Just twelve more working days remain to secure enough subscription votes to place your name in the lead of your district to win one of the valuable prizes that will be awarded immediately after the close of the contest, Saturday, February 8, not 10 p. m. You will have to hurry, as your competitors are making the best of every spare moment.

Miss Marguerite Woods, of district number one, is the first candidate in The Guard's great prize voting contest to pass the 90,000 mark. This makes it evident that candidates who are desirous of winning the capital prize will have to rally many thousands of votes in order to win this valuable prize on the night of February 8, just twelve working days from now, when the ballot box will close for the last time. Despite her popularity and her reputation as a vote getter, Miss Woods is by no means assured of winning out for the capital prize. She may, but if so she will experience some very keen competition, now that the new special offer is on, as announced in the issue of yesterday. Subscriptions must be absolutely new. A change of name at the same address, or a change of address, will not be accepted as a new subscriber. A stop order followed by a renewal will not be considered a new subscriber. The conditions of the special offer will be strictly adhered to.

COME AND SEE THE VOTES COUNTED

Some malicious individual has circulated the report that certain candidates are slated to win The Guard contest prizes regardless of the number of votes honestly earned and polled by other candidates. Regarding this report The Guard can only say that it is absolutely false, and that every candidate has an equal show in all respects, and that no employee of the paper is allowed to show partiality toward any candidate or take an undue interest in any contestant to the detriment of another. The publisher of The Guard guarantees the absolute fairness of this contest, and will pay liberally for any reliable information tending to show that any employee or attaché of the paper has violated his instructions in this regard.

From now on the real contest will be waged and the heavy polling of votes which will decide the contest will be done. To further guarantee absolute fairness the votes cast will be counted at 8 o'clock p. m. daily for the next day's publication, and at that time any candidate or her representative may come and see the count and be assured of the legality of any ballots counted. The Guard management has no more idea than any outsider who will win these prizes, owing to the large number of coupons being held in reserve, and the earnest work now being done by all interested—but it does know they will be awarded to the candidates polling the largest number of votes, under the rules of the contest as published daily.

new subscriptions, and you can readily see where it will stand you in hand to devote your time to securing them. Don't despair now, but keep right on and get all the votes that can possibly be gotten for just a few hundred votes may win the prize. Few people outside of The Guard have but little idea of the widespread and general popularity of this contest.

The interest is not confined to Eugene, but is to be found in all towns in the county. Votes are received daily from different parts of the country. Some send stenciled coupons which are cut from copies of The Guard and others send the money for subscriptions. The Guard has words of praise for nearly all of the contestants. Most of them are doing splendid work. Of course, there are a few towns dragging along in a rather indifferent manner, but they will wake up before the contest comes to a glorious conclusion. Springfield, Junction and Dexter are among the active ones, and the candidates of these different places are getting many votes. Eugene and Springfield are battling for supremacy; each city is working for its most popular candidate in a manner that has aroused much favorable comment. Just remember that NEW, paid-in-advance subscriptions, with which special votes are given, are the blows that count, and it is the candidates who take every advantage of it that are going to figure when the prizes are being awarded. Today we present the picture of Miss Genevieve Howe of Creswell, who up to a short time ago was one of the most active candidates in the race. Her many friends who reside in different towns in district number four, when paying their subscriptions, always seemed to show a preference in her favor. There are many subscribers of The Guard residing in or around Creswell who would be glad to assist a candidate for the mere asking, and now that the NEW special vote offer is in force, there is no telling but what Miss Howe and her many friends will again become active, and capture the trip prize that will be awarded to the candidate who finishes with the largest number of votes in district number four after the capital prize has been awarded. It can be easily done. Four or five NEW one-year subscriptions would place Miss Howe well up on the list, and, who can tell but what that amount of business would be the direct cause of her being announced the winner.

A NOTRE DAME LADY'S APPEAL

To all knowing sufferers of rheumatism, whether muscular or of the joints, sciatica, lumbago, backache, pains in the kidneys or neuralgia pains, to write to her for a home treatment which has repeatedly cured all of these troubles. She feels it her duty to send it to all sufferers FREE. You cure yourself at home as thousands will testify—no change of climate being necessary. This simple discovery banishes uric acid from the blood, loosens the stiffened joints, purifies the blood and brightens the eyes, giving elasticity and tone to the whole system. If the above interests you, for proof address, Mrs. M. Summers, Box R, Notre Dame, Ind.

A CURE FOR MISERY

"I have found a cure for the misery malaria produces," says R. M. James, of Louellen, S. C. "It's called Electric Bitters and comes in 50 cent bottles. It breaks up a case of chills or a bilious attack in no time and it puts a yellow jaundice clear out of commission." This great tonic medicine and blood purifier gives quick relief in all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, and the misery of lame back. Sold under guarantee at W. A. Rykendall's drug store.

The Theatre Cafe is now serving a dish of delicious fresh shrimp with every order of oysters. Come and eat oysters.
