MONEY BEING SPENT BY POLITICAL MACHINE

The Oregon City Courier asserts that money is being spent to defeat the popular election of senators in Oregon, but it does not fear the result. The Courier says:

"The money used in Oregon to carry the state against Statement No. 1 will not be raised to any large extent in Oregon. There is great fear that popular election of senators will spread to other states. In such an event it might be hard for the various industrial and railway corporations and other great financial aggregations to own their respective quotas of senators. The United States senate might really become a branch of the people's government. No, it is absolutely necessary that these capitalistic organizations own the United States senate, and this desire of the people that they would like to elect senators must be nipped in the bud. There is every reason to believe that hundreds of thousands of dollars are to be used during the next campaign in overthrowing the amendment to our constitution commonly known as Statement No. 1, and that this money comes largely from outside sources. If the next legislature should be made up of men not in harmony with Statement No. 1, the trick is done. Our privilege of electing United States senators will then be a thing of the past. The people, helpless and irresponsible, must be prevented from doing themselves injury. It is absolutely necessary that the politicians become their guardians. This kind of real political liberty has become a dangerous thing. Under some pretense or other the people's privilege of electing the senator must be taken back from them."

QUESTIONS THAT WILL BE VOTED ON IN JUNE

To fix the annual appropriation of the State University at $125,000.

To require railroads to issue passes to all state, county and district officials.

To appropriate $100,000 for National Guard armories.

To give sheriffs exclusive control of county prisoners.

To increase the number of judges of the supreme court from three to five (by legislature).

To give political parties proportionate representation in the legislature.

To provide for the recall of public officials and to elect their successors.

To take from the district attorney the power of indictment and invest it exclusively in grand judies.

To exempt certain property from taxation.

To prevent the legislature from amending or repealing initiative laws (by the state grange).

To give each city or town the sole power to regulate the business houses, saloons, theatres, and the like as licenses.

To extend suffrage to women.

The corrupt practice act. Limiting the amount of money that candidates may spend for campaign purposes. (U'Ren.)

Requiring all legislative candidates to subscribe to Statement No. 1. (By U'Ren.)

For the division of Wasco county and the creation of another county, with Hood River as the county seat. (By the people of Wasco county.)

Prohibiting fishing for salmon, except with fish wheels between Celilo and Astoria. (By The Dalles fish wheelers.)

Prohibiting the fishing for salmon in the mouth of the Sandy. (By Astoria fishermen.)

Enlarging the powers of the Port of Portland in the interests of better navigation on the lower Willamette and Columbia rivers. (By the people of Multnomah county.)

For an amendment of section 2 (evidently intended to be section 29) of article 3 of the constitution, changing the compensation of members of the legislature to $400 for each regular session and $10 per day for each extra session, instead of $3 per day and mileage. Section 28 provides the time when laws take effect, and the proposed amendment is therefore wrongly numbered.

Roseburg has joined the "Boosters' League" and is crowding well up toward the front rank, her publicity fund amounting to $6500. This is good news for the boosters of Eugene, who feel that they set the ball rolling and that for additional towns to take up the work is aiding their efforts toward making a Greater Oregon. A bigger and better state means larger and finer cities, and Eugene will put forth every effort to get her share of the new people and increasing business. Toward Roseburg and other enterprising towns we have the kindliest feelings, because the creed of the true booster is to always push but never knock.

A correspondent of an Eastern paper makes the proposition that the stars on the flag of the Union be arranged in the form of a swastika on the field of blue. He says the swastika ornament has from ancient times been considered the emblem of good luck and great success, first used in this country by the Indians, being significant of long life. Four times during the year the sign may be seen in the heavens at midnight, which means, freely translated, "continue with courage." At least, the correspondent contends, the design would be purely American.

The Guard is one of the largest and best daily newspapers in Oregon because Eugene is one of the largest and best towns in the state. You can always judge a city by its newspapers and big eight and twelve page dailies like The Guard are never printed in half-dead towns.

Rhode Island is taking a census of the unemployed of the state. It is asserted by some of the jealous ones of Little Rhody's successful career that one of her tallest citizens mounts on a high stool and just looks around over the state and counts 'em.

The mayor of Georgia City has resigned because he was expected to kiss the brides he married. He also left a tack on his seat for his successor by saying his reason for not wishing to kiss brides was his fear of contracting some disease.

Notwithstanding constant assertions that peace sentiment is growing all over the world, it will be noticed that war scares are still printed on the first page, with scare heads, and news editors come pretty near to knowing their biz.

The kaiser's "butting-in" habit has brought him another "cussing out" from Englishmen, which is quite as strenuous as the one they gave him for patting Oom Paul Krueger on the back at the opening of the Boer war.

"Don't hit a man when he's down" with one word eliminated—"don't"—is a mighty popular maxim with those who think they are on top for keeps.

The line between stock exchange gambling and bucket shop gambling is so thin that is no wonder many cannot see it at all.

Payment of one bill is more convincing argument that the financial stringency is over than miles of optimistic hot air.

