CITY NEWS

Brick work on the Hulls block was completed today. C. A. Williams, adjutant-general of the G. A. R. of this department, is in the city. He paid J. W. Geas post a visit at a meeting held this afternoon. The representatives of the "Union Mission Army" were in the city today soliciting aid. Mrs. Joel Clarks, of Grants Pass, is in the General hospital, where she has recently undergone an operation for cancer of the breast. Dr. Brown, assisted by Dr. Kins, performed the operation. Another carload of stone for the new Divinity School building arrived last evening from Oakland. W. H. Sears' household goods arrived from Portland yesterday. Mr. Sears has recently arrived here to reside. Professor W. S. Dumps and his music pupils gave an excellent recital in the Woodman hall last evening before a large audience. Frank Marekette today instituted suit in the circuit court against his wife, Sarah, for divorce and for the custody of their two minor children. They were married at Crosswell, Lane county, January 15, 1899. The defendant alleges that his wife deserted him in Douglas county in July, 1897, and further alleges that she has been guilty of adulterous relations with one Andrew Butcher, who is now in the county jail at Eugene serving a sentence for the crime, and his wife is in the city jail of Cottage Grove serving a similar sentence. J. S. Medley is attorney for the plaintiff. The Eugene high school debating team won over the Salem high school team at the latter place last night, the decision of the judges being two to one in Eugene's favor. The question debated was that of presidential re-election.
