CITY NEWS

The brick work on the Finnegan and Potts buildings will begin tomorrow. The Metcalf residence at 813 High street was quarantined today on account of the existence of smallpox in the family.

Hon. H. M. Cake, Republican candidate for United States senator, will address the voters of Lane county tonight at the courthouse. The many friends of Dr. Brougher will be pleased to know that he will deliver his lecture, "What's Under Your Hat?" at the Baptist church on April 6th.

The big boiler for the Elmira Lumber Company's mill was unloaded from the car today and placed on a wagon preparatory to taking it out to the mill. Mrs. Datzell will entertain the Woman's Missionary Society of the Central Presbyterian church tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at her home, 752 Patterson street.

Household goods arrived here last night for F. B. Wood from Portland, 253 R. C. Desaleux, who recently arrived from the East and bought property in the Blair Street addition. A change of venue was granted today in the case of the State vs. John Baynet, charged with violating the local option law, and the trial will be held before Justice of the Peace J. E. Young at Cottage Grove.

H. E. Owen, one of the street car conductors, while helping a girl off the car near the depot yesterday afternoon, fell and badly wrenched one of his knees. He will be laid up for perhaps a week on account of the injury. Louis E. Bean, the well-known Eugene attorney, this afternoon filed his petition with the county clerk for the nomination of representative in the legislature on the Republican ticket. Mr. Bean says he does not favor Statement No. 1.

The mud wagon recently bought by the city from Samuel Manrud arrived Saturday evening from Portland and was unloaded from the car this morning. The wagon is one of those used by Mr. Manrud in his big filling contract in Portland. Ludford & Haskell, the painters, have moved their store to the new Barnard building at the corner of West Eighth and Charnelton streets.

Fred M. DeNeffe has refused an offer of $150 per month to pitch for the Tacoma team of the Northwest league this year. Rev. O. C. Wright has received word that Dr. W. L. He is an eye, ear and throat specialist.

Charles J. Barlitz has sold his brick building on Willamette street, just across the alley from the Hotel Smeede, to Mr. Smith, who resides on West Fourth street, the purchase price being $7500. This building is occupied by a short order restaurant on the lower floor and office rooms on the second floor. The front of the new Patterson brick on East Ninth street was given a coat of cement today.

Fred Walldad, the Turkish tamale-vender, today received from Portland a small house on wheels that he will use in which to sell his tamales. A carload of cement for T. H. Ellis was received from Portland today. Hon. Allen Eaton states that he will soon make formal announcement of his candidacy for re-election to the legislature. He will stand on Statement No. 1, as he did two years ago, and relies on the endorsement of his record in the last legislature for support in the Republican primaries and at the election by the voters regardless of party.

The large auditorium of the Baptist church was crowded last night to witness a most beautiful and impressive baptismal service. An unusual feature was the large number of men. A goodly number will be baptized next Sunday night. New members are being received at every service, as a result of the recent revival meetings. The Eugene church lacks only a few members of being the second largest Baptist church in Oregon, and in another month this church will occupy the second place.
