YOUR MONEY'S WORTH OR YOUR MONEY BACK

CITY NEWS

A number of Eugene's young people attended a dance at Coburg last Saturday night.

The work of building the concrete foundation for the new Potts block was begun this morning.

The W. R. C. supper in G. A. R. hall Saturday evening was a big success, hundreds of people patronizing the ladies.

Another carload of brick arrived yesterday from Roseburg for Louis Sherman to be used in building operations here.

A reception to new members of the Christian church will be tendered at the church next Wednesday night by the old members.

A marriage license was secured this afternoon by Arthur P. Sylvester, aged 23, and Grace J. McElroy, 24, both of Eugene.

Hendershot's orchestra, of this city, furnished the music for the baseball team's dance at Coburg Saturday night. It was a very successful affair.

A marriage license was granted Saturday afternoon to Robert D. McKenna, aged 39 years, and Miss Martha Hyland, aged 24, both of Junction City.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church meet at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow at the parsonage on West Tenth street. Let the members and friends take notice.

A car of buggies for the Chambers Hardware Company and a car of plaster for A. Lombard were among the carload lots of freight received here this morning.

The electric lights at Creswell are ready to turn on, the plant having been set up, but the owner is now waiting for a belt to arrive from Portland, the one tried at first being too long. Not wishing to spoil the belt by shortening it, he sent to Portland for a new one.

The report of the condition of the First National Bank of Eugene at the close of business February 14, 1908, is published in today's Guard. The showing made is one of great strength, the percentage of available cash being unusually large, even for this conservatively managed institution.

The new armature installed at the light station for the street railway yesterday is much better than the old one and much more power is generated. The power is strong enough to take both of the cars at full speed, whereas before the new machine was installed the speed was rather slow at times.

L. M. Linn wishes to publicly thank ten friends whose identity is unknown for a handsome birthday gift in the shape of a fine umbrella, presented to him Saturday, the 70th anniversary of his birth. The umbrella was left on his porch and bore a card on which was written: "Compliments of ten friends."

Constable Plank, who was in Roseburg Saturday, says the people of that city are loud in their praises of the people of Eugene for the splendid treatment accorded the Roseburg people during their visit here last Monday, and they say that whenever a Eugene man visits that city hereafter he need spend no money.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Central Presbyterian church will be entertained by Mrs. W. Polders and Mrs. Robinson at the home of Mrs. Robinson at the corner of West Seventh and Lawrence streets tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. A full attendance is desired, as it is the day for the election of officers for the ensuing year.

The street cars are in operation again, the new dynamo having arrived Sunday. The first car was started up yesterday about 5 o'clock. The cars would have done a rushing business yesterday had they been in operation all day, for the weather was ideal and hundreds of people would have ridden out to the ocean-terrace and to the eastern end of the line. The cars were idle a little less than three days.

The members of the golf club yesterday presented a beautiful gold locket to the youngest and eleventh child of Mr. Whitall, who lives near the links and whose family have extended many courtesies to the club members since the links were established on the south slope of College Hill. A delegation of members of the club called at the Whitall home and W. W. Avery, in his usual flowery and eloquent manner, made the presentation speech, and W. M. Renshaw kissed the child, after which a banquet was enjoyed by the members of the club.

A meeting was held at Springfield Saturday afternoon at which preliminary steps were taken toward organizing a grange. In the forenoon J. C. Kennedy spoke on the high schools of California, Superintendent L. R. Alderman, of Eugene, on the county levy plan for high schools, and R. J. Hemphill, of Pleasant Hill, spoke on the same subject. At noon the teachers of the Springfield schools served lunch. In the afternoon President Campbell, of the University of Oregon, spoke on the high schools and their individual value to the boys and girls, and A. T. Buxton, grand master of the grange, on the objects of the grange. Twenty-three names were signed to the membership roll and next Saturday was the date set for organizing.

CHAMBERS HARDWARE CO.

A Washington dispatch says: If certain conditions arise, President Roosevelt may attend the Republican National convention at Chicago, but under no circumstances will he accept a nomination at the hands of that convention. This statement is made on absolutely reliable authority, and the sponsor speaks with all the conviction of an emissary of the president himself. The fact that it is not an authorized statement issued by the White House does not in the slightest detract from its authenticity or correctness.

BASKETBALL GAME WON BY EUGENE

In the basketball game at the armory Saturday night the Eugene high school team won over the Albany high players by the score of 28 to 15. At no stage of the game was Albany considered a winner, and the visitors did not make a single point until Eugene had made tea. After that the locals looted and allowed Albany to secure several baskets which would not have been made had the game been closer. Coker, line made most of the points for Eugene, having thrown eight baskets, or 16 points. G. Watson was next with five baskets, or ten points. A social dance followed the game. The Albany girls' team witnessed the game, having been at Roseburg with the boys, but no game with the local girls was played because the Eugene team was disbanded several weeks ago.

NEARLY 600 IN CHRISTIAN SUNDAY SCHOOL

Probably the largest Sunday school of any denomination in the state is that of the Christian church in this city. Yesterday there was an attendance of 584, 69 more than on the previous Sunday, the last day of Evangelist Martin's big meeting here. Dr. Martin paid special attention to the building up of the Sunday school with this result. There are five large adult classes which are in rivalry as to attendance and collection, and because of the rivalry the attendance and the amount collected increase each Sunday.

Suffering and Dollars Saved. E. S. Loper, of Marilla, N. Y., says: "I am a carpenter and have had many severe cuts healed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It has saved me suffering and dollars. HORACE M'KINLEY STILL MAINTAINS HIS SILENCE

DECLINES TO RECEIVE VISITORS IN JAIL—SPENDS TIME IN WRITING HIS EXPERIENCES WHILE A FUGITIVE IN CHINA.

Horace G. McKinley, convicted land-fraud operator, continues to maintain his stoical attitude and refuses to receive visitors promiscuously at his present quarters in the Multnomah county jail. McKinley, who was convicted with McKinley and others in the celebrated "Lily" case, and Horace Stevens, who is writing Pater's book exposing the Oregon land-fraud, few have been permitted to see McKinley since his arrival in Portland Friday morning. This unusual seclusion on the part of the erstwhile fugitive is attributed in part to his aversion to being questioned either by friends or members of the press, together with the order of the court, that the prisoner shall not be approached until after sentence has been pronounced. Next Thursday has been appointed as the time for pronouncing sentence.

At the time McKinley went to China in April, 1905, he was out on bonds in the sum of $4000 awaiting the disposition of his motion for a new trial and the pronouncing of sentence. His bondsmen were Eugene Blazier and Jack Grant, but an attempt was made by the government, following McKinley's disappearance, either to declare the bond forfeited or to enforce its collection. Blazier and Grant naturally co-operated with the government officials in demanding the return of McKinley from China, and they shared with the government officials in the gratification that attended the consummation of that undertaking.

It is reported that McKinley is writing a detailed narrative of his experiences in China, not excepting his escapade with "Little Egypt," the dancing girl who accompanied him from San Francisco. This will form an additional chapter in Pater's book which is scheduled to be completed early in April.
