MAY SEEK TO ENJOIN COMPANY FROM BLASTING

ATTEMPT BEING MADE TO STOP SETTING OFF BLASTS AT ROCK CRUSHER OF PAVING PLANT-- SUIT MAY BE FILED AT ONCE

It was reported on the streets today that a suit to enjoin the Warren Construction Company from setting off blasts at the rock quarry on the west slope of the butte would at once be instituted. It is said that J. R. Sellers is at the head of the movement. It will be remembered that last summer when the company operated the rock crusher there Mr. Sellers made a protest to the city council and got up a petition to have the blasting stopped but no action was taken. Another petition has been presented to the council, but that body is not disposed to pass an ordinance prohibiting the blasting, as it would greatly hinder the paving operations mapped out for the coming summer. The council is in favor of regulating the size of the blasts, however, so that rocks will not be thrown to the property adjacent to the quarry and so that it will not jar the houses, as some of the blasts did last summer. No injunction suit had been filed in the circuit court up to a late hour this afternoon, but it is said that Mr. Sellers and others are determined if possible to stop the blasting and will at once begin the suit.

Company C's basketball team was defeated at Drain Saturday night by the Drain Athletic Club team by the score of 27 to 23. In the first half the militiamen led by the score of 18 to 8, but in the second half they claim that Drain employed football tactics and won out because they were rougher and heavier.

At the final meeting of the creditors of David Y. Allison, of Cottage Grove, held in Referee Wintermeyer's office Saturday, the final dividend was declared. There was only $78 left to distribute among the creditors. Allison's debts amounted to $700 or $800, but as some of the creditors failed to establish their claims, the dividend was larger than anticipated.

John Catlin, Albany's famous sleuth, arrived up from that city Saturday afternoon after Lawrence Johnson, who was arrested here a few days ago for stealing some money out of a fellow laborer's trunk at Maroon. After he had been indicted by the Lane county grand jury it was found that the crime had been committed about 100 yards over the Linn county line and it is necessary to prosecute him at Albany.

Saturday afternoon a team belonging to L. C. Hughes, living across the river, ran away and one of the horses broke a leg. The animal had to be shot. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes were driving to town in a wagon when the neckyoke broke, letting the tongue fall to the ground, causing the horses to run. The tongue of the wagon broke and the stub end flew around and struck one of the horses on the hind leg, breaking it.

The high school "county fair" proved to be quite a success in every way, over $190 being taken in. The Juniors took the prize for taking in the most money, putting on the moving pictures and the one-act "comedy drama." The Sophomores were next, the Seniors third, and the Freshmen came last. The latter showed that their intentions were good by running up a large expense. However, they barely took in money enough to pay for their large preparations.

A. E. Wheeler & Co., abstractors, today began suit in the circuit court against M. B. Rankin, of Portland, to recover money for abstracts furnished on certain tracts of timber lands in Lane county. The plaintiff alleges that $112.50 is due for the work, $246 having been paid. Dorris & Skipworth are the attorneys for the plaintiff. Rankin is the Portland man who is defendant in the case now in the circuit court in which H. C. Mahon seeks to recover over $40,000 commission for the sale of timber lands.

Last Friday evening the five men comprising the champion tug-of-war team of the University of Oregon were given a sumptuous oyster supper at Otto's. Otto agreed to furnish an oyster supper to the winning team, and he meted out fried Eastern oysters till the team felt like challenging the town team to a pull-lee cream came next, and that cooled off the atmosphere a little. Otto's hospitality was up to the standard, which means that none better could have been served. The senior team was composed of Gardner, Stevenson, Zacharias, Arnsperger and McArthur.

Harry Harrison, the "Human Orichalcum" who appeared at the Orpheum theatre all of last week in his stunt of eating glass, nails, knife blades and other similar articles of diet, left today for Seattle where he will consult physicians in regard to a big knife blade which he swallowed and which he thinks has lodged crosswise in his stomach. Last Monday night, the first night of his engagement here, he was given this blade to swallow, and he did it all right, but it was too big and lodged. He suffered agony all week, but went through with his performance each night to fulfill his contract with the Orpheum management. He was billed to appear at Roseburg this week, but he concluded it was best to go to Seattle and get fixed up before performing any other stunts in that line.

