...BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION

...time ago a movement was ...to organize a local building ...association in Eugene, and ...was appointed by the ...club to take charge of ...preliminary work. This com... is composed of men who are ...to personally devote a great ...their time to canvassing for ...and so far only about $30,000 ...promised $100,000 has been ... To show how success... organizations have proven ...the country the follow... dispatch is reprinted:

...York, Feb. 28.—The 16th ...meeting of the United States ...of Local Building & Loan ...ciations opened here today. Sev...hundred delegates, representing ...every state in the Union, ...present. Secretary Cellarius, ...Cincinnati, in his annual report ...building and loan associa... of the United States have in... approximately 455,000,000 in ...1907, so that they now care ...thousands of the people's sav... ...members of these associa... ...wage-earners. They have in the aggregate accumulated a vast sum, which has been mainly loaned to members for the purpose of securing their own home."

"The secretary gave the total increase in membership during 1907 as over 110,000.

"California is the only state to show a falling off in members, the loss being about 2600. Assets in California, however, increased nearly $300,000 in the same time."

The commercial club committee consists of C. H. Fisher, J. M. Williams and Dr. Leonard, any one of whom will be glad to explain the plan of organization to those who are interested. It is the intention to hold a series of committee meetings at the club rooms, giving notice so that those who wish to investigate the subject may be present and hear a full exposition of the building and loan scheme.

The Oregon Irrigator, published at Irrigon, has the following caustic comment on the movement on foot to cripple the state university: "This school is one of the foremost in the West, the most important in Oregon, and has an enrollment of over four hundred pupils, and the amount appropriated by the legislature was all too small. The bill was passed unanimously by the 90 members of the house and senate, and yet a few busybodies have held the appropriation up for two years, at a cost to the state of probably ten or fifteen thousand dollars. We do not believe such a club should be placed in the hands of a few shysters."

C. N. McArthur, of Portland, has announced his candidacy for the nomination of joint representative of Clackamas and Multnomah counties, his opponent being W. C. Belt, a resident of Sellwood. Pat is about the staunchest friend the university hasand a good fellow all around, so that if he could only transfer his candidacy to Lane county he would be certain of a cinch on the nomination and election.

February has twenty-nine days this year, but still in some manner the man that made the calendars managed to wring in five Saturdays. An individual in another part of the state, who has a disposition to reduce everything to figures, demonstrates that this will not occur again until 1936. This will be some consolation to employers who have a weekly payroll to meet.

Francis Heney recently received $50,000 as the first installment of his fee for prosecuting the Oregon land fraud cases. Time was when the business of reformer was poorly paid, but now there is actually "big money in it"—and Heney knows how to get it out.

When a man is spoken of as a "modest politician" no one need hesitate to contradict the statement. It's one of the few impossible combinations. Modest men may occasionally figure in politics, but never as politicians.

Speaking of those corporation fines, which Nick Longworth says are "heavy to pay," we'd like to ask Nick if he doesn't think it is butting in too hard, if he has heard of any of them being paid?

A law for the regulation of wages has not yet been seriously proposed, though it may be any old day; ditto, ditto, for the regulation of courtship and of gossip.

Speaking of the right of self-government, if we all had it, what would be left for the professional politicians to do?

HENEY SAVED McKINLEY
FROM FEDERAL PRISON

The Portland Telegram gives the following account of the sentencing of Horace McKinley:

Compact with Francis J. Heney, in which United States District Attorney W. C. Bristol announced himself to be in no way concerned, saved Horace Greeley McKinley this morning from being sentenced to McNeil's Island and for conspiracy in defrauding the government. A telegram from Heney to United States Judge Wolverton hinted at promised immunity for the elusive prisoner, and accordingly the same sentence that was pronounced on S. A. D. Puter was meted out to McKinley by the jurist.

Two years' imprisonment in the county jail and a fine of $7500 was the sentence imposed on McKinley ten minutes after he appeared in court this morning, and in less than another ten minutes after the penalty was pronounced he was taken to the county jail by a United States deputy marshal.

In a federal building corridor McKinley waved his hat, so great was his joy that McNeil's Island had been eliminated from his sentence and substituted by county jail imprisonment, but he was not given time to give voice to his elation, a tap on his arm by Deputy Marshal Nicholson bidding him shape his course to the basement of the courthouse. He tarried on his way down stairs, however, to say to a number of friends:

"Come and see me at the Hotel Stevens, I will be there for a short period of ..."

To the Telegram McKinley said:

"I am not making any kick over what was handed to me by Judge Wolverton, and if the fine had been the limit, $10,000, I would feel the same. I have not asked for nor did I expect immunity."

Mrs. Marie Ware McKinley did not attend court to hear sentence pronounced on her husband, and S. A. D. Puter, his accomplice and co-defendant, also refrained from attending. Mrs. McKinley, however, was in an ante room during the entire proceedings with a woman companion. Both women left when McKinley was taken to the county jail.

JUNCTION CITY ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, February 22, 1908, a son, in honor of the date he has already been named George Washington.

A. R. Martin has a force of men at work on his farm north of town setting out walnut trees. He is setting sixty acres to walnuts, and has a fine lot of good healthy trees.

"Sandy" Peterson has a splendid gasoline launch over on Millett's lake that is a dandy for speed. He is making preparations to make that place a summer resort. A number of young folks enjoyed a ride in his launch Sunday.

H. V. Johnson has a force of men at work on his corner building. A two-story addition is being built on the rear of the present building which will be extended to the front. As before stated the west end will be occupied by the Corvallis creamery and the second story will be fitted up for a photograph gallery for Oscar Smith.

Some sneak thief entered the residence of Thomas Millorn one day last week and appropriated Mr. Millorn's best suit of clothes. The clothing was not missed until Thursday evening, and it is not known just when the theft was committed. Mrs. Millorn was absent from home and it is supposed the thief helped himself while there was no one around. The suit was tailor made and almost new.—Times.

Blood Humors

Persistent Eczema—Druggist Advised Proper Medicine—Another Complete Cure.

It makes no difference how severe or long-seated a case of bad blood, humors, eczema or scrofula may be, Hood's Sarsaparilla cures just the same.

It has the greatest record of any medicine ever made. Has received the largest number of testimonials—40,366 in two years.

It is the one above all others for you to take if you need a thoroughly good medicine for your blood.

Read the following from Mr. C. C. Bailey, a well-known pump manufacturer, of Champaign, Ill

C. C. BAILEY.

"When I asked my doctor what that eruption was which came under my right ear, and which had refused to yield to home treatment, he said it was a bad case of eczema and that it would take a long time to cure it. Another doctor said it was about the worst case he ever saw. I followed their advice for 16 months, and still the eruption would not heal.

"One day I asked the druggist if he had anything he thought would do me good. He said if anything would cure me it was Hood's Sarsaparilla, and advised that I buy three bottles, watch the results, and be governed accordingly. There was such decided improvement at the end of that time that another bottle effected a complete cure." C. C. Bailey, 46 E. University avenue, Champaign, Ill.
