LARGE PROPERTY SALES MADE RECENTLY

E. J. Frasier, secretary and manager of the Lane County Land & Loan Company, has recently completed the following real estate sales of town and city property:

Last Saturday he sold the tract known as the Whitney farm adjoining Eugene on the south and containing 330 acres, to J. O. Storey, president of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern Railway Company, for $15,800. He also sold to Mr. Storey 51 acres adjoining the above tract and known as the Snodgrass place, for $2060, making a total investment of $22,860.

Mr. Frasier recently sold the D. Scott farm on Pleasant Hill known as the West place to R. J. Liles for $7000. The Richard Green place, southwest of Eugene, to R. E. Radford, for $1150; the J. W. Cox place west of Eugene to W. E. Smock, for $1050; the residence property at No. 333 Third street to M. C. Burmister for $1400; the residence property at 531 Patterson street to R. J. Meas for $2500; the C. M. Dexter place of 54 acres southwest of Eugene to Jonathan Johnson for $1785; the J. N. Cox property, known as the Thos. Orr place, to R. W. Gifford, conditional private.

Yesterday Mr. Frasier returned from Portland, where he completed the sale of J. O. Storey's beautiful residence property on the Portland-Oregon City electric road at Courtenay for $10,000. This last sale is important for the reason that it assures Mr. Storey's removal to Eugene.

Mr. John Riba of Vining, Ia., says: "I have been selling DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for about a year and they give better satisfaction than any pills I ever sold. I have used them myself with fine results." Sold by all druggists.

GOOD CHANCE TO ADVERTISE BUSINESS The page of small ads printed in The Guard yesterday will be run in the Guard, with slight changes, once a week (Fridays), and in the weekly edition for the next month. The price will be made very reasonable, and the advertisements should prove quite effective the way they are classified and arranged and every business man who was overlooked by the canvasser will be given space if he will hand his copy into the business office, but your simple business card on this page for a month will be much better than painting your name on a fence or the side of a barn. Not less than 15,000 regular readers will see it here every week—and the cost will be scarcely worth mentioning.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, small and safe, sure little liver pills. Sold by all druggists.

IDAHO TRAGEDY OVER LAND MATTERS

Portland, Feb. 25.—A dispatch to the Evening Telegram from Boise states that J. H. McGreevy shot and killed W. G. Whitney on the latter's ranch near Payette today in a quarrel over land. Eye witnesses say that Whitney attacked McGreevy with a club and the latter shot in self defense. McGreevy surrendered to the officers.
