COMPANY A UNDERGOES ANNUAL INSPECTION

COL. JAMES JACKSON, U. S. A., RETIRED, AND ADJUTANT-GENERAL FINZER UP FROM PORTLAND — COMPANY MAKES USUAL SPLENDID SHOWING AND HAS 100 PER CENT ATTENDANCE.

The annual inspection of Co. A, Fourth regiment, O. N. G., last night was an event of great interest to the militiamen as well as their hundreds of friends. A large crowd witnessed the ceremonies at the armory, the galleries being crowded. Col. James Jackson, U. S. A., retired, who is inspector-general of the Oregon National Guard, was the inspecting officer, and Adjutant-General Finzer was present, having come from Portland for the express purpose of seeing the crack company of the state execute its maneuvers. Captain Raymond Babb and Lieutenants W. G. White and W. W. Branstetter did themselves proud in the manner in which they handled their company, and each member responded to the commands with the spirit that has characterized former inspections. There was an attendance of 100 per cent, 60 enlisted men being in line. Some came from other states and from different parts of Oregon to be present and thus maintain the record that the company established three years ago and has not broken since.

Colonel Jackson and General Finzer expressed themselves as being much pleased with the efficiency of the company and complimented the officers upon the showing made. The company room and accoutrements were inspected during the fore part of the evening and during the inspection proper only the movements of the company were examined. Company C will be inspected tonight.

Recent Promotions. Recent promotions in Company A are those of R. S. Huston to first sergeant; Corporal Cecil Henderson to sergeant; Walter McCormack, Alvin Pritchett and Edward Rohne to corporals. The new first sergeant is one of the foremost militiamen in the state, having been a member of the O. N. G. for the past twelve or fifteen years. He is considered to be one of the best drill masters on the coast.

Armory Appropriation. Colonel Jackson reports one of the great needs of the National Guard to be better armories. Every company should have its own armory in order to make the service efficient and up to the highest standard. Besides, it is a splendid thing for the members of the company, serving as a club house, well equipped, a fine place for the young men belonging. The bill referred to the people, providing for an expenditure of $100,000 for new armories, is a good one which the colonel hopes to see sustained in the interest of the National Guard and better service, and as well for the sake of the young men. The National Guard is becoming a great factor in the soldiery of the country and the state should do its share in its support.

RECITAL BY MRS. HOLLENBECK'S PUPILS

EILERS PIANO HOUSE WILL LEAVE CITY

Well-Known Firm Going Out of Business in Eugene

T. H. Comte, General Agent of the Eilers Piano House, is in the city for the purpose of closing out the stock of their branch house here. Mr. Comte states that, owing to the intention of the firm to concentrate their retail business in the larger centers and confine themselves more strictly to the wholesale business in the smaller towns, they have determined to close up several of their branches in Oregon, including the one in Eugene. Mr. Comte will take charge of the entire stock here and close the same out irrespective of retail profit.

In connection with the closing out of the Eilers interests here, it is understood that Mr. S. E. Stevens, their local manager, and L. G. Hullin will embark in business on their own account in the building to be vacated by the Eilers House.

Both Mr. Stevens and Mr. Hullin have a wide acquaintance here and they will undoubtedly become a strong factor in the music business in this part of the state.

Announcement

Eilers Piano House of this city is going out of business. I have taken charge of the stock with instructions to sell all pianos, player pianos and organs at their actual factory cost plus the freight rather than go to the expense of shipping them back to Portland. In this stock are included splendid Weber, Sohmer, Kimball, Story & Clark, Marshall & Wendell, Lester, Jacob Dall and other pianos of the highest grade. Ordinarily such instruments cannot be obtained for less than $300 to $650. See what you can now secure for $198 to $278.

I offer tomorrow for $178 a beautiful oak case, full size upright piano on payment of $8.00 monthly. Another in a handsome mahogany case, for which other dealers usually ask $350 I have marked down to $168.

I do not propose to ship any of these pianos back to Portland if low prices will sell them. Your opportunity to buy an instrument at factory cost is here.

Store open day and evening until sale closes.
