ARMORY BILL PENDING AT JUNE ELECTION

Referring to the bill passed by the last legislature to appropriate $25,- 000 a year for four years to build armories for the National Guard of the State, which will be submitted to the people for approval or rejection at the coming election, it seems pertinent to inquire if the people understand the terms of the bill and the necessity that exists for this appropriation. The increase of values in the State is such that it is almost impossible for companies, outside of Portland, where a fine armory has been provided by Multnomah county, to find decent housing for the amount allotted by the State for company expenses. Many armories now used are mere barns, wholly unfit for their purpose. The United States government is now furnishing nearly all of the military equipment for the State troops, amounting annually to more than fifteen thousand dollars and every captain is responsible under his bond for over $2,000 of U. S. property which he has no means of properly caring for, and which when lost, either he or the State will have to pay for; a great deal of this property has already unaccountably disappeared, for under these circumstances to hold an officer financially responsible for all the property issued him and yet provide him no adequate means of protecting or caring for it does not seem to the lay mind to be right or just. The money provided for in this bill is more of a loan than an outright appropriation as it provides that rent shall be paid to the State by each company for use of the armory. The companies to be provided with armories under this act are now paying about $5000 a year in rents which will in about thirty years time return the whole amount to the state treasury. It is the policy of the Military Board that every town where a company exists the ground shall be provided for by the citizens of that town and when completed the building and ground will belong to the state and increase in value with the increase of population and business, so that in the end, the State will lose nothing and may make money on the transaction.

The way in which the money is provided, $25,000 a year, makes it an appreciable tax which no one person can possibly feel, while the benefit to the state will be enormous.

The State Militia is not only a school for instruction in the military art and preparation for war, but it is one of the very best schools for good citizenship. There is hardly a citizen in the State but what would have been benefited and his character and usefulness increased by serving a term in the State Guard. To the rising generation this kind of schooling is of immense value, besides this, the defense of the country must rest on the people. When these buildings are completed they will greatly benefit the state guard. The armories will be their homes, their military club rooms, where they not only meet and drill, but can hold their games and athletic exercises and social functions, so necessary to keep up interest and enthusiasm in the unpaid military forces. Congress will never provide a sufficient army to relieve them from that necessity and our people should take the same pride the Swiss do in seeing to it that every man liable to military duty is armed and trained to meet any emergency that may arise, and the National Guard is the only place to do it. Instead of hampering and discouraging the men who are patriotic enough to give their time to this preparation and so make themselves of inestimable value to the community when trouble does come, the people should encourage and aid them in every possible way.

In the report of the Adjutant General of the United States Army to the Secretary of War the following in-reference to Armories is here copied: "It is evident that to obtain and maintain a high degree of efficiency in the militia, provision must be made for the housing and comfort of the troops, as well as for their equipment and instruction. The Militia of the several states and territories and of the district of Columbia has been armed and equipped and has been provided with ammunition, clothing, and tentage by the federal government, and at the last session of Congress provision was made for the equipment, construction, and maintenance of shooting galleries and ranges. In view of all this, it does not appear to be unreasonable to expect the States to provide facilities for the training of the militia and for the care and preservation of the arms, uniforms, and equipments furnished by the general government.

HOBOS EAT HAY SOAKED WITH BOOZE

Martin McLaughlin of Hammond, Or., near Fort Stevens, is bringing suit against the Astoria Columbia River railroad for the cash value of 56 gallons of whisky which was let out of the barrel during transportation from Portland to Hammond.
McLaughlin contends that the barrel was smashed by rough handling.
The railroad company maintains that the barrel was defective. At any rate, the booze was lost—56 gallons of it.

According to one story the barrel was tossed from the freight car onto a couple of bales of hay. When the barrel hit the hay the bottom smashed in and the hay was drenched with $2.25 whisky. During the following night the hobos gathered from far and near like the assemblage of crawfish around a carcass and not only lapped up all the booze, but ate all the hay. In consequence, McLaughlin wants damages.

ATTEMPTED HOLDUP AT THE HOTEL GROSS NIGHT CLERK PARKER BLUFFS HOLD (?) HIGHWAYMAN WITH INTENT UPON ROBBING HOTEL OFFICE

A lone highwayman attempted to hold up P. C. Parker, night clerk at the Hotel Gross, this morning shortly before 3 o'clock. Parker was in the office, standing near the stove, talking to another man, when suddenly the front door of the office was thrown open and there stood a rough-looking character with a red bandana over his face. He had a pistol in his hand and ordered the clerk to throw up his hands, but Parker, instead of complying, put his hand in his coat pocket and pointed toward the highwayman as though he had a gun in his pocket, said, "Don't do anything like that." The earnestness of Parker's manner evidently frightened the would-be hold-up artist, and he fled out the door and down the street.

NEW ANTI-TOXIN FOUND.

The Germans have found an antitoxin for the "business germ." They claim that it will transform any man of sluggish and slothful habits into an energetic person to whom the "ired feeling" is unknown. This is the reduction of the germ theory to its logical absurdity. Germs are not the only cause of disease. Germs simply multiply in depleted or diseased tissue.—Saturday Evening Post.

Occasionally seals the fate of germs by restoring the proper circulation of the bodily fluids that are alone capable of impairing the diseased tissue.
Does it not seem like the correct and rational method?
