

MOTHER BELIEVES IN PERUNA.

Mrs. K. Kane, of Chicago, Uses Pe-ru-na in her family of five children, Grace, Myrtle, Edward, Reeves and George.

A HEALTHY FAMILY

Kept the Children Well.

Mrs. K. Kane, 196 Sebor St., Flat 1, Chicago, Ill., writes: "Peruna has been used so long in our family that I do not know how I could get along without it."

"I have given it to all of my five children at different times when they suffered with croup, colds and the many ailments that children are subject to, and am pleased to say that it has kept them in splendid health."

"I have also used it for a catarrhal difficulty of long standing, and it cured me in a short time, so I have every reason to praise Peruna."

Catarrhal Croup.
Few people realize how frequently croup is caused by catarrhal irritation of the throat. Probably nine cases out of ten of croup is of the catarrhal variety. The medical profession recognizes three forms of croup. The spasmodic variety, membranous croup and catarrhal croup. Nearly every case is of the catarrhal variety, and a few doses of Peruna taken at the first appearance of the catarrhal symptoms is generally sufficient to avert the attack of croup altogether. Croup is a frightful disease. No disease of children so alarms the household.

It is impossible to estimate how many homes have been protected against croup by the proper use of Peruna.

Household Remedies.
There is no remedy in the world which has proven so popular for catarrh as Peruna. It has been used for more than thirty years and cured thousands of cases, as proven by our testimonials.

The early history of this country every family had its home-made medicines. Herb teas, bitters, laxatives and tonics were to be found in almost every house, compounded by the housewife, sometimes assisted by the apothecary or the family doctor.

Furnishing medical compounds direct to the people, through the druggists, is simply the extension of the practice begun by the people themselves.

Nervous System a Wreck.
John G. Hirdler, Garfield, Kas., writes:

"On December 2, 1909, I was injured by a fall on the Santa Fe R. R., and my entire nervous system was impaired by the same. The help of a physician was useless. I believe I tried every one in the vicinity, but all were alike and I remained without strength. "I then tried Peruna, and after using it for three months was totally well. I am seventy-one years old, and my work on the railroad is hard and tedious, but I can work like a young man in all kinds of weather, heat, cold, rain, snow or storm alike.

"Peruna is the purest and best medicine, and if used according to directions, it will help any person and cure any disease for which it is recommended. I recommend this medicine by my own experience to anyone suffering from an ailment on the order of mine."

For Himself and Children.
Mrs. Aline DePasso, 776 E. 165th St., New York, N. Y., writes:

"It gives me pleasure to testify to the equal efficacy of Peruna and Manalin."

Catarrh of Stomach.

Mr. John M. Stansberry, Amarillo, Tex., writes:

"For several years I had catarrh of the stomach. I was hardly able to do anything, and could not eat with any satisfaction."

"When I commenced using Peruna, I weighed only 110 pounds. I took six bottles, commencing in the spring, and by the following winter I had gained 63 pounds."

"I owe it all to Peruna. It cannot be praised too highly."

"I am forty-five years old, and my occupation is that of architect and builder."

"I was afflicted for over seven years with catarrh of the head, throat and digestive organs. I consulted many physicians, but they did me no good."

"One day I happened to read some testimonials in your Peruna almanac. I decided to try Peruna and Manalin. I bought a bottle of each and after taking them for a week, I noticed a change for the better. So I kept it up and after using twelve bottles I was perfectly cured."

"I also gave the medicine to my children and they had the same beneficial result. I would never be without these remedies in the house."

"I highly recommend Peruna and Manalin to all my friends, and, in fact, to everybody."

"Thousands of families have learned to trust and believe in Dr. Hartman's judgment, and to rely on his remedy, Peruna."

AMUSEMENTS

The books and lyrics of "The Gingerbread Man," were written by Frederic Ranken and the music was written by A. Baldwin Sloane, whose tuneful scores in "Jack and the Beanstalk," "The Mother Bird," "Lady Teazle," etc., have been whistled in many parts of the globe. "The Gingerbread Man" as far as the story is concerned, has many characters dinned into childhood's ears in Mother Goose rhymes. There are Jack Horner, Simple Simon,

WILL START ANOTHER ELECTRIC THEATRE

S. S. Range, of Portland, will start up in a short time an electric theatre in the building next to Julius Goldsmith's cigar store, which is now occupied by a barber shop and a soft drink parlor. Range has had ten years' experience in the business, and while the Little Gem has been dismantled, believes his stand will be much superior to the former. The building will be remodeled as soon as the present occupants can

EUGENE PROPERTY WILL GROW VALUABLE

Blair street addition property is sure to double in value within the next two years. Two electric railroads are coming up the valley from Portland and both of them must enter the city from the west, and the line that will tap the Siuslaw country can not go out in any other direction. As sure as water runs down hill, Eugene must build down the valley—because the business is there. There are both acreage tracts and large lots in this addition, only a mile from the business center and Michovallus Fudge, King Bunn, King Sugar Plum, The Man From Our Town, Mable Bon Bon, Santa Claus and last but not least, although he is very diminutive, "The Gingerbread Man" himself.

The company is headed by Evelyn Francis Kellogg. Others in the cast are Helen Gray, Margie Savori, Nellie Rice, Ross Snow, Fred Rice, J. Maurice Holden, Carlek Major, James H. Lichten, Lyle Voshman and John Saunders. The cast that will come to this city is exactly the same. "The New York World" said "The Gingerbread Man" is certainly another "Babes in Toyland" hit. It is beautifully staged, and the comedy will appeal to all. The music will be whistled for many a day.
