CHURCH NEARING ITS TWENTIETH MILE STONE

It will be nineteen years ago this coming summer since the first services were held which resulted in the organization of the Congregational church of Eugene. And so it is that the church will soon enter upon the last year of its second decade. The church has had an honorable history. It has had in its fellowship some of the choicest souls of the city, to recall only the names of such as have passed to the great beyond. It has had some strong men in its pulpit. With little doubt when the religious history of Eugene is written the wisdom of planting this church will be clearly seen. It has today a good outlook and in common with other churches may make this next year a year of marked growth not only by inward development, but by sharing in the steady and sure growth of the city.

Fully one hundred and fifty of the friends and members of the church sat down about its hospitable board at the annual supper last Thursday evening and enjoyed a delightful hour of social fellowship. All of these are cordially invited to join regularly in the worship and work of the church and share the rewards of its service. The services for tomorrow are as follows: Morning worship, 11 a. m.; evening service at 7:30 p. m.; sermon on "Lessons from Jonah, the great fish, and what it means." Sunday school at 10 a. m. W. B. PINKERTON, Pastor.

SPLENDID RESULTS FROM BROUGHER'S MEETINGS

EUGENE PEOPLE HAVE BETTER APPRECIATION OF PORTLAND'S SO-CALLED SENSATIONAL MINISTER.

The Union revival of the Presbyterian and Baptist churches under the leadership of Dr. Brougner closed last night. Eugene people who know Dr. Brougner as a sensational preacher now have a different opinion of him. The matchless sermons combining wit, humor, pathos, dramatic fervor and intense vitality, all expressive of great convictions, love for Christ and men, which he delivered to the crowded audiences in Eugene are the same sermons which he joyfully asserted were the ones he gave to his Portland "goats" on Sunday nights. While Eugene people have a greater appreciation of Dr. Brougner, he freely expressed his admiration of Eugene people and our beautiful city. Because of his closer acquaintance Eugene has found a friend who will work for our progress in everything good. Dr. Brougner pledged himself to lend a hand in boosting the University and Portland will know where he stands on the appropriation question.

As a result of the meetings nearly every church will receive additions, for probably two hundred and fifty either openly accepted Christ or sought personal counsel and help.

To the Presbyterian and Baptist churches great credit is due as Dr. Brougner stated he had never worked with people better prepared for revival effort and to the pastors, Revs. H. N. Mount and O. C. Wright, too much can not be said for the faithful preparation of these meetings.

Dr. Brougner will return to Eugene and lecture April 6th, and will no doubt be greeted by a large audience.

FRATERNAL BROTHERHOOD HOLDS SOCIAL SESSION

One of the finest social events pulled off in this city was that of the Fraternal Brotherhood on Thursday night at Eagles' hall. Fully 250 people were in attendance and after the program was over, which had been so carefully prepared by the committee, a luncheon was served. Too much credit cannot be given to Mrs. Deeds, chairman, and others serving on this committee. After the address by F. E. Taylor, state manager, of Portland, 17 applications were written, the same to be initiated with the class of 50 Monday night next. The Fraternal Brotherhood is making great progress here. Will initiate class of 250 at the armory on Thursday night, April 2d.

HIGH SCHOOL'S "COUNTY FAIR" MAKES HIT

If anything ever put on for the public was a success, the "County Fair" at the high school last night certainly was. It is doubtful if the most chronic pessimist could have possibly registered a kick at anything which he paid for last evening. Everything was new and funny—all laughter and noise.

Every side show was all that could be looked for, if not more. There were no fakes. As to the best side show, it is probably a stand-off between the Juniors' "Nickelodeon" theatre, where over five hundred feet of funny moving pictures and two illustrated songs by Miss Una Neal, were displayed, and the Juniors' "drama," "Getting Ready." The members of this play showed the best preparation and talent. Miss Florence Thrall, as the "prima donna" Mrs. Nevership, was without question the best character and handled her part exceedingly well. Mr. O'Leary, as "Biddy" the Irish cook, fitted his part to perfection and was very good. Mr. Holman, as Mr. Nevership, carried himself well. Mrs. Calkins, as "Pst" and Miss U'Ren, as the talkative old maid, were also good.

The Seniors' freaks were very funny, especially Ed. Baller, as the fat woman, and Lucile Abrams, as "Dora, the wild girl." The room containing the baby show was prettily decorated and lighted with candles. Miss Shumate was the nurse. The "Streets of All Nations" should not be missed, as they were put on by the freshmen and are very interesting. The Sophomores' negro show must not be forgotten, as Harold Young, Louis Miller, Harold Stiles, Billy U'Ren and many others were exceedingly funny. The wild Indians and the Stameses twins, by Echo Hawk and Katherine Watson, deserve special mention.

Tonight there will be an entire change of program, and no one should miss it. Even if you saw it last night, it will be so different that you will be just as interested. The program in the assembly room begins at eight o'clock, sharp, and will last probably half an hour. After that, tickets may be purchased in either hall at five cents each, which will admit to any show. Ten tickets will take in everything.

Miss Hazel Huff's singing in the vaudeville, last night, was unusually good, and tonight she does a special act as a French maid and a novel French song.

BURGERS SECURE VERY LITTLE BOOTY

Thursday night some one entered Charles McFarland's storehouse and woodshed at his residence at 746 Hill yard street and ransacked two trunks, but nothing of value was taken so far as can be ascertained. The thief entered the room by taking out the lower sash of the window. The imprint of his knee and foot were left in the dirt in a box of plants which were left in the window. Besides ransacking the trunks the fellow helped himself to a quantity of eatables in the cupboard and enjoyed a good square meal at Mr. McFarland's expense. The police officers were notified of the burglary but no clew to the guilty party has been obtained.
