MISSIONARY MEETING PROVES GREAT SUCCESS

Pittsburg, March 12.—The last day of the first international convention of the Young People's Missionary Movement ended with enthusiasm. Dr. William Douglas MacKenzie, president of the Hartford Theological Seminary of Hartford, Conn., spoke on missionary education in the life of the church. He said in part:

"The first apostles and their followers required enlightenment as to the relation of the gospel to the world. It took long centuries to cover even Europe with the Christian name and life. Mission progress in Asia, moving at first over wide regions, was suddenly repelled, and almost swept out of existence by the tremendous tide of Mohammedanism, and not long after this desolating faith had locked Christianity within the continent of Europe. Then in that continent it turned to the mighty task of creating a Christian civilization. Gradually it permeated all classes, transforming their conceptions of human experience and human destiny, and at last in Europe and North America this religion holds the field alone.

"To carry Christianity, therefore, to the heathen world in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries is not to carry the solitary grandeur of the cross of Jesus, but to carry with it the age-long fruits of that cross in the civilization of the Western world. So the work is being done, not by solitary representatives, moving from place to place, but by the establishment of Christian homes and Christian social institutions. This, of course, has thrown the matter of their support back on the church as a whole. The modern movement is thus made dependent upon the co-operation of all the private members of the churches."

HOMESTEAD CAN NOT BE EXEMPTED

Residence on a homestead by a family, consisting of two or more persons, is required if the premises are to be exempted under the bankruptcy laws. This was the decision of Judge Wolverton in the United States court in the case of Henry C. Gardner, a bankrupt, who contended that his homestead at Drain could not be included as an asset in liquidating his debts under the bankruptcy laws.

Judge Wolverton held that since only the bankrupt himself had resided on the homestead, he cannot declare it exempt from the bankruptcy laws. "Although such premises may constitute his dwelling place or place of abode," said the court, "yet he cannot claim them exempt for the reason that he alone does not constitute a family."

SALEM MAN IS ELECTROCUTION PROOF

Roy Collins, an employe of the Oregon Electric, had the unique experience yesterday of having 31,000 volts of electricity pass through his body and of living to tell the story.

Collins has been working in the sub-station at Wacondah and yesterday soon after noon, while sweeping the station, in some manner came in contact with a high voltage wire. When found by another employe a few minutes later, he was unconscious.—Salem Statesman.

ACTOR HITCHCOCK IS FIEND, SAYS ELLEN VON HAGEN

New York, March 13.—Ellen Von Hagen, whose accusations resulted in the indictment of Raymond Hitchcock, the actor, repeated her story to a jury today.

The girl, who is now in the care of a society, told of nights spent at the Hitchcock home at Great Neck, L. I., and of visits to a furnished room in this city, where the defendant had temporary lodgings. On each of these excursions, she was accompanied by either Flora Whiston or Elsie Voeks. At the time, more than a year ago, Flora was 16, the witness was 15, and Elsie was 12 years of age.

RAYMOND HITCHCOCK.

In his opening address, following the filing of the jury box today, the prosecutor had charged that Hitchcock had been guilty of misconduct with all three of these children. When her testimony was interrupted by adjournment the Von Hagen girl had sworn confirmation of the state's allegations so far as she was concerned.

STOCKHOLDERS WILL SUE MR. HARRIMAN

New York, March 12.—Charges that E. H. Harriman has caused a loss to the Union Pacific Railroad of over $40,000,000 by his stock speculations with the funds of the corporation were filed with the board of directors today. A formal demand was made that suit be brought against him and the other directors of the system who have been parties to his speculations, to recover the sums lost to the company through the illegal transactions.