Hearst is making a noise like a man who has advance tips on what the Independence League is going to do.

MISS POLLY TICKS

Polly Ticks, the quaint old girl,
Has the men in a sweaty swirl;
First she favors No. 1,
Then she has it on the run;
Then she thinks that Heney's right,
Then sics Fulton on to fight;
When the socialists say "scat!"
Polly's there with gaudy hat;
When the dems say they will win
Says Polly, "Tis a cinch; go in!"
When the prohis to their strength
Polly hesitates; at length
She says: "It is my dearest wish
To cast my vote with the prohibish!"
When the reps say "we're ahead!"
She says "of course, the rest are dead."
Polly Ticks is free from guile,
But keeps 'em guessing all the while.
When a man thinks he is "it,"
Poly hands her icy mitt—
For Polly has a heart of stone;
She cannot let a good man alone.
What she does and what she dares
No one knows but each one cares.
Unless your pocket's full of tricks
Shun for all time Polly Ticks!

SAMUEL W. TAYLOR RESIGNS HIS POSITION

HAS BEEN CONNECTED WITH WATER PLANT FOR PAST EIGHTEEN YEARS—FAITHFUL AND EFFICIENT

Samuel W. Taylor, who has been connected with the water works of Eugene since their installation eighteen years ago, has resigned his position as superintendent of thhe plant and mains. He is as yet undetermined what business he will follow, but will not be idle long.

Mr. Taylor, during his connection with the water plant, has been faithful and efficient and he will be greatly missed by the patrons of the system. He thoroughly understands the water business and his place will be hard to fill. During his incumbency the city has never been short of water while he had charge of the pumping plant. Te knew the location of every main in the entire system from the big 12-inch pipes to the tiny half-inch pipes.

WOMAN'S PLEA FOR STATE UNIVERSITY

(Albany Democrat.)

Eugene, March 10, 1908.

To the Editor:—What is the matter with some of the people of our beloved state of Oregon? Why do they fight against their own interests? Is it a fact that our citizens do not believe in education, higher education? And can a state institution exist without reasonable support from the state?

I am not opposed to denominational schools. I believe in them. I am not opposed to the State Agricultural College. We need that, too. In fact, we need all our schools. But we cannot do without a university, a place where girls and boys with limited means can get an education that will prepare them for good positions. Examine if you will the papers that contain the positions that are filled by the class of 1907. Now there are boys, bright, intelligent boys, who are working their way through college, doing any kind of legitimate work they can get.

Some writer said through the Oregonian that the professors of the University were a set of ungodly men. That is not true. The teachers are, from the president down to the assistants, members of our leading churches, with a few exceptions, and not only members but better and more efficient men and women I never knew anywhere. The school does not claim to be a religious institution and yet they are laying the foundation for a betterment of men and women. A prominent business man told me a few days ago that the saloon element were going to vote against the appropriation because the professors worked so hard in Eugene for closing the saloons.

And now why are some taxpayers making so much noise about the appropriation? Just go to work and figure out how much more our taxes will be on account of raising this money for the University and you will wonder why any reasonable man objects to it. Lest you do not understand the advantages of the State University, I will give my personal experience in the matter. Almost eight years ago I was left with a little money and one child to educate. I lived in Albany. I love the place, for better people can be found no place on earth, and it was in that place I spent the happiest days of my life and yet after I lost everything but my little girl and a few hundred dollars I knew that, although God spared my health I could make a living, yet it would be impossible to educate my child. So I decided to come to Eugene, and here, with the opportunities that a state institution affords, I have given my daughter an education that has enabled her to secure a lucrative position, and has prepared her as a University graduate to get a situation in almost any business.

KATE CUNDIFF.

LIFE GUARDS.

The Life Guards are two regiments of cavalry forming part of the British household troops. They are gallant soldiers, and every loyal British heart is proud of them. Not only the King's household, but your's, ours, everybody's should have its life guards. The need of them is especially great when the greatest foes of life, diseases, find allies in the very elements, as colds, influenza, catarrh, the grip, and pneumonia due in the stormy month of March. The best way we know of guard against these diseases is to strengthen the system with Hood's Sarsaparilla—the greatest of all life guards. It removes the conditions in which these diseases make their most successful attacks, give vigor and tone to all the vital organs and functions, and imparts a genial warmth to the blood. Remember the weaker the system the greater the exposure to disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the system strong.

DRESS-MAKERS

The nervous strain through which dressmakers have to pass at certain seasons of the year seems almost beyond endurance, and frequently brings on nervous prostration, fainting spells, dizziness, sleeplessness and a general breaking down of the feminine system, until life seems altogether miserable.

For all overworked women there is one tried and true remedy.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

restores the feminine system to a strong, healthy, normal condition.

Mrs. Ella Griffin, of Park St., Canton, N.Y., writes to Mrs. Pinkham

"I was troubled for three years with female weakness, backache, pains in my side, and headaches. I was most miserable and discouraged, for doctors gave me no relief. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought back my health and made me feel better than ever before."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.
