STATE DEPOSITORY LAW SUCCESSFUL IN IDAHO

While Oregon is having no end of trouble with its state funds the young state of Idaho seems to have solved the problem by the enactment of a increased to $18,226.94.

Reports from State Treasurer Hastings on the results achieved by this law are ample proof of the wisdom of its enactment. The law went into effect on Febraury 11, 1905, and the comparative statement for the last two years shows that the returns to the state have been practically doubled. In 1906 the returns on interest on state deposits were $9267.69, and during the last year these have been increasel to $18,226.94.

The state of Idaho is now doing business with 78 banks and the rate of interest paid for the use of the money is 3 1-2 per cent. This money is well distributed throughout the state and there is no favoritism in the distribution. The law is working smoothly and with benefit to the people of the state. It is estimated that in the next biennium the state revenues will be augmented from $20,000 to $25,000 from the operation of the depository law.

HAS REFORM BEEN WORKED TOO HARD?

For the past year or two the country has been given rather a drastic treatment in the interest of reform. From the grocery store philosopher to the president of a woman's club, from the space writer to the president of the United States, everybody has been prescribing for his or her country, according to World's Work.

But there is another side of the question. We are in danger of taking an overdose of antidote for an overdose of cure.

If we need to guard against the amateur physician, even more do we need to guard against the ugliness of an unwilling convalescence.

Suppose we admit that the present financial situation is in some degree due to the excessive zeal of reformers—shall we then throw reform out of the window?

Is it true that men will not invest in stocks because of the agaitation against corporations?

Or is it true that we know how our Napoleons of finance pyramid their investments, reorganize their railroads, pocket the proceeds of stock issues, and make runs on trust companies to put rivals out of business, we prefer to put our money into farms?

Reforms cannot be undone by attacking reformers. That is only to deepen the plain citizen's suspicion of the belligerents.

We are learning something else besides the needs of discounting the enthusiasm of reformers. We have been taught the advantages of reform.

The love of fair play guarantees that the effect of an overdose will be rectified. Self-interest should lead men who are exploiting the present unreasonable financial crisis in the interest of reaction to see that their criticisms will be taken for symptoms requiring further treatment.

We expect convalescents to be cross, but when they attempt to kill their doctors we put them in straitjackets.

Miss Phoebe Couzins thinks J. Ham Lewis should be hung by his whiskers for having said that women have no regard for the sanctity of an oath. Better compel him to shave them off—that would be greater punishment.

Hammon, [illegible] former President Cleveland says the country needs a square deal, we take it that he thinks it is not getting one.

Others may have noticed that the currency reform which M. E. Ingalls urges Democrats to make one of the campaign issues closely resembles the Aldrich bill, now before the senate finance committee. Mere coincidence, eh?

Gus Heinze must regard his incursion into the exclusive realms of high financedom, which has led to his appearance in court to answer a criminal indictment, as a sort of nightmare. And he may awake behind bars.

When it comes to "seeing things" Parisian men are "jim-dandies." Just now they are seeing a Jap fleet lying in wait to put Bob Evans and his toy boats out of business without a word of warning. Absinthe, we suppose.

An alliance between beer and nobility will be consummated when Mrs. Schmid, owner of a big New York brewery, and one of the wealthiest widows in the city, annexes a foreign nobleman for a husband.

Sam Gompers took a trick when the New Hampshire branch of the American Federation of Labor, through its executive committee, branded Taft "the arch enemy of organized labor."

The recent departure of thousands of European laborers for thier homes had at least one good result—a marked falling off in immigration, which had for a long time been greater than was desirable.

That copper ax found on the shores of Lake Superior and said to have proved by test to be harder than steel, would seem like putty if compared with the brains found in some faces.

Nobody should attempt to stop the scrap now going on between the race track gamblers and the stock gamblers—if both get knocked out for keeps it will be a public benefit.

HARRISBURG NEWS OF THE PAST WEEK

Mrs. Flynn, of Coburg, visited with relatives in this city Saturday and Sunday, the guest of Mrs. H. Bishop.

