THE CHAIRMAN OF THE SUB-COMMITTEE ON PENSIONS OF THE HOUSE COMMITTEE ON APPROPRIATIONS HAS ANNOUNCED FORMALLY THAT THE COMMITTEE HAS AGREED TO RECOMMEND THE PENSION ROLL OF $1,000,000 FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1909. THIS WILL BE ABOUT $900,000 IN EXCESS OF THE PENSION ROLL OF THE PRESENT FISCAL YEAR.

THE CHAIRMAN OF THE PENSION COMMITTEE HAS ADDRESSED A COMMUNICATION TO THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR RECOMMENDING THAT ALL THE PENSION ROLLS THROUGHOUT THE UNITED STATES BE DISCONTINUED EXCEPT ONE, AT WASHINGTON, D. C., AND ALL THE OTHERS OF THE DEPARTMENT WILL BE DELETED FROM THAT POINT IF THE NEW PLAN UNDER CONTEMPLATION IS TO TAKE EFFECT.

FOUR HUNDRED MEN SHUFFLED UNEASILY their seats, a thousand women held their best raiment and whispered with much nodding of plumes. President G. Stanley Hall, of the University, said of the over-education of our schools to the state teachers' convention recently: "We do not believe with Dr. Hall in generalizing than he is to pick out particular teachers and brand to their faces as 'sissies'."

grounds near this city is well-timed. We have reached a stage of development and population in Lane county where there should be a good fair held here every fall. We can no doubt secure the district fair part of the time, and when that is not possible a good county exhibition and program could be arranged.

Chairman Tawney, of the house appropriation committee, is also getting the interrogation habit. In response to a letter from Attorney General Bonaparte urging an appropriation of $41,910 to pay secret service employees for six months, he wrote asking by what authority of law secret service agents were employed by the department of justice.

Somehow we can't exactly get the altitude of Rear Admiral Cappé, chief of the bureau of construction, who told the house naval committee in one breath that the navy welcomed intelligent criticism and in the next demanded that the newspaper men be barred from the committee room.

The head of the largest national bank in Washington takes no stock in the talk about this national campaign being a dull one. He said of it: "It is going to shake the country from one end to the other." "Going to be a sort of political earthquake, eh?"

Senator Hansbrough, of North Dakota, says the Harvester trust has decreed his retirement because he dared to offer a resolution to investigate it. Tush, tush, senator, haven't you heard that all the trusts have been restricted?

When it was stated on the floor of the senate that about April, 1909, that body would be engaged in revising the tariff, we take it that the first of that month was not meant by the speaker. There are humorists everywhere.

Counting noses is an expensive job for Uncle Sam. As a starter he is asked to appropriate $14,000,000 to defray the expenses of taking the 1910 census, and it would smash all precedents if there wasn't a big deficiency later.

We do not claim to lead in everything. When it comes to using such terms as "har," "scoundrel," "miserable rascal" and "vulgar vagabond" in speaking of and to each other, the German reichstag has congress beat miles.

With members of the parliament of British Columbia openly talking of the desirability of arming against the Japanese, John Bull must realize that his Jap problem is likely to grow more complicated than Uncle Sam's. That over-modesty is a Kansas specialty was again demonstrated when the legislature incorporated this little local ad in the Taft resolution it adopted—"Kansas, the greatest state of the great West."

NO LAND FRAUD CASES WILL BE DROPPED. While none of the pending land fraud cases will be tried at the present term of the federal court, there is no intention on the part of the government to abandon them. At the conclusion of the Hall-Mays conspiracy case this week, Special Prosecutor Henry will return to San Francisco to resume the prosecution of municipal graft cases that he left temporarily in order to conduct the defendants of the district attorney. Before adjourning this term of court Judge Hunt will probably be asked to dismiss the indictment against George C. Brownell, who is charged with subornation of perjury. If any of the other indictments are to be dismissed, it is not known. All the remaining cases will then be set for trial at the April term. On order of Judge Hunt yesterday all jurors summoned for the term, except those on the Hall-Mays case, were excused from further attendance on the term. Another panel will be drawn for the trials at the April term.

AN IMPOSITION. (La Grande Observer.) Petitions are being circulated in various counties of the state with a view of submitting to the voters of the general state election in June, the question of the sub-division of the present county of Wasco. This may be legal and in case the required number of petitioners are secured the question will be submitted to the voters of the state. The question naturally arises, What interest the voters of the state outside of Wasco can possibly have in this purely local matter? What right, morally, have the voters outside of Wasco, to vote on the sub-division of this county. It is just possible that the best thing the voters can do, if they are forced to vote on this question, is to know it under so deep that it will act as a precedent in keeping down other attempts. If this policy continues, the ballot will be weighed down with proposed city charter amendments. This is purely a county seat fight, wherein no one not a resident of Wasco is interested, and it is an imposition to attempt to place it on the general ballot.

AS TO ACUTE DISEASES. In many quarters of the country osteopaths are not very numerous; as a result, the news of their good work having spread, they are kept busy treating patients who come to their offices suffering from diseases that have become chronic, so that the impression has grown that osteopaths treat chronic diseases only.

In many quarters of the country where osteopaths have become numerous the doctors of this new school have become the regular family physician. They have been called in alike for the troubles of children and parents, and their marked success in the treatment of diseases of every character makes their services much sought after. Any one who wishes a thoroughly convincing demonstration of osteopathy's effectiveness should call in an osteopath when some member of the family is suffering from an acute attack; and it is quite certain that the osteopath will thereafter be the family physician.

RICHARD MOUNT WRITES FROM CALIFORNIA. Redondo, Cal., Jan. 24, 1908. Editor Guard:—I see by the Weekly Guard that you are advocating a building and loan association for Eugene. I hope you will succeed. They will build up a town better than anything I know of. When I was living there I tried a number of times to get different ones interested, but some way I did not succeed. I am enclosing you a pamphlet for a prospective colony for Lower California, which if you think proper I wish you would give it some notice. I am a member of it and have attended some of its meetings and think it is all right. Yours truly, RICHARD MOUNT.

EUGENE PROPERTY WILL GROW VALUABLE. Blair street addition property is sure to double in value within the next two years. Two electric railroads are coming up the valley from Portland and both of them must enter the city from the west, and the line that will tap the Siuslaw country can not go out in any other direction. As sure as water runs down hill, Eugene must build down the valley—because the business is there.

There are both acreage tracts and large lots in this addition, only a mile from the business center and three blocks from the Geary public school. Prices are very reasonable and you may make your own terms, a small payment down and monthly installments if you desire. See the Oregon Land Co. at 412 Willamette street, or write them for particulars and prices.

ROOMS WANTED. Sealed bids will be received by J. B. Coleman, Eugene, Oregon, up to 5 p. m., February 10th, 1908, for office and hotel building 5x114, two stories. Plans and specifications may be secured at the office of John Hanzicker, architect. Owner reserves all rights. $5
