

Robinson, at 422 Lawrence street. There were twenty ladies present and a very enjoyable afternoon was spent by all.

Mrs. David Link was hostess to the Sunshine club on Friday afternoon. The afternoon's amusement was a gum animal contest, and this was followed by a three-course luncheon served in the dining room, which was prettily decorated with yellow daffodils. Mrs. Gilbert Tyson assisted Mrs. Link in serving. Other invited guests of the club were Mrs. Emma Johnson and Mrs. Frank

The Priscilla club met on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. M. F. Griggs at her home on East Eleventh street. Needlework was the afternoon's pastime, and the guests of the club were Mrs. Woodruff and Mrs. McMorran. Mrs. Schwerling assisted the hostess in serving an appetizing luncheon.

The Senior Class play of the University of Oregon has come to be one of the social events of the college year, and that given on Thursday night by the class of 1908 proved no exception. "The Rivals" is too well known to need any comment as a play here, so suffice it to say that under the direction of Professor Glen, the management of Graver Kenley and the work of the cast, the play was a decided success.

The many friends of Mrs. Minnie Washburn will be sorry to learn that she is still sick in a Los Angeles hospital. Her son Chester is at her bedside.

There are a number of out-of-town young people in Eugene to be guests at the Kappa Sigma dancing party this evening.

A number of the High School girls gave a leap year skating party last night at the Underwood rink.

The hall was especially decorated for the occasion in the H. S. colors, purple and white. Light refreshments were served.

Mrs. W. L. Souders has invitations out for two parties this next week.

A surprise party was given Arthur P. Sylvester Thursday evening. He being his 24th birthday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Bradway, Mr. and Mrs. John Hess, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Nicolle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bartlett, Miss Eva McElroy, Miss Flora Pollock, Miss Mattie Koppe, Lloyd Mitchell, Miss Gertrude Akers, Harry Mitchell, Miss Flora George, Richard R. Harbert, Miss Francis Goracke, Miss Leona Bartlett, Miss Winona Hess, Verale Wilson, Miss L. P. Haynes, Frank V. Fuller, Roy Packett, Berril Cummings, R. Wenger, Sacey Cummings, Miss May Harbert, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sylvester. Mrs. Dimond furnished the supper, which was greatly enjoyed by all. Mrs. Frank Wood assisted her in serving.

The local union of the W. C. T. U. entertained Mrs. Helen D. Harford, national organizer of the W. C. T. U., and Mrs. Henrietta Brown, state president, at the home of Mrs. Wheeler, 218 East Eleventh street, Wednesday afternoon, February 26. About twenty-five ladies listened to delightful talks by both ladies of their work and the progress of the W. C. T. U. in other states, after which dainty refreshments were served.

The Priscilla Club was entertained last Thursday by Mrs. M. F. Griggs at her beautiful home on East Eleventh street. A pleasant afternoon was passed at needlework and cards, after which the hostess served a delicious luncheon. Guests of the club were Mrs. George McMorran, Mrs. J. Woodruff and Mrs. Day. Mrs. H. C. Mahon will entertain the club in two weeks.

STANFORD STUDENTS
LAMPOON JORDON

San Francisco, Feb. 27.—A bogie, which has become recognized as a means of publishing anonymous "slams," "knocks" and "joshes" upon any one in the college fraternity, was secretly distributed broadcast over the Stanford campus this morning. The front page was headed "Bogie, Boogie, Bums, Blunders." In the following words the bogie directs its first attack against the new student affairs committee, and the president of the university:

"With all due respect to Dr. Jordan, we cannot but object to his arbitrary and obnoxious motives in all matters pertaining to the university, especially in his appointment of the present students' affairs committee."

DAVID STARR JORDAN.
President of Leland Stanford Junior university and a noted writer and sociologist.

Speaking of the faculty of the university the bogie says that Dr. Jordan has acquired some men for instructors whose proper place is "in the museum with the other freaks and fossils."

The bogie says that if any professor dares to raise his voice in opposition to Dr. Jordan he will suffer the fate of Professors Ross, Abbott and Rendtorff, who were dropped from the faculty for opposing the head of the institution. The professors soon became "long-suffering beasts of burden, whose mammoth ears will ever be cocked for the word of the master."

Dr. Jordan is further characterized as a Hoosier schoolmaster and it is suggested that he divorce his wife and marry Carrie Nation.

The attack on Dr. Jordan was provoked by his action in dismissing students for drunkenness.

UREN ANSWERS
SENATOR T. B. KAY

Oregon City, Feb. 28.—W. S. U'ren this morning answered the allegations of State Senator Kay, who in a communication to a Portland newspaper said that U'ren had refused to pay an "honest debt" of $1400 to a Mrs. McGrath, who held a note for $500 and accrued interest against him. Mr. U'ren's answer follows:

"Mary McGrath had a judgment against three other men and myself for that $500. The money was borrowed from her agent in Oregon City and was used for Seth Lewelling & Company in the panic of 1893. The note was signed by Seth Lewelling and two others besides, I going on for an accommodation. The others were then well off. All the other claims are dead and last year I paid $300 to be released. I never saw Mrs. McGrath, and in paying the $300 I considered that I was paying more than my share of the old debt. Senator Kay perhaps thinks I ought to have paid more of it, but I do not."
(Signed) "W. S. U'REN."

OSTEOPATHY IS SCIENCE OF ITS OWN

There are but few people who have not heard of Osteopathy, also of some of its achievements. But there are far too many who have accredited it with being good for only those conditions from which they have been cured, or which have come under their immediate observation.

Not infrequently there is mutual surprise when one man who was cured of eye trouble meets another who was cured of constipation. The above is a homely illustration, but it only shows that neither was curious enough to learn the possibilities of Osteopathy while being treated for their respective conditions.

They may have been persuaded to undergo Osteopathic treatment only because a friend had been cured of a like condition.

You may be one of those who do not know that Osteopathy is intended for other conditions than those you have already heard of as having been treated successfully. If so, remember that if the principles of Osteopathy are right, it is a science of its own and a complete system of treating disease, and has been recognized as such by legislative enactments in more than two-thirds of the states in the Union.
