SMALL AD BROUGHT SIXTEEN ANSWERS

A lady called at The Guard office today and stated that a small classified advertisement brought her sixteen answers. "If I were to start in business with a capital of $50," said the lady, "I would spend half of it in advertising, and in this field I know from experience that The Guard brings business."

PARTY LINES WIPED OUT IN STATE AND NATION

The Oregonian has justified its declaration of political independence by asserting that there is no Republican party in Oregon, and who is there to take issue with the Portland daily on this question? Every day adds to the confusion among the warring factions of what was once a Republican party. Schuebel's appointment to an important federal position in opposition to three-fourths of the Republican delegation in congress only emphasizes the demoralization of what was once the dominant party in Oregon, which now consists of a number of predatory camps, rallying around the personal standard of some leader like Fulton, Bourne, Geer or Calk, each distrustful of the other's purposes. Now at the outset of a state and national campaign there is no unity of purpose, no organization, no advocacy of fixed principles, only the fragments of a broken machine, from which the best elements among the voters are holding aloof, thousands of erstwhile Republicans preferring to vote for Democratic candidates as a protest against existing conditions. Oregon Republicanism is paying the penalty of machine rule, and nothing but chaos may be hoped for until a strong, capable leader comes forward, who will displace the small fellows so persistently pushing their personal claims to the fore, without discernment enough to know that the people are tired and sick of their self-assorted leadership.

On the other hand, what of the Democratic party? Is there anything to it but George Chamberlain, who is the most successful "non-partisan" politician the West ever produced. A fairly good executive, with his gallery-play attack on the State University cut out, he will have hard work to longer hold in line the old-time Democrats who are wondering now whether they gained much, either in principle or patronage, by the success of the governor. They are beginning to take stock of their assets as a party and find that about everything available in sight consists of a "non-partisan" governor and his personal machine, as many of its component parts being Republican as Democratic.

The lesson of the present political mix-up in Oregon is plain. Party lines have been wiped out and party organizations broken up because the people are at last awake to the fact that they have been whooping it up, these many years, solely to advance the interests of the politicians. Oregon especially having had a bad case of machine domination. Disgrace has followed the exposure of official corruption, and since there is no great national issue to align the voters into divisive parties, confusion worse confounded is a natural sequence. Oregon's political demoralization is only a degree worse than that of the nation at large, this year's presidential campaign giving every individual a chance of being a personal contestant in which Bryan, with his great following from all parties, will be pitted against Taft, as the personal representative of Roosevelt, whose supporters are about as numerous in the Democratic as the Republican party.

Michigan's constitutional convention has taken the preliminary steps toward prohibiting the manufacture and sale of cigarettes in the state, and dealers in "white coffin dolls" in adjoining states are preparing to meet a heavy increase in mail orders.

It seems that naval "line" officers are only willing to take orders from the surgeons of the "staff" when they are flat on their backs, while the doctors want to boss all the time and Teddy is backing them. Now congress will sit in the game.

John Barrett, the gentleman who draws a fat salary for being at the head of the Bureau of Pan-American Republics, and spends most of his time in making speeches, approves of the battleship cruise. That ought to satisfy every one.

Congress should at once start an investigation to ascertain whether the president killed the rabbit, at Pine Knot, in self-defense, or has become tainted with mollycoddlism. Why else should a mighty hunter shoot a rabbit.

Senator Taylor ("Fiddling Bob") of Tennessee, has so far recovered from his illness that he has put out a newspaper interview, just to let the folks at home know that he is in the game, even if he hasn't made a speech.

Somebody will be sure to say that Hon. Grover Cleveland, in his article on "Our duties to our ex-presidents," is making a noise like a man caught in the money squeeze, even if the insurance companies have not cut his salary.

Are we to understand from the attempt of Senator Burrows to start a boom for Justice Brewer that none of the candidates now in the field for the presidential nomination are satisfactory to the eminent Meigander?

Senator Jeff Davis will undertake to demonstrate to the New York Progressive Democratic League, a Bryan organization, on January 16, that his trust-thumping apparatus is still in good working order.

Every once in so often an invention is announced that promises to drive the pretty typewriter girl from her job, but she still holds her own, and frequently more, as court records will show.

It is to cost $500 a year to run a rum mill in Louisville, but the newspapers of the town, which are doubtless familiar with its drinking capacity, say it will be worth the price.

Japan also believes in preparing for war in times of peace, and is doing it right along. In fact, so are all the big nations.

THURSTON ITEMS

(Special Correspondence.) Thurston, Jan. 10.—In my last items you stated that the Howard brothers had purchased a new buggy and new wagon for $100, where you should have said they had built a shed for their wagon and buggy to the value of $100.

The measles have located on the family of Charles Gray, but they are getting along well.

J. J. Totten is just recovering from an attack of the grippe and will be able to attend the registration, as he has been furnished the book and blanks for the same as justice of the peace.

Potato digging is still going on and every fair day is being halted with pleasure by those that have potatoes.

Mrs. H. M. Weinhart, of Eugene, is paying her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Totten, a visit.

Mrs. Stephens, of the Divinity School, of Eugene, will hold services at Thurston the coming Sunday, January 12, 1908.

LADIES OF G. A. R.

Invites all G. A. R. comrades and their wives and all circle members and their families to their installation of officers and reception Saturday, January 11, at 4:30 p. m. NETTIE KROUSE, Pres.

ATTENTION, COMRADES

There will be a meeting of old soldiers on next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the office of J. T. Rowland for the purpose of organizing a new Grand Army post in Eugene. All interested are requested to be present.

How to Train Citizens of the Future.

