ATTEMPT TO KILL KING HAAKON OF SWEDEN

Christiania, March 10.—A Swede, apparently insane, fusilladed the royal castle at noon with a rifle and fired altogether many shots, several of which crashed through the windows and embedded themselves in the interior walls of the castle.

The man was promptly seized by the police and disarmed.

At the police station he declared it was his intention to kill King Haakon. He has still 40 or 50 cartridges in his pockets.

King Haakon and Queen Maude were absent from the castle.

SCHMITZ GIVEN FREEDOM BY COURT

seven justices, the court sustained the appellate court in its decision that the indictment upon which Schmitz was convicted was defective, in that it did not aver that Schmitz was mayor, that Ruef, his co-defendant, was a political boss practically in control of the city, that as such they were in a position to use undue influence over the police commissioners, and that it did not show that Schmitz resorted to unlawful means in threatening to have liquor licenses withheld.

"The decision demonstrates," said Schmitz, "that the highest court in the state believes what I have always claimed, that I was removed from office and railroaded to prison."

The decision practically nullifies Ruef's plea of guilty to the same charge; it invalidates the remaining four extortion indictments against Schmitz and Ruef, and will enable Schmitz to gain his liberty to bail after eight months' confinement in the county jail.

One paragraph of the decision says "[illegible] elementary principle of criminal law that the indictment must show that a crime has been committed. In no case can an indictment be aided by imagination and presumption. The presumptions are all in favor of innocence, and if the facts stated may or may not constitute a crime, the presumption is that no crime is charged."

THE NEW PIANO STORE

Stevens & Hulin Are Located in Their New Quarters in the Commercial Block.

Messrs. Stevens & Hulin, successors to the Ellers Piano House, completed moving this morning from their old quarters on Seventh street to their new and far better location in the Commercial Club building opposite the Methodist church.

These gentlemen are both well-known in business and musical circles in this city and county, and certainly have made a wise decision in continuing in business for themselves. They very successfully managed the interests of the Eugene branch of Ellers Piano House until the latter decided to withdraw from the retail trade and confine themselves to the wholesale business.

Now that Messrs. Stevens and Hulin are to continue in the music business, it is their intention to carry in stock a well-selected line of the leading makes of pianos and organs, "the best instruments at the lowest prices possible" being their motto. We bespeak for this new firm unbounded success.

A rare treat is in store for the people of Eugene at the M. E. Church March 14. Tickets on sale at Kuykendall's drug store. M16