Perl Widener was down from Eugene Sunday last paying his parents Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Widemer, a short visit.

Mrs. W. Tyler and Mrs. W. A. Murdock were called to Springfield Tuesday evening by the severe illness of their sister, Mrs. Ed Willoughby, whose condition, however, was considerably improved yesterday.

David S. Busey, one of Harrisburk's pioneer citizens, died at the family home in this city, Monday, January 13, 1908, aged 77 years, one month and 29 days, after an illness of short duration, although he had been failing in health for sometime past.

The city election passed off very quietly Monday last, and as there was but one ticket in the field the vote was very light, and resulted in the election of the following officers: Mayor, Barney May; recorder, T. J. Anderson; marshal, T. J. Stephens; treasurer, Geo. J. Wilhelm; councilmen, J. G. Kelsey, M. W. Canter, H. R. Sherrill, Jake Marguth, R. A. Githens, Oscar L. Scott.

At the regular meeting of Juniper camp, W. O. W., held on Friday evening, January 10, 1908, the following officers were installed for the ensuing year: Barney May, P. C. C.; T. J. Stephens, C. C.; D. C. Holt, A. L.; W. A. Murdock, banker; T. J. Anderson, clerk; B. May, escort; A. J. Hill, watchman; F. P. Sheldon, sentry; J. A. Springgate, C. L. Morris and Ira A. Phelps, managers.

At the last meeting of Jewel lodge, D. of H., held on the evening of January 8, 1908, the following officers were installed: Mrs. C. W. Murphy, C. of H.; Mrs. Viola Jones, P. C. of H.; Mrs. U. S. Gealson, L. of H.; Mrs. W. L. Wright, C. of C.; Mrs. C. E. Maxson, recorder; Charles H. Canter, financier; Miss Emma Love, receiver; Mrs. J. R. Cartwright, L. U.; W. L. Wright, I. W.; Arthur Senders, O. W.; C. E. Maxson, A. to C. of H.; Dr. Wm. H. Dale, medical examiner. C. E. Maxson was installing officer, and after the installation services were completed refreshments were served and the evening was spent in social entertainment. Mrs. Ethel Hendee Murphy rendered some excellent musical numbers, which greatly appreciated.—Bulletin.

A CURE FOR MISERY

"I have found a cure for the misery malaria produces," says R. M. James, of Louellen, S. C. "It's called Electric Bitters and comes in 50 cent bottles. It breaks up a case of chills or a bilious attack in no time and it puts yellow jaundice clear out of commission." This great tonic medicine and blood purifier gives quick relief in all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, and the misery of lame back. Sold under guarantee at W. A. Kuykendall's drug store.

Our Banking System the Best In the World.

By CHARLES G. DAWES, Former Comptroller of the Currency.

THE present banking system of the United States is the best in the world. The banking power of our country is GREATER THAN THAT OF ALL CONTINENTAL EUROPE.

We have this great system of separate and independent banks, and, whether we wish it or not or whether THEORETICALLY it is best or not, we must face as practical men the UTTER IMPOSSIBILITY of a reversion at this stage of our banking development to any type of banking fundamentally different. It is impracticable politically and from a business standpoint.

ALL THAT THE SITUATION NEEDS FROM CONGRESS, IN MY JUDGMENT, IS, FIRST, THE CHANGE IN THE LAWS REGULATING CASH RESERVES OF NATIONAL BANKS AND, SECOND, THE AUTHORIZING OF A HEAVILY TAXED BANK ASSET EMERGENCY CIRCULATION.

It might as well be recognized now that the independent treasury system of the United States has largely PROVED ITS COMMERCIAL SALVATION in the present crisis.

* * *

We have heard so much loose talk in recent years about the EVILS of the subtreasury system and its locking up the cash of the country when needed in commerce and business that we may as well recognize its benefits and WHAT WE HAVE ESCAPED THROUGH IT, AND IT ALONE.

