VICE PRESIDENT STUBBS AND WIFE WERE IN EUGENE

HIGH OFFICIAL OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC COMPANY STOPPED HERE LAST EVENING

HE AND HIS WIFE WERE GIVEN LITERATURE AND FLOWERS—THEY WERE DELIGHTED WITH WINTER PRODUCTS OF WILLAMETTE VALLEY

J. C. Stubbs, vice-president of the Southern Pacific Company, and general manager of the Harriman lines with headquarters in Chicago, is on a tour of inspection of the Pacific coast and last evening passed through Eugene in his private car "Ashland." When the train pulled in a surprise was ready for Mr. Stubbs. The Commercial Club had prepared a [illegible] samples of all Eugene and Lane county [illegible] [illegible] the special [illegible] of The Guard and the Register, copies of [illegible] of the Oregonian [illegible] [illegible], and finally, one of the large pictures of the city of Eugene [illegible] taken from Skinner's Butte. The booklet was marked showing the location of various buildings and places of interest, location of the new S. P. depot and the number of [illegible] [illegible] number of [illegible] in East Eugene, population for 1900, 1905 and 1908, and in short, a full report on Eugene.

The reception department also [illegible] Mrs. Stubbs a large bunch of Eugene violets, a big box of Eugene [illegible], and several branches of Japanese quince blossoms. Coming from Chicago as the party did, they were delighted to see the kind of winter weather product Lane county supports in blizzard time, and it is safe to say that the recipients will never forget Eugene, where this courtesy was shown them. Before they had time to express their appreciation the train pulled out, leaving Mrs. Stubbs enjoying Mrs. Prentice's flowers (it was Mrs. F. W. Prentice who had donated all the flowers) and leaving Mr. Stubbs engrossed in Eugene's literature.

SPLENDID DISPLAY OF COPPER AND GOLD ORE

F. J. Hard Saturday afternoon took a Guard reporter to his office in the Chrisman block and showed him his display of ore samples taken from his mining properties in the Bohemia district. The samples are from the Oregon-Colorado, the Vesuvius and the Riverside claims, all owned by Mr. Hard. The samples are very rich in gold and copper and indicate the wealth that exists in the Bohemia district. Mr. Hard has done a great deal of development work on these claims during the six years he has been operating them, having a 1000-foot tunnel in each at a depth of 1000 feet. Splendid bodies of ore have been opened up at this depth. Besides the main tunnels there are a number of feeders. In the spring Mr. Hard expects to start his ten-stamp mill at the Vesuvius mine and begin the shipment of copper ore to the smelter at Tacoma. Some of the samples of copper ore shown the reporter were 34 per cent pure copper and there is a grat deal of this in the Oregon-Colorado, from which the samples were taken.

FIRE ALARM THREE SUCCESSIVE DAYS

Another fire alarm was sounded Sunday forenoon, making one each on three successive days. The fire was at the residence of Mrs. Morgan, at the end of East Ninth street, where sparks from the chimney had ignited the roof and a good-sized hole was burned. Fireman Croner misunderstood the location of the fire and drove out to East Thirteenth and Alder streets. When he arrived at the house the blaze was out, having been extinguished by a few bucketfuls of water.

HOBOS ENTER BOX CAR AND STEAL GOODS

Some time last night hobos broke into a car loaded with general merchandise, consigned to several Eugene merchants, and stole a number of articles of wearing apparel, some tobacco and other things. The seal on the door of the car was broken and the thieves used a candle inside the car, the candle having been left there when they got through their work. They broke into several boxes, consigned to Nickle & Neal and containing mostly ladies' wear, but some of them contained men's socks and the hobos no doubt stocked up well with these. A box of tobacco for Julius Goldsmith was broken [illegible] and a box of ladies' skirts for Hamilton Bros. was rifled, but none of the skirts were taken. Chief of Police Farrington has made an investigation of the robbery and sent a description of the goods stolen to the officers up and down the line. There is no clue to the identity of the [illegible].

BOHEMIA SHARP MAKES HIS ANNUAL PROPOSAL

J. F. "Bohemia" Sharp has returned home in Cottage Grove from a visit to Salem where he was looking after business matters. While in the state capitol some of his friends [illegible] the following and sent it to the Portland Journal as a special and Mr. Sharp looks upon it as the best joke of the season.

The Journal Dispatch.

Salem, Feb. 27.—Bohemia Sharp as the old miner is known in Lane county, has been paying his annual visit to the state capitol. He makes a formal call on the governor each year when he comes around and tells of new discoveries, and regularly tenders his hand in marriage to the stenographer in the executive office, whoever she may be. He is regularly refused.

Sharp is now in the 70s, but still follows prospecting. Bohemia left today for his home in the mountains 25 miles from Cottage Grove.

SPLENDID SALE AT STANLEYS' SATURDAY

Saturday was the opening day of the big sale at Stanleys'. Long before the time for the opening of the store arrived, there was a [illegible] crowd of people on the [illegible] to take advantage of the splendid bargains offered, and all day the large salesroom was crowded. Several times the front doors were locked so that no one else could come in, those already in being allowed to leave by way of the rear door. There were ten salespeople and [illegible] other [illegible] the wrapping and other work incident to a big sale of this kind. The sale continues all this week. There was a good business today and it promises to keep up during the remainder of the week. Stanleys used The Guard exclusively to advertise their sale, and those in doubt as to the usefulness of this paper as an advertising medium should have seen the crowds there Saturday.