NEW ANTI-TOXIN FOUND. The Germans have found an anti-toxin for the "laziness germ." They claim that it will transform any man of sluggish and slothful habits into an energetic person to whom that "tired feeling" is unknown. This is the reduction of the germ theory to its logical absurdity. Germs are not the only cause of disease. Germs simply multiply in depleted or diseased tissue. Saturday Evening Post.

Osteopathy seals the fate of germs by restoring the proper circulation of the bodily fluids that are alone capable of impairing the diseased tissue. Does it not seem like the correct and rational method?

Dr. H. L. Standley, osteopath, office over Chambers' Hardware store, Phone Black 1325. Residence, 724 Ferry street. Phone Red 3197.

CHAMBERLAIN ENTERS CONTEST FOR SENATOR

George E. Chamberlain, governor of Oregon, is a candidate for the United States senate, to succeed Charles A. Fulton. Saturday afternoon the governor made the announcement of his candidacy, pledging himself, should he be elected, to serve the people of the state impartially and promising should the office fall to him, to place country above party and to support those measures whether to a Republican or a Democratic administration, which his conscience approved as best calculated to promote the best interests of the country at large and the state of Oregon.

CAST OF METEORITE AT THE UNIVERSITY

EXACT COPY OF WILLAMETTE METEORITE DISCOVERED NEAR OREGON CITY PRESENTED TO INSTITUTION

A plaster of paris cast of the Willamette meteorite, which was discovered near Oregon City about three years ago and which was later exhibited at the Lewis & Clark exposition at Portland, afterward being sent to the Smithsonian Institute, has been received at the University of Oregon and is now installed in the Condon museum. The meteorite, it will be remembered, was discovered on the premises of the Willamette Iron & Steel Company by a resident of Clackamas county who claimed it as his own. The company sued for its possession and won the suit. The cast of the meteorite was made some time ago, and the owners wrote to President Campbell, of the University if Oregon, asking if he would accept it as a gift for the University. An affirmative reply was sent and the cast arrived this morning by freight. Owing to its size there was considerable difficulty in getting it into the building in which the museum is located, but the task was finally accomplished. The cast is an exact copy of the original meteorite and is about 10x8x6 feet in dimensions. In appearance it resembles a huge stone. It is a very valuable acquisition to the museum.

JUDGE T. G. HAILEY DIES IN PORTLAND

Judge Thomas G. Hailey, former Justice of the State Supreme Court, and one of the leading Democratic lawyers of the state, died shortly before 12 o'clock last night at his home, 825 Marshall street, at the age of 43 years, having failed to rally from the shock of a surgical operation performed at a local hospital recently. Judge Hailey was a native of Oregon, and was widely known in both this state and in Idaho, where he spent his boyhood. --Oregonian.

GRAIN DEALERS DO NOT FAVOR PROPOSED LAWS

Washington, March 14.--Representatives of the grain growing, shipping and exporting interests from the principal cities of the country met here in conference today under the auspices of the Grain Dealers' National Association, to consider matters pending in congress providing for the establishment by the secretary of agriculture of classification for the grading of grain, appointment for federal inspectors and prohibition of the use of other grades. There was considerable opposition to the proposed plan for the reason that there will be required a very large number of inspectors and because one set of grading rules will not be suitable for the entire country, and the merchants consider the proposed interference with their business by the government as unwarranted.

IF You Know Us...

Two years ago a young man was solicited by us to open an account. We told him that in case he should ever wish to borrow money, he would find it an advantage to have become known at our bank through such an account. He had at that time no occasion to borrow; however, he opened an account. Recently he needed to use some money in a business deal and he came to us for it and was accommodated. If he had not been known to us, it might have been different. This is a representative case. You might also find it advantageous to be known at this bank. We are always prepared to accommodate our patrons and no worthy applicant is ever refused. We will be pleased to have your account.
