AMUSEMENTS

Last night the new "Black Crook" held the boards at the Eugene theatre. It was splendidly staged, the scenery and electrical effects being especially good. E. J. Willard, as "Kertoz, the Magician," William C. Kelp, his drudge, were stars, the latter being especially good in his comical role; while J. Edward Pierce and Marie Roslyn in their singing parts won enthusiastic encores. The Don-the rifle and serpentine dancing on the rolling globe, as well as Mme. Zeka, the most mystifying of all telepatists. Admission only 10 cents.

Eugene Musical Festival.

The musical festival idea is abroad in the land. The larger cities and the medium-sized ones are all arranging for some combination by which the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and its coterie of singers will take part in a song festival consisting of oratorio, song recitals, and mixed programs. Portland and Eu-large cities. This is due to the spread of genuine interest in and knowledge of music, and large audiences assemble to hear the notable orchestral programs offered during the season. It is therefore an opportunity seldom allowed to cities the size of ours to hear an organization of this character, and the committee soliciting subscriptions should not have a difficult task before it. Exact date cannot be given at present as Tacoma is making an effort to secure the orchestra for one performance. Definite announcement will be made soon.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

The reception given to Madame Blauvelt at the Commercial Club on Thursday afternoon was a very pleasant affair. Madame Blauvelt is a very charming and gracious woman, and it was a pleasure for the ladies of Eugene to meet her. The club rooms were prettily decorated in spring's first flowers, the golden daffodil and the flowering quince. The ladies were received and introduced to Madame Blauvelt by Mrs. Charles Hardy, Mrs. Charlotte Zelber, Mrs. L. L. Whitson and Mrs. C. B. Willoughby. In another room Mrs. I. M. Glen and Mrs. C. S. Williams poured tea, and wafers were passed by Mrs. L. L. Goodrich, Mrs. Geo. H. Smith, Miss Minnie Schwarzschild and Miss Lulu Renshaw.

Frieda Goldsmith on Thursday evening in honor of her birthday, walked in on her with baskets of freshments and a book as a remembrance. The evening pleasantly passed with cards and music. Those in the party were Misses Grace Wood, Carrie Egan, Vera Anton, Essie Barker and Marguerite Dunn; Messrs. Harold Correll, Wayne Hard, Herbert Burt, Harold Bean, Gwinn Watson, and Dell Barbour.

Mrs. H. C. Mahon was hostess Wednesday afternoon to the Friday Club. The afternoon was informally passed with needle work and cards. The guests of the club were Mrs. W. Osburn, Mrs. Frank Schmitt, Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. Skipwith and Miss Mrs. Mahon in serving a special course luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shore Smith of Klamath Falls are visiting at the home of Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Hendricks.

Mrs. P. E. Snodgrass was the gracious hostess this week to the ladies of the Thursday Afternoon Club, and a few invited guests, who were the Mesdames J. W. Shumate, A. H. Peterson, C. A. Burden, Alton Hampton, Frank Wetherbee, Romeo Gilbert, J. M. Woodruff and Jones. After an hour or so at what the hostess was assisted in serving luncheon by Miss Nancy Peterson.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal church was entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. J. T. Rowland, Mrs. Irish and Mrs. Virgil Rowland at the home of the former. The hostesses were assisted in carrying refreshments to the sixty guests who were present by a number of young ladies.

A great deal of interest is being taken in the concert to be given by Eugene Military band on Thursday evening, March 17, directly following the ceremony where the regimental colors to the Fourth regiment.

azottas, aerobats, gave a splendid exhibition of tumbling and there were many other excellent specialties introduced. The new "Black Crook" is one of the season's distinct hits.

Last year about this time we were treated to a real treat in musical comedy in the nature of Raymond Hitchcock in the "Yankee Tourist." It seems that Mr. Smith, the general manager of the Eugene theatre is about to give us another number one New York company. When we have Frank Lalor in "Coming Thro' the Rye" at the Eugene theatre, Friday, March 29. If the Los Angeles and Frisco papers are criticisms to go by, surely "Coming Thro' the Rye" is the largest and best comedy to come to the coast this year, for they cannot speak too highly of the attraction and performers.

Prof. Hoyt, the man of magic, mirth and mystery, will open an engagement of one week at the Orpheum theatre Monday. Mrs. Rosie Hoyt, the champion rifle shot of the west, will also be on the program with her marvelous exhibition with gene are the only Oregon cities thus favored.

Our city is indeed fortunate in having a local organization, who will take upon themselves the arduous work, as well as the risk, of bringing this very excellent body of men to this city for three concerts. This organization appears in thirty-eight different cities west of the Rocky Mountains, and we are fortunate to be one of these thirty-eight.

With sixty-five competent men under the direction of the well-known composer and musician Adolph Rosenbecker, the Chicago Symphony Orchestra comes to us better prepared than any other organization in America to render ensemble programs in connection with local singers. Their season last year throughout the west was a most successful one, and their performance of symphonies, rhapsodies, and orchestral selections demonstrated their capabilities of high grade work.

The establishment of fine orchestral organizations is becoming more and more a part of the musical, artistic and educational interest of our
