

ANOTHER ATTACK ON METHODS OF PRESIDENT

Washington, March 19.—An attack on President Roosevelt was made in the house today by Harrison, New York, in connection with Panama canal zone affairs. His remarks were based on a resolution reported by the committee on interstate commerce calling on the president to inquire into the canal zone since expiration of the 58th congress. The resolution was adopted.

ROARING WELL GIVES WARNING OF EARTHQUAKE

Beloit, Wis., March 19.—A roaring well on Charles Lather's farm near here, sounds from which preceded the San Francisco disaster, is again emitting rumbling noises and a strong wind from its cavernous depths. It is asserted the well began roaring a few weeks before the San Francisco earthquake and ceased exactly at the hour of the quake.

HAYTIAN AFFAIRS AGAIN TRANQUIL

Port au Prince, March 19.—The situation here today continues tranquil. Three more warships, two American and one British, have arrived.

A. A. Haflinger, proprietor of the Foley Springs resort, arrived down from there last night on his way to Portland.

WORKINGMEN IN RIOT FOR PROSPECTIVE JOBS

Cleveland, March 19.—Anxiety to get close to the gate of the American Steel and Wire Company, which is about to increase its working force, caused a riot among fifty unemployed, resulting in the fatal injury to one man and the serious injury to a number of others. The men used rocks and clubs, and one man was armed with a revolver and shot a man who is alleged to have struck him with a rock. The police clubbed the men severely.

DOUMA LEADER IS MURDERED

St. Petersburg, March 19.—Dr. Karaviev, leader of the Group of Toil of the second douma, was assassinated in his home yesterday by two men, and the home of M. Voloshky, leader of the League of Russian people, at Nezhnin, was burned by revolutionists. His entire family perished.

DECEPTION USED BY AGENT FOR SUBMARINE BOATS

Washington, D. C., March 19.—In reference to Puget Sound, and that he was immensely interested in the subject, having been a war correspondent for various papers, and that he would like to send me a report of what he found. I answered him that of course I would be very glad to receive such a report from him or any other man who might investigate the subject. He sent a letter on the subject a few weeks later which I transmitted to the secretary of the navy. I have transmitted dozens of similar letters from men who have told me of investigations that they have made or of facts which they believed were important. It is the usual course; it was followed in this instance exactly as in all similar cases.

"Sincerely yours," "THEODORE ROOSEVELT." Metcalf was asked his views as to the value to the naval service of submarines, and replied he would prefer the answer to be made by the experts of the department, as his action in recommending the vessels showed he thought them necessary. Metcalf stated that the contract for the Lake Company's boat was entered into on certain guarantees. The company's bid was $525,000, and the department agreed to pay $450,000 for one boat, no money to be paid until the boat was fully tested and had developed the speed of the best submarine owned by the government; that the contract had been let after the attorney-general had decided that the secretary of the navy had authority to enter into such contract; that the matter was submitted to the attorney-general at the request of former Senator Thurston, the representative of the Lake Boat Company; that a number of congressmen had called upon him regarding the opinion of the attorney-general. Metcalf mentioned Representatives Butler, Robbins, Loudenslager, Lilley, Hughes, Sperry and Senators Bullock and Grandgeorge; that he thought Butler and Loudenslager called after the awarding of the contract and that the others had called before the contract was signed; that no suggestions were made in any way. They simply felt, they said, it was due the interests of the government to have two companies build boats. Both Metcalf and Capps said they knew of no excessive profits being realized on submarines.

SUDDEN FLOOD IN PITTSBURG AND VICINITY

Pittsburg, March 19.—With surprising suddenness another flood is expected at Pittsburg and vicinity. The water reached the danger mark of 22 feet this morning and is rising rapidly. The weather bureau says it may reach 33 feet tomorrow, 3 1-2 feet less than the great flood of March last year. All small streams are on a rampage, the streets and cellars in the suburbs are flooded and thousands of women and children prisoners in their homes.

The sand dredge of the Pittsburg Glass Company broke her moorings at Tarantum and was swept in the flood down the Allegheny river over the government dam at Springdale. The fate of five men on board is not known.

It was discovered that the pressure of gas was caused by a landslide wrecking the gas regulator house at Benavon. Eight places were either set on fire or were scenes of explosions, and scores of persons suffered from inhaling gas.

DISCOUNT RATE AGAIN LOWERED

London, March 19.—The rate of discount of the Bank of England was reduced to 3 per cent today.

FIRE CAUSED BY PRESSURE OF GAS

Pittsburg, March 19.—An unusual pressure of gas in Benavon, a suburb, probably caused a conflagration, and the presence of mind of a man who ran through the streets warning residents saved much property. Stoves in many homes were at a white heat ready to burn the walls. A Chinese laundry was burned and two Chinese are missing.

ANOTHER WAR SCARE IS OVER

Washington, March 19.—The state department has been advised by the Chinese government of the release of the Tatsu Maru and that it had saluted the Japanese flag. The incident is therefore closed.

ALLISON WINS OVER CUMMINS IN IOWA STATE

Des Moines, Ia., March 18.—The Republican state convention today elected four delegates-at-large to the national convention, instructed them to vote for W. H. Taft, endorsed William B. Allison by a vote of 672-17-24 to 597-7-24, and approved the plank of the Ohio platform calling for a revision of the tariff at a special session of congress. The Allison people dominated the convention from its opening to its close, and had things their own way throughout. The Cummins people, although defeated, took special delight in having, as they declared, forced the "stand-patters" to endorse a plank calling for a revision of the tariff, and they made a point of frequently reminding the Allison of the fact. The latter, however, insisted that there were as many revolutionists in their ranks as there were of the Cummins men.

WILLIAM B. ALLISON. Dean of the United States senate who has a rival in the person of Governor Cummins of Iowa.
