AMUSEMENTS

Madame Blavatt, the American spiritist, has been giving her weekly seances at the Metropolitan Theatre since her arrival in Eugene. Her seances are held every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The decoration from Queen Marguerite was conferred upon her in 1886. It is a very limited order, only eight persons have been honored with its decoration. Mrs. Blavatt is the eighth person to be thus honored.

Messrs. Miller and Poon, who received and exploited "The Black Crook" last season, and again send it on tour the coming theatrical year, believe that they have discovered the one spot in the United States where progress is at a standstill.

that burg and put up a banner over the ministers and one of the daily newspapers across the right-shoulder and denounced the policy statement as one unfit to be uttered by the citizens of the city.

WHAT TO ASK

ABOUT OSTEOPATHY. Any reader who wishes to really know whether Osteopathy applies to his or her case should avoid the mistake of asking a practitioner of one of the old schools about it, for unfortunately most of them have not investigated the new science and do not understand either its theory or practice.

Dr. H. L. Studley, osteopath, office over Chambers Hardware store, Phone Black 1325. Residence, 724 Perry street. Phone Red 2127.

DIED

At his home, 1002 1/2 Broadway, Eugene, Ore., on Sunday, March 7, 1908, at 7:15 a. m., Mrs. Edith F. Bailey, aged 72 years, 2 months and 2 days.

MARRIED

At the bride's home in Goshen, on Sunday afternoon, March 8, 1908, at 11 o'clock, Rev. C. D. Hill, pastor of the Episcopal United Methodist church, officiated. The couple will reside in Eugene.

"I have found out that there is no use to die of lung trouble, as long as you can get the King's New Discovery," says Mrs. J. F. White, of Honolulu, Pa. "I would not be able to say only for that wonderful medicine. It cures all coughs and all other ailments, and even lung disease, even after the case is pronounced hopeless."

S.S.S. MADE FROM ROOTS AND HERBS A SAFE AND RELIABLE BLOOD PURIFIER

In the time of our forefathers the forests and fields were the only laboratories from which they could procure their medicines. They searched out and comprehended the different roots, herbs and barks into remedies, many of which have been handed down to succeeding generations, and continuously used with satisfactory results.

OUR CRACKER JACK department, if one by any better than another, is that devoted to fancy crackers and biscuits. Come and sample it. Include crackers in your next grocery order. You'll find them just the thing to offer callers. Just the things when you feel like taking "just a bite." We have 100 varieties but only one quality—the best.
