FARRINGTON ARRESTS JAIL ESCAPE FROM COLFAX

HARRY STARKEY, WHO BROKE JAIL IN EASTERN WASHINGTON CITY, CAPTURED IN EUGENE TODAY—WANTED ON A CHARGE OF STEALING HORSE AND BUGGY

Harry Starkey, wanted at Colfax Wash., for stealing a horse and buggy, and who broke out of jail there two months ago, was caught in Eugene this forenoon by Chief of Police Farrington. Starkey is now in the city jail, where he will remain until the arrival of an officer from Colfax. Starkey was at the Willamette House when arrested by the chief of police. He had been notified to look out for him and last night he received a tip from a hobo that Starkey was here. Already having a description of the man the chief immediately went on a still hunt and found him at the Willamette splitting wood for his breakfast. He afterwards owned up that he is the man wanted. Chief Farrington telephoned the sheriff at Colfax, informing him that he had his man, and a deputy will arrive in a day or so to take him back to stand trial for his alleged crime. Starkey is aged about 21 years.

CITY NEWS

The aid society of the M. E. church will meet at the home of Mrs. F. M. Wilkins Tuesday afternoon at the usual hour. The Electric theatre will open tonight with the passion play. The admission will be ten cents, but after tonight it will be five cents.

H. C. Bjerke, who broke his leg at his home ten miles southwest of Eugene several weeks ago, has been brought to the Eugene hospital for better care.

The city council meets tonight. Probably the principal matter to be discussed and acted upon is that of the extension of time of the street railway franchise.

Recalith flooring was laid at the entrance to the stairway of the Hovey building today. This is the same material of which the floor of the Merchants' bank is made.

IT'S UNREASONABLE

IT IS UNREASONABLE for a young man to suppose that he can set himself up in a good paying business without some capital to invest in the enterprise. Perhaps this lack of ready funds has been the cause of your working for some one else instead of yourself for these many years. An account with this bank will afford you a convenient, safe and altogether ideal method of keeping your surplus funds where they will grow into a sum that in time will make possible your success in business. Others have succeeded in this way; you can also.
