THE LUXURY OF WAR GROWS MORE EXPENSIVE

People who wish to have universal disarmament brought about through national disarmament are again disappointed.

The Fresno (Cal.) Republican, in commenting upon this subject, says that England did, indeed, take a leading part in the Hague conference.

Perhaps guilty consciences are responsible for the editorial space devoted to prove that "Thou shalt not steal" does not apply to kisses.

Still, to get right down to the heart of things, if something's got to be sleek this year, most people would a heap sight rather it be the political campaign than business.

At the home of W. T. Carney at Thurston, March 25, 1908, Harley B. Carney and Miss Lulu E. Hart, Rev. Geo. W. Ellis officiating.

In Eugene, March 22, 1908, to Fred M. Marsters and wife, a son.

Notice is hereby given that the annual election for city officers will be held in Eugene on Monday, April 6, 1908, at which time there is to be elected one councilman for each ward, all for the term of two years.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Shisler were at Coberg on a short visit Monday. Prof. F. P. Cooper was at Eugene on a short visit the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Couch returned from Eugene Thursday last Thursday, where they had been for where they had been for a couple of weeks visit with relatives and friends.

Miss Fannie Colvin, of Eugene, formerly a teacher in our public schools, was here Sunday last, paying friends a short visit.

Mrs. G. L. Humfrey, of Marcola, was here Sunday last, visiting at the home of her father, M. H. Hearn.

Gen. H. Taylor, of Eugene, was here the latter part of last week, visiting with relatives and friends and looking after some business matters.

minimum of five years. And there are men who acquired fortunes by extortion and blackmail and some of the courts are doing all they can to see that they are not punished at all for their crimes.

After all that is said and done, it is the American product that wins. As proof of this witness the run across the continent of the automobiles in the race from New York to Paris.

Steve Elkins, senator and multimillionaire, has been known to display an ugly grouch upon a lesser provocation than having to divide his coin with an impoverished actor of Italian royalty.

It would be going beyond any knowledge we have to say that some members of the house are more anxious to discredit Congressman Lilley than to show up any submarine lobbying that may have been done.

Though most people believe there is and has been for years a well-paid submarine lobby in Washington, the house investigation committee has been unable to find any lobbyists, although a number of witnesses have acknowledged being employed as "counsel" by the boat company.

Senator Raynor, of Maryland, declined second place on the Bryan ticket when it was tendered to him by Senator Beveridge; but that's no reason that he would do the same with a tender from the Denver convention.

COMMITTEE WILL BE OUT TO SOLICIT STOCK SUBSCRIPTIONS NEXT WEEK—MORE LIGHTS FOR WILLAMETTE STREET

ARBOR DAY COMES APRIL 13 IN OREGON

Arbor day occurs in Oregon, this year on April 13, and it will probably be observed this year more generally than ever before.

In order to encourage teachers and pupils in improving school grounds, Superintendent Ackerman has arranged to secure photographs of some of the best kept grounds in each county and to keep these pictures on display in his office.
