WARLIKE NEWS FROM FRONTIER OF ARMENIA

Tiflis, Feb. 17.—Reports received from Armenia state that all Turkish [illegible] reserves in Van, Mush and other villages of Asia Minor have been called to colors and are rapidly departing for the frontier. At the same time a league of the Turkish revolutionary party is increasing the revolutionary agitation. Appeals and proclamations have been issued exhorting the public to protest against the warlike plans of the sultan, and the league holds that war would be disastrous, owing to the famine in Asia Minor.

Russian military authorities have ordered all horses in the Caucasus fit for military service to be registered.

EUGENE ENTERTAINS NEIGHBORING BOOSTERS

them with the welcoming yells and the Roseburg crowd responded with the following:

"Roseburg, Eugene, watch us grow;
We will vote for the U. of O."

"Be a booster, have some snap;
Roseburg's surely on the map;
With paved streets and fine location
Can't be beat in all creation."

"Roseburg, Roseburg, can't be beat—
We are bound to have paved streets;
Make our city nice and clean—
Like our sister town, Eugene."

Eugene replied with the following:

"Lane county, Lane, Eugene,
Have you ever seen anything to beat Eugene?
No, never—except Roseburg;"

On one side of the banners displayed by the crowd was this inscription: "Roseburg, 1908, 5000 population," and on the other side, "Roseburg, 1910, 10,000 population." On the ribbons worn by the excursionists was printed: "Roseburg for paved streets."

Cottage Grove Arrives.

The Cottage Grove contingent, nearly 70 strong, arrived on the 11:45 o'clock Roseburg local and formed in line on the depot platform. The Roseburg boosters were kept at the depot until the arrival of the regular train and the delegates from both cities formed a line and marched down town together. Cottage Grove banners contained the following: "Cottage Grove, 1910, 9999. Head of the valley," and "Cottage Grove, $125,000, U. of O., at Eugene."

The yells given by the crowd were as follows:

"Eugene, Eugene, our county seat,
Our queen city is hard to beat.
Cottage Grove will boost and holler
And vote for U. of O.'s $125,000."

"Cottage Grove, Cottage Grove,
That's the place to buy
Everything but booze
And for that she's strictly dry."

Well, well, well."
"That's Cottage Grove all to ——
Well, well, well."

Hella ballu ballo,
Hella ballu ballo,
Way up, way up.
Cottage Grove!"

Imposing Line of March.

Headed by the band, President L. L. Whitson and Manager Hartog, of the Commercial Club and other prominent citizens, the visitors were marched down the middle of Willamette street to the Commercial Club, where they gathered in front of the building and posed for a photograph. All the way down the street the column was greeted with applause and cheers from the people on the sidewalks, and numerous cameras were kept busy snapping the crowds. After the photo of the visitors had been taken all were invited to the Commercial Club parlors, where Mayor J. D. Matlock delivered a short address of welcome. It being lunch time the crowd was then dismissed until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The city has one Carnegie library, costing $1600 a year to run, and many object to additional libraries on account of the expense of operating them.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N.
