Watch for the announcement of names of chaperone candidates to be published tomorrow.

A steady advance is being made by all candidates in the ladies' popular voting contest, as the changes in the count of votes will show during the past 24 hours. All are doing good, effective work, and will make a good jump before long which will surprise their many friends.

It seems the candidates, in place of polling their votes in large blocks, have adopted the plan of creating a reserve force, which is a very good scheme. A reserve force of votes is a mighty good thing to have, as it keeps your competitors in the dark as to your exact standing, and as votes lagged on subscriptions can be cast at any time during the contest, it gives the contestants who have votes in reserve a chance to take the lead in their district at any time they see fit.

Candidates' Photographs
Commencing next Wednesday, and each day thereafter, the pictures of the contestants and chaperones will be published. Reproducing the picture of a contestant has won many a race for candidates who felt as though their chances for success were very slim. It's a good idea. A person seeing the reproduction of another is does away with the slightest doubt as to their identity and it convinces a reader that your name was entered in the contest determined to win. So send in your photo today, if you have one, and it will be published in turn. If you have not a likeness of yourself as in the Eugene Art Gallery on Willamette street and arrange to have one taken. The Guard has a camera for this without any cost to you. Do it now. A short article will be published in connection with your photograph, and extra copies will be given that can be mailed to out-of-town friends.

Chaperone Candidates
The question of who is to be the chaperone is an absorbing one with the contestants, who, while not overlooking their own campaign, take interest in securing some congenial companion who may make the trip to and from Los Angeles, convey them about the city and its numerous outlying suburbs, and otherwise assist them in enjoying the trip.

As stated in the columns of The Guard Wednesday, the chaperone candidate for whom the largest number of votes is polled, will receive a free accorded each lady whose name is proposed to act as chaperone will appear Saturday, January 11. Coupons clipped from the daily papers will count as one vote, and the same number of votes will be allowed on new and old subscriptions in the chaperone contest as in the regular contest.

This offer is open to any married lady who is a resident of Lane county who would like to chaperone the winners of the four free trips to Los Angeles and return. The chaperone and winning candidates will be shown all points of interest in and around Los Angeles to an advantage.

The Way Prizes Will Be Awarded
Capital prize—Grand upright piano, valued at $350, will be given to the young lady who secures the most votes of any candidate in the contest, irrespective of the district she may represent.

First prize to each district—To the four young ladies who finish with the largest number of votes to their credit in each of the four districts, after the capital prize has been awarded, will be given a first-class free trip to Los Angeles and return, including the very best hotel accommodations for one week while in the city of Los Angeles, under the escort of a chaperone, who will be a resident of Lane county.

Second prize in each district.—Then to the four young ladies who finish with the second largest number of votes in each of the four districts, after the capital and first prizes have been awarded, will receive a six-months' full course scholarship at the Eugene Business College, one of the best educational institutions in the state of Oregon.

Lane county will be divided into four districts, to which each will be awarded at least two of the prizes and one of the four districts will receive three of the prizes, including the grand upright piano.

District No. 1.—Includes all of the city of Eugene.

District No. 2.—That part of Lane county south of Creswell, including Cottage Grove, Wildwood, Hazel Dell, Dexter, London and Lorane.

District No. 3.—Junction City, Florence, and all of Lane county west of Eugene.

District No. 4.—Includes Springfield, Coburg, Wendling, Creswell, Thurston and Marcola.

AMUSEMENTS

Deadwood, S. D., April 23, 1907.
J. G. Rieher, Esq., Mgr. Opera House, Hot Springs, S. Dak.

Dear Sir:—I believe that I have not heard from you the last time I answered your letter, but I understand that T. J. Culligan's Nashville Students are to play you, and on that case I would like to say to you that they played me last night to a big house and more than pleased every one and sent them away talking about it, and in fact I wish that I had had them for two nights, not an objectionable feature in the whole performance and the very best dancing and good singing. Boost for them and get them a good house if possible, as they are deserving of the same, and will certainly make good. Wishing you success, I beg to remain,
Yours truly,
M. C. KELLOGG,
Manager Deadwood Theatre Co.

The Nashville Students.
This popular aggregation gave a very entertaining program last evening to a well-filled house. The dancing was about the best ever given here, every one who came on seeming to be better than the one who was on before. The jokes were better than those usually given. The company is a good one for a fun-giving entertainment, and pleased the people.—Rapid City Journal, April 28.

DAILY FREIGHT TRAIN SOUTH OF ROSEBURG

Local freight train service between Junction and Grants Pass is to be reduced from daily to tri-weekly, beginning next Saturday. These are the trains known as Nos. 225 and 226. Hereafter No. 225 will leave Junction every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and go on south from Roseburg every Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday, and go north from Roseburg every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. This arrangement will result in the laying off of two of the local train crews. So far as the freight service is concerned, Roseburg will not be materially affected, as nearly all the Portland shipments are brought here on the through freights, which will continue to run daily as heretofore. Other points along the line will be handicapped, however, by receiving only three freights a week instead of seven, as before.—Roseburg Review.

A CURE FOR MISERY
"I have found a cure for the misery malaria produces," says R. M. James, of Louellen, S. C. "It's called Electric Bitters and comes in 50 cent bottles. It breaks up a case of chills or a bilious attack in no time and it puts yellow jaundice clear out of commission." This great tonic medicine and blood purifier gives quick relief in all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, and the misery of lame back. Sold under guarantee at W. A. Kuykendall's drug store.

CALL FOR CITY WARRANTS
