, and the consequent lowering of values of improvements—an application of the principle of Henry George's single tax theory. Some of the suggestions in this communication are no doubt good; you others there may be a difference of opinion. At any rate only good can come from the raising of such questions of the correspondent, and it is the public to thinking and if conditions exist that are not conducive to the welfare of the ed when attention is called to them through the newspapers.

The Boise Daily Statesman has the following editorial paragraph concerning a former Lane county boy, a member of a well-known family here, the title referred to being those growing out of Governor Steunenberg's murder: The trials, in which the state has been so deeply interested, have testified and tried a number of men and none have stood the test better than the capable, faithful, fearless and incorruptible young lawyer who has officially represented Canyon county. He has earned a high place in the esteem of all who have watched in the full performance of his duty and no breath of scandal has in any way reached him. His associates speak of him in the highest terms. We predict a splendid future for Mr. Van Dusen. He has ability, fidelity, a fine sense of right and justice, a high conception of public duty—these things win.

Wonderful people, the Japs! The Manchurian railway, controlled by them, does not give rebates, though "certain facilities" are given the goods of a syndicate in which the government is believed to be interested that are denied shippers of American goods. Not surprising that our trade there has decreased more than 50 per cent.

It turns out that the woman at the bottom of the published scandals that have raised a furore in German court circles is no less a personage than Princess Charlotte, the Emperor's sister. The poor editor, used by her, will probably keep over his desk hereafter. "Put not your trust in a princess."

It is no surprise that ex-Governor Geer has announced his candidacy for congress in the second Oregon district. Had it been announced that a campaign would pass without Geer being a candidate for something, it would have given the politicians a real jolt.

Great is medical science. It has discovered that lying is often the result of indigestion, and everybody knows there is more indigestion in this country than any other. So, when you are handed a whooper, just pass a tablet and let it go at that.

And now here's a former governor Crawford of Kansas, booming Justice Brewers for president, because "what we need is a man such as President Lincoln." Is Justice Brewer such a man? If so, it has taken a long time to find it out—he's 71.

The woman who divorced a husband because he wouldn't change his shirts until they wore out, and remarried him on his promise to change them twice a week, will next be demanding that he take a bath once a month, or be divorced.

Detroit's swellest bunch of aristocracy, recently reduced from 1,000 to 250, proved itself to be the real thing by holding a cock fight at a dinner for debutants. That puts it up to the scratched 750 to pull off a crap game.

"Tubby tosh" is the newest slang for nonsensical, and it did not come from a "ten-twenty-third" vaudeville artist, but from a Harvard professor, with a string of capital letters following his name.

Having failed in an attempt to oust a constituent from a senate clerkship, some people are beginning to doubt Senator Bourne's ability to make a president.

The senate Brownsville investigation has already cost more than $30,000, and if there is anything to show for it, it has not been made public.

Since it is a long distance from Astoria to Tucson, no bloodshed is likely to occur in the Fulton-Henry warfare.

Nervy.

"Thompkins has got more nerve than any man I ever met."

"What now?"

"He came over to my place yesterday to borrow my gun, saying he wanted to kill a dog that kept him awake nights."

"Well, what of it?"

"It was my dog he killed."

Essie—Mama, did the angels bring my little baby brother? Mama—Yes my love. Bezzie—Gracious, they must have been very patient angels to listen to his crying.

"Well, Willie," asked grandma, "have you had all the dinner you want?" "No," answered Willie, but I have all I can eat."

Mrs. Bay—She is simply mad on the subject of germs, and sterilizes or filters everything in the house. Mrs. Kaye—How does she get along with the family? "Oh, even her relations are strained."

If you are going to use coal this winter it will pay you to get a Wilson Coal Heater. dtf

PILES AND POWER.

A surgeon may be placed in command of the naval hospital ship Relief, General Leonard Wood was formerly an army surgeon. Would you wear a flashing sword, And be a brigadier, And charge the hostile horde, And fill the foe with fear; Would you wear enough gold lace Your uniform to fill? Here's the way to get the place—Learn to make a liver pill. Never mind what guns are for, How an army should be led; Never mind the art of war, Learn to feel a pulse instead. If you can prescribe a dose For a patient with fever, You'll be brigadier or close, With the aid of such a lever.

Or would you prefer the sea, Want to run a navy ship, Let the navigators be, Learn the treatment of the grip, Would you like a seadog live, And defy the howling gale, Learn the proper dope to give When a patient's looking pale.

Do not study tide and stream, Or the way to shoot the sun; A stimulant as good as steam Can you write the doctor's "R." In prescribing draught or pill, You're a thoroughgoing far, Just the man to fill the bill. —C. B. QUINCY.

HOW ADVERTISING IN THE GUARD PAYS

Mr. J. Kavanagh, manager of the Singer Sewing Machine agency in this city, states that he is convinced absolutely that advertising in The Guard pays good returns. Because of one 25-cent local ad Mr. Kavanagh sold four machines. "If I were in any line of mercantile business for myself, I should be a regular advertiser," says Mr. Kavanagh. "It is the modern way of building up a business and The Guard seems to cover this field completely, my traveling over the country having convinced me of that fact."

EUGENE PROPERTY WILL GROW VALUABLE

Blair street addition property is sure to double in value within the next two years. Two electric railroads are coming up the valley from Portland and both of them must enter the city from the west, and the line that will tap the Siuslaw country can not go out in any other direction. As sure as water runs down hill, Eugene must build down the valley—because the business is there. There are both acreage tracts and large lots in this addition, only a mile from the business center, and three blocks from the Geary public school. Prices are very reasonable and you may make your own terms, a small payment down and monthly installments if you desire. See the Oregon Land Co. at 412 Willamette street, or write them for particulars and prices.

AS TO ACUTE DISEASES

In many quarters of the country osteopaths are not very numerous; as a result, the news of their good work having spread, they are kept busy treating patients who come to their offices suffering from diseases that have become chronic, so that the impression has grown that osteopaths treat chronic diseases only. In many quarters of the country where osteopaths have become numerous the doctors of this new school have become the regular family physician. They have been called in alike for the troubles of children and parents, and their marked success in the treatment of diseases of every character makes their services much sought after. Any one who wishes a thoroughly convincing demonstration of osteopathy's effectiveness should call in an osteopath when some member of the family is suffering from an acute attack; and it is quite certain that the osteopath will thereafter be the family physician.