By Dr. EDWARD EVERETT HALE, Chaplain of the United States Senate. Author, Editor, Etc.

REAL DEMOCRACY DEMANDS FROM EACH MAN THAT HE LIFTS WHERE HE STANDS, THAT THE MAGNIFICENT SWAY OF PUBLIC OPINION IS TO BE MAINTAINED. EVERY BOY AND GIRL IS TO BE CONSECRATED IN YOUNG LIFE TO SERVE THE PEOPLE. TO BE TAUGHT TO BE COURTEOUS TO STRANGERS, TO BE RESPECTFUL TO THEIR SUPERIORS, TO UPHOLD TEMPERANCE AND PURITY— ALL THIS WITH CONSCIENTIOUS PURPOSE EVERY DAY—AND ANY MAN OR WOMAN AMONG US WHO IS NOT WILLING TO TAKE A SHARE IN THIS RULE OF THE PEOPLE, FOR THE PEOPLE AND BY THE PEOPLE OUGHT TO BE PUNISHED.

They should be excluded from the familiar confidence of other men and women as lepers were among the Hebrews or as pariahs were in Hindustan. THEY DO NOT BELONG HERE. Such persons are to be rooted out as poison ivy is to be rooted from the pleasure ground. They have no foothold in a real republic.

It is not simply by attending a primary meeting and ONCE A YEAR marking a ballot in which I show my preference for that one man in a hundred who is to sweep my streets for me or light my lamps for me that I show myself as a TRUE citizen of a Christian city. I am TO DO MY SHARE and to know I do it in opening the eyes of the blind or the ears of the deaf, in welcoming the stranger and in encouraging the prisoner, in clothing the naked or in feeding the hungry and in setting on their feet those who have fallen down or in casting out devils from those who are possessed.

Water for the thirsty, health for the sick, air for those who are stifled, companionship for those who are lonely—here are A FEW ONLY OF THE PRIVILEGES some one of which demands definite action all along the line in the workaday life of every consecrated man and woman, EACH FOR ALL AND ALL FOR EACH.

HARRISBURG NEWS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Mrs. Flynn, of Coburg, spent Sunday in this city, the guest of her aunt, Mrs. H. Bishop.

I. Senders, of Junction City, was here on a short visit with relatives and friends Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Minnie Sibbetts, of Junction City, was here Sunday last on a short visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Endicott were here from Springfield the first of the week for a short visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bramwell, of Lake Creek, were here the first of the week, visiting with the latter's sister, Mrs. H. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Hallin, of Coburg, and Mrs. Peterson, of Buford, Wis., spent Sunday in this city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hochdanner. Mr. Hallin is superintendent of the Booth-Kelly Company's mill at Coburg, and while here visited the company's mill site in this city, and stated that he thought the company would erect a mill here provided the mill men won out in their suit against the railroad men for lower freight rates.

Some one, evidently familiar with the surroundings, broke into the S. P. depot at this city last Thursday night and took two trunks out of the building, carrying them out back of Wilhelm's warehouse, where they were broken open and a few articles taken therefrom. One of the trunks belonged to Arch Pierce, and the only articles he found missing were a coat and hat. Nothing else seemed to have been disturbed about the building, and it is quite likely that the parties doing the work were simply looking for a few articles of clothing, and had probably been loitering about the depot when the train came in during the evening, and thought that they could find something in them that would be of value to them. They entered the building by prying up one corner of the north door to the warehouse high enough to get one corner of it over a block on the floor and then swinging it far enough open for one to crawl in, when the door was unfastened and rolled open.—Harrisburg Bulletin.

OLD-TIME STAGE DRIVER PAYS EUGENE A VISIT

TOM MORGAN, WHO HANDED REINS BEFORE RAILROAD WAS BUILT, HERE AFTER MANY YEARS.

Tom Morgan, of Heppner, who has been visiting old time friends in Eugene, went to Junction City today and after a short visit there will return to his home. Mr. Morgan was one of the drivers of the overland stages which passed through Eugene every day in the early times, before the railroad was built through here.

He came to Eugene 40 years ago and made this city his headquarters, this being one of the division points, or where the drivers and teams were changed. He was here a couple of days in 1893, that being his first visit for many years, but this time he says he hardly recognizes the city, so much has it improved since his last visit here. He was shown about the city by a number of his old friends while here, and to a Guard reporter at the depot today he said he was delighted with the place and thinks it one of the finest cities on the coast.

AS TO ACUTE DISEASES

In many quarters of the country osteopaths are not very numerous; as a result, the news of their good work having spread, they are kept busy treating patients who come to their offices suffering from diseases that have become chronic, so that the impression has grown that osteopathy treat chronic diseases only.

In many quarters of the country where osteopaths have become numerous the doctors of this new school have become the regular family physicians. They have been called in alike for the troubles of children and parents, and their marked success in the treatment of diseases of every character makes their services much sought after. Any one who wishes a thoroughly convincing demonstration of osteopathy's effectiveness should call in an osteopath when some member of the family is suffering from an acute attack; and it is quite certain that the osteopath will thereafter be the family physician.

BANK FOOLISHNES

When attacked by a cough or a cold, or when your throat is sore, it is rank foolishness to take any other medicine than Dr. King's New Discovery," says C. O. Eldridge, of Empire, Ga. "I have used New Discovery for seven years, and I know it is the best remedy on earth for coughs and colds, croup, and all throat and lung troubles. My children are subject to croup, but New Discovery quickly relieves every attack."

Known the world over as the king of throat and lung remedies. Sold under guarantee at W. A. Kuykendall's drug store, 25c and $1. Trial bottle free.
