BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION NEEDED

The Commercial Club will tonight take up the matter of organizing a building and loan association in Eugene.

Nothing would tend to do more to encourage home building in Eugene than the organization of an association of this kind.

It will provide funds on easy payment and at a moderate rate of interest to the wage-earners and salaried employees of the city.

Instead of paying rent for years and at the same time having nothing to show for it, it will be possible for this class of people to own their own homes.

Increasing their pride and independence, their interest in the city and advancement of the community in which they are owners of property.

As a building and loan association with a capital of $100,000 is incorporated here, we predict that within a few years the demand for the stock will be a new series, quite as large as the first issue.

This has been the history of such organizations in other towns, and it will be repeated here.

Senator KNOX HAS CLEAR LEAD NOW

As much as actual delegate getting in the prime essential in securing national convention nomination for president of the United States—for votes are what create nominees.

From popular or party sentiment or newspaper support—there is considerable force in the boast of the voters of Philadelphia C. Knox, of Pennsylvania, that he is today the leading candidate for the Republican nomination because he has more "visible strength" than any other.

Those who are asking where Hughes stands must be near-sighted. Even from this distance it is easy to see that he is standing in the shoes of the governor of New York, and standing firmly at that.

An English suffragist is telling Americans, at $1 per tell, "Why I Went to Jail." Perhaps it is not our butt in, but it strikes us that the price is fully 100 per cent more than the information is worth.

Senator and Mrs. Depew have sent out invitations to a dance this month. Chaucery evidently wants it understood that he is still in the social ring, even if he does wear a down-and-out political tag.

astronomer, M. Flammarion, is testing the theory. So far his experiments have not indicated that it makes any difference what the phase of the moon is when any vegetable is planted.

James H. Reed, president of the Philadelphia Company, and a close friend of Senator Knox, speaking in Pittsburg, said: "We have had enough of Rooseveltism for some time."

Chivalry can go little farther now that Congressman Sims, of Tennessee, has introduced a bill providing that men who occupy seats in Washington street cars while women are standing shall pay double fare.

Lieutenant-Colonel Glenn, U. S. A., should be required to furnish the specifications upon which he based his publicly expressed opinion that the United States ranks third among the nations that will probably hold the mastery of the Pacific ocean.

Congressman Mann, of Illinois, believes in one-man power—no pun—and responsibility, and has introduced a bill to abolish the canal commission and put Major Goethals in full charge.

If the example of F. F. Lonergan, one of the confessed San Francisco grafters, who dropped dead, supposedly from remorse, should be followed by all municipal grafters, the undertakers would be very busy.

That "prohibition wave" has reached the postoffice department, which will insert a clause in all future contracts for carrying mail prohibiting the carrying of intoxicants from one point to another on the routes.

Gotham's new board of aldermen is considering the ordinance prohibiting smoking by women in restaurants and other places of public entertainment, which is about the hardest knock yet handed its women.

Spoken Cannon has, it is said, agreed to take the lid off congressional oratory—doubtless with the idea that the talk will distract public attention from the tight-fitting lid he intends to keep on legislation.

Those who are asking where Hughes stands must be near-sighted. Even from this distance it is easy to see that he is standing in the shoes of the governor of New York, and standing firmly at that.

An English suffragist is telling Americans, at $1 per tell, "Why I Went to Jail." Perhaps it is not our butt in, but it strikes us that the price is fully 100 per cent more than the information is worth.

Senator and Mrs. Depew have sent out invitations to a dance this month. Chaucery evidently wants it understood that he is still in the social ring, even if he does wear a down-and-out political tag.

If the attack of Claus A. Spreckles on the sugar trust, of which he is a large stockholder, isn't a bid for some personal purpose, interesting developments may be expected therefrom.

Doubtless most of the readers of the correspondence between the president and Rear Admiral Brownson will agree that it failed to read up to the advance advertising.

PERENNIAL CANDIDATE (Pacific Outlook, Rep.) T. T. Geer, perennial candidate for any old office, either in Oregon or Washington, has once more laid down the editorial quill, abandoned the sanctum of the Pendleton Tribune, and betaken himself to the wilderness to proclaim his candidacy for the office of congressman from the second district. What a pity that a potential journalist with a possibility of usefulness before him should waste the waning years of life in such a will-of-the-wisp chase.

Cooper's New Theory Attracts Widespread Attention During Stay in Cincinnati

An adequate idea of intense interest which has been aroused by young Mr. Cooper during the past year with his theories and medicines is given in the following article which appeared in the Cincinnati Post while Cooper was in that city.

"The beginning of Mr. Cooper's second week in Cincinnati gives every indication that he is to enjoy the most astonishing success here as in other cities. From the first day of his visit the crowds that call to see him have steadily increased, until now it has reached a point where several thousands talk with him each day.

"A number of Cincinnatians were interviewed at Cooper's headquarters on Friday and several interesting statements, showing their intense faith in Cooper's preparations, were secured. The following are selected from these statements and are characteristic of them all: Mrs. E. M. Emerson of 639 West Court Street, said, 'I have suffered with stomach trouble and constipation for a year or so. When I ate I would have bloated spells, sour stomach, fermentation, bad taste in my mouth. In the morning I was as tired as when I went to bed. I had a dull pain in the lower part of my back. I have taken almost one bottle of the New Discovery and am so wonderfully improved that I have come down here to thank Mr. Cooper in person and obtain more of the medicine.'

"Another individual interviewed was Mr. J. H. Brooks, living at 527 Walnut street, who had the following to say: 'For the past eighteen months I have been a constant sufferer from catarrh of the head and stomach. My nasal passage would become inflamed and sore. I would have severe headache, which affected my eyes and great crusts of matter would drop into the throat, causing an irritation of the bronchial passages, until the stomach finally became poisoned. When I would lay down at night a phlegm would gather in my throat until it almost choked me, and would cause an annoying cough. Half a bottle of Cooper's New Discovery gave me relief and when the first bottle was finished, I felt like a new man. I am now completely cured, and consider Cooper's New Discovery the greatest catarrh, blood and stomach remedy in the world.'

"The Cooper preparations have been wonderfully successful throughout the United States. We consider them remarkable medicines and would be pleased to explain the nature of them.

Each lady present brought a basket, which was very attractive, and well filled, the baskets being placed on the stage for sale. J. H. Dunlap was unanimously chosen for auctioneer, and soon disposed of them to the highest bidders. After a handsome supper was served the remainder of the evening was spent in a social way, assisted by a graphophone. It would hardly be realized that the hour of 11 p. m. had so soon arrived when the attendants departed for their homes.

BASKET SOCIAL AT BAILEY SCHOOL HOUSE

On January 10 at 8 p. m., at the Bailey schoolhouse, one of the most enjoyable evenings in the history of the district was spent at a social given by the ladies of the vicinity.
