It will require some good work to beat some of the leaders and the chances are that it will need all of your friends to get in enough subscriptions to win. "Hustle" is the word now, and starting tomorrow the last special offer of the race goes into effect. Read the conditions carefully. See new scale of votes issued on NEW SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Miss Grace Wood, of District No. 1, whose picture is presented today, has been a very active candidate since the start of the prize voting contest, and has made a very good showing, as the total of votes opposite her name will prove.

Miss Wood is an Oregonian by birth, and has resided in Eugene the greater part of her life, where she has many friends who are personally interested in her outcome.

As was expected, every active candidate worked from early until late this week, while some of the candidates who went through with a spirit last week are resting on the results of their work. They went out after the votes with renewed energy, realizing that it was either then or never, as this same chance will not be had again.

Results Gratifying
The results of a bit of hustling on the part of all those who took an interest in the candidates, combined with the efforts of the contestants themselves, was gratifying, and now, with a good reserve fund of votes and promises of more in the future, they are all in the race to win and will put in some good hard work until the close of the contest. Last Special Vote Offer Starts Tomorrow.

COME AND SEE THE VOTES COUNTED

Some malicious individual has circulated the report that certain candidates are slated to win The Guard contest prizes regardless of the number of votes honestly earned and polled by other candidates. Regarding this report The Guard can only say that it is absolutely false, and that every candidate has an equal show in all respects, and that no employe of the paper is allowed to show partiality toward any candidate or take an undue interest in any contestant to the detriment of another. The publisher of The Guard guarantees the absolute fairness of this contest, and will pay liberally for any reliable information tending to show that any employe or attaché of the paper has violated his instructions in this regard.

From now on the real contest will be waged and the heavy polling of votes which will decide the contest will be done. To further guarantee absolute fairness the votes cast will be counted at 8 o'clock p. m. daily for the next day's publication, and at that time any candidate or her representative may come and see the count and be assured of the legality of any ballots counted. The Guard management has no more idea than any outsider who will win these prizes, owing to the large number of coupons being held in reserve, and the earnest work now being done by all interested—but it does know they will be awarded to the candidates polling the largest number of votes, under the rules of the contest as published daily.

ply to OLD subscriptions, as it did two weeks ago, when an increase of 50 per cent over the regular scale of votes was allowed on old as well as new orders.

The new scale of votes (printed below) allowed on new subscriptions is an increase of 50 per cent over the regular scale, and as the new subscriptions are secured they should be turned in at once and not held back until the last few days of the race. People when they favor a candidate with a subscription are anxious to have the paper delivered at once, and judging from the number of telephone calls received at this office such evening by people inquiring why their paper has not been delivered it is evident that considerable subscription money is being held back by candidates for the final sport.

Conditions of Special.
Subscriptions must be absolutely new. A change of name at the same address, or a change of address will not be accepted as a new subscriber. A stop order followed by a renewal will not be considered a new subscriber. The conditions of the special offer will be strictly adhered to.

Last Special Offer.
No other special offer of any kind will be made at any time during the remainder of the contest. This is positively the last opportunity to secure extra votes, and this special offer is for NEW subscribers ONLY.

The regular number of votes will be issued on old subscriptions during the remainder of the contest.

Now is the time to make the great effort to win the prize. Circulate among your friends and acquaintances and get enough new subscribers as well as old to make up your shortage of votes.

Turn the orders in as soon as secured, so the paper can get started, then if you wish to hold the vote coupons until later, you can do so, but it is imperative that they are received. Previous to this special vote offer candidates had an excuse, waiting for this offer to come up, but now that it is announced as POSITIVELY the LAST of the balance of the contest, there is no reason why subscriptions should not be sent in as they are secured. REMEMBER—this 50 per cent increase only applies to NEW subscriptions, and as a matter of fairness to all candidates vote coupons will not be issued per new scale unless subscriptions are new. Read the scale published herewith applying to new subscriptions, and you can readily see where it will stand you in hand to devote your time to securing them.

Don't despair now, but keep right on and get all the votes that can possibly be gotten for just a few hundred votes may win the prize.

Time Getting Short.
The remaining days of the contest will be fraught with excitement, incident to the winning of the several grand prizes, and every contestant must look to her laurels, or perhaps some one else may develop the winner.

Get into line and make some telling strokes during the next week in securing subscriptions to The Guard. Perhaps those friends who subscribed for only three months would be glad to renew their subscriptions for a year now.

A CURE FOR MISERY

"I have found a cure for the misery malaria produces," says R. M. James, of Louellen, S. C. "It's called Electric Bitters and comes in 50 cent bottles. It breaks up a case of chills or a bilious attack in no time and it puts yellow jaundice clear out of commission." This great tonic medicine and blood purifier gives quick relief in all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, and the misery of lame back. Sold under guarantee at W. A. Kuykendall's drug store.

The Theatre Cafe is now serving a dish of delicious fresh shrimp with every order of oysters. Come and eat oysters.