The difference between conditions with our independent treasury and the position which we would eventually reach with its abolition is that the government would in the latter case be hard up for cash as well as the rest of us. From the moment of our putting the extra cash in the treasury into circulation it BECOMES THE BASIS OF BUSINESS and credits are built up above it under the ordinary operations of banking.

MICROSCOPES FOR HIGH SCHOOL TO BE BOUGHT

At a school meeting last night the purchase of five or six good microscopes for work in the science department was authorized on the recommendation of Superintendent Alderman. Some capable student at the University will be employed on part time to aid in operating the apparatus.

Microscopes are a necessity for anything like thorough work in botany and kindred subjects, the new instruments having been needed for some time.

MAKE THE STOMACH WORK

Indigestion Can Never Be Cured by Mollycoddling.

Don't try to cure your stomach trouble by coaxing, fussing, dieting and mollycoddling. Make the organ work. If it cannot take care of the food you eat without complaints such as flatulence, indigestion, headaches, and the feeling of fullness or distress, make its muscles work by using Mi-o-na stomach tablets.

The time to treat a disordered or weaknened stomach is when you begin to suspect that you have indigestion, or the suspicion will turn to certainty very soon. The heartburn, the flatulence, the coated tongue and heavy and dull feeling after eating that come occasionally after you eat too much of something that does not agree with you, can all be cured by Mi-o-na.

Try a 50-cent box of Mi-o-na on Hull's guarantee of money back if it does not do all that is claimed for it.

OLIVE STREET EXTENSION

To Whom It May Concern:—

Notice is hereby given that the report of the viewers appointed to assess the damages and benefits accruing to private property by reason of the extension of Olive street in the city of Eugene from its present southerly terminus to Seventeenth street, was on the 13th day of January, 1908, filed in my office, and that the same will be considered for confirmation or rejection at a meeting of the common council of the city to be held in the city hall in the city of Eugene at 7:30 o'clock p. m. on Monday, January 20, 1908. All property abutting on either side of said Olive street as proposed to be extended from the centre line of Twelfth street to Seventeenth street is assessed with benefits adjudged to accrue by reason of the extension of said Olive street. All persons interested in any of said lands taken by said proposed extension or so assessed with benefits, may appear at said time and place and file objections, if any they have, in writing to said report and be heard thereon.

ONLY TWO CASES OF SMALLPOX AT JUNCTION

Junction City, Or., Jan. 16, '08.

Editor Guard:—Owing to so many false statements being circulated from neighboring towns to traveling men in regard to the small pox in this town, I desire to say that there are only two cases in the town and vicinity, and they are under strict quarantine. The doctors and health officers all agree and do not anticipate any new cases, therefore consider it safe for public travel in and about town.

NORMAL SCHOOL OFFERS SPECIAL OPPORTUNITIES

The Southern Oregon State Normal school at Ashland offers special opportunities for teachers to review for the teachers' examinations in February and August, and to take work in pedagogy and special methods in teaching the various grades of the training school. Since the public schools of Oregon are calling for teachers who can teach manual training, many are taking advantage of the industrial work lately installed in the school. Expenses of board and lodging and tuition nominal.

The State Normal School at Ashland is enjoying the largest appropriation of state funds ever granted a normal school in the history of Oregon. Catalogues sent on application to the president. j31

AS TO ACUTE DISEASES

In many quarters of the country osteopaths are not very numerous; as a result, the news of their good work having spread, they are kept busy treating patients who come to their offices suffering from diseases that have become chronic, so that the impression has grown that osteopaths treat chronic diseases only.

In many quarters of the country where osteopaths have become numerous the doctors of this new school have become the regular family physiclay. They have been called in alike for the troubles of children and parents, and their marked success in the treatment of diseases of every character makes their services much sought after. Any one who wishes a thoroughly convincing demonstration of osteopathy's effectiveness should call in an osteopath when some member of the family is suffering from an acute attack; and it is quite certain that the osteopath will thereafter be the family physician.
