BEFORE COMMENCEMENT

A movement is now on foot to have Eleventh street paved before the commencement exercises on June 24.

The race of automobiles from New York to Paris will get along all right as long as the way leads over the level section of the continent, but when the machines come to the trails of Alaska there will be a different tale.

OF NATIVE AMERICANS

On the other day two Indians, one a Delaware, and the other a Delaware, but representatives in congress, one from Oklahoma and the other from Kansas, met on the floor of the house and discussed the political status of their race and its relation to the people of the United States.

Human nature bunches up pretty much alike. Owing to protests of its own laborers, Japan deported all the Chinese coolies imported under contract by manufacturers and prohibited further importation of cheap Chinese labor.

Senator Teller thinks the greatest danger to this government lies in the disposition of one department of the government to sit idly by and allow another department to exercise its duties. That's easily remedied, senator. Let the idle get busy.

Instead of sitting up nights trying to prevent a war between China and Japan, it might be the part of wisdom for the white nations to encourage one, as the best method to lessen the danger of the yellow peril.

One of the country's political anarchists scolds may lead to something more effective than talk, and the one now may be it. At any rate, let us hope so.

Pottlanders are in some respects like other men. The has-been is quite sure that things are not what they were before he was laid on the shelf.

Perhaps it isn't more sand in his gizzard that the so-called conservative element needs, in the opinion of the Washington Post, but more votes.

Preferred stock now selling at $15 per share. We confidently expect an advance on this stock at any time. In a letter just received from Colonel C. C. Wilson, of New York, who is president of said company, he says:

General O. O. Howard, General Nelson A. Miles and other American army officers who won their honors by conquering the hardy Redskins over the plains and compelling them to settle down to peaceful lives in permanent homes, the noble redman, rifle for rifle, is no more, and in his place is a fairly useful citizen, enjoying all advantages and responsibilities of his white neighbors. Even the survivors of the old wars are being forgotten. Generalissimo, his hands but now dripping with the blood of hunting, now disreputable with age, makes comfortable income by selling trinkets and posing as souvenir hunter.

BOY CAUSED RUNAWAY! AT WALTERVILLE

MRS. STORMENT'S TEAM BECAME FRIGHTENED AND RAN—OTHER WALTERVILLE NOTES

(Special Correspondence) Walterville, March 11.—Tuesday morning Mrs. John Storment started to drive to Eugene, but her team at Reno's store and fled her team to one of the porch posts. While she was in the store a small boy walked up to the team on stilts and shook a paper in their faces, which frightened them. He was advised by Lester Millican to stop, but he had not yet had fun enough, and soon the horse were rearing and plunging and finally broke loose and ran home, a distance of one and a half miles east of Walterville. The barnyard gate was open, and as they dashed in they broke loose from the back and after circling around the yard a few times went out into the road and ran to Elliot Potter's, where they were caught. Mrs. Storment's many friends are very thankful that she was safe.

Several of the children in the neighborhood have the chicken pox. No one is very sick. Zara Potter was very sick with measles of the stomach Saturday evening, but is now better. Uncle Walter Hotchkiss was taken to the Eugene hospital last Saturday by Dr. Johnson.

PLEASANT HILL NOTES

(Special Correspondence) Pleasant Hill, March 11.—The weather is all that could be desired and farming is progressing accordingly.

Several cattle buyers have been canvassing the neighborhood the past week with more or less success. L. E. Parks and to McClain Bros., of Hazel Dell, 70 head of steers, and a few others were picked up. Mrs. J. K. McKinney returned Saturday from Springfield, where she has been with her daughter, Mrs. Seever, for the past week. Miss Irene Robinson went to Eugene last Monday, where she was taken suddenly ill. Dr. Jayne was called and pronounced the trouble congestion of the spleen. She is now slowly improving. Mrs. Alice Knowles visited relatives at Cottage Grove most of last week.

Several Pleasant Hill people will be on the new Dexter-Goshen telephone line. The Pleasant Hill and Crewell Stock Company met at Pleasant Hill March 1st and transacted some regular spring business. There have been several severe cases of grippe here lately, but all are now improving.

Deputy Master State Grange Noor, who is on a tour of inspection and organization, visited the Pleasant Hill grange last Friday and delivered a very instructive address. The Pleasant Hill grange was organized in 1897 and is one of the largest in the county. A meeting is to be called at Pleasant Hill to discuss the plan of uniting Pleasant Hill, Trent, Edenville, Coast Fork and Enterprise school districts for the purpose of maintaining a high school. County Superintendent Dillard and City Superintendent Alderman have promised to be here and President Campbell will probably address the meeting. Regular notice will be given soon.

UNITED WIRELESS

Preferred stock now selling at $15 per share. We confidently expect an advance on this stock at any time. In a letter just received from Colonel C. C. Wilson, of New York, who is president of said company, he says:

We have a bill now before this session of congress which provides we understand that every passenger-carrying ship be equipped with wireless. We expect this bill to pass within ten days, and if it does our stock will advance as did Westinghouse air brake stock, which went up from $100 to $4000 per share in twelve months after congress passed a bill compelling every car to be equipped with an air brake.

Enough said. Have you any stock? "WIRELESS WOODRUFF," Office 18 West 5th St., or Room 7, Gordon Block.
