JUDGES SAY RUEF WILL GET IMPARTIAL TRIAL

San Francisco, April 1.—Counter affidavits by Judge Frank H. Dunne and Judge Maurice T. Dooling, in reply to the affidavit of Abraham Ruef seeking to disqualify Judge Dooling from presiding at Ruef's trial, were read in the superior court today. Dunne averred he had never discussed Ruef's case with Dooling, that the latter had never said anything to him to lead any person to believe he had any ill will. Dooling stated that he has no bias or prejudice, and that Ruef will have a fair and impartial trial before him.

S. Y. Abbott has let the contract to J. R. Chezem for the erection of a cottage on his vacant lot on Washington street, between West Second and West Third.

The district fair board and the county fair committee will meet in the Rodman real estate office tonight to see how many lots have been sold and to prepare for the drawing.

C. W. Young was today appointed by Judge Chrisman administrator of the estate of Samuel Ashley, who died in September, 1896. The value of the property is estimated at $800.

W. R. P. L. please take notice that they are to meet at the Eugene theatre Thursday morning at 9:30. All members be sure and attend. By order of the president, Anna J. Calkins.

Lieutenant W. G. White, of Company A, leaves tonight for Portland to purchase two billiard tables for the Military Club, which will be placed in the reception room at the armory.

J. R. Chezem will build L. O. Beckwith's one-story concrete business building on East Seventh street. Work will start as soon as the old buildings are moved off the lot, which will be within a few days.

Professor H. C. Baughman, of Springfield, will make the race at the primaries for the Republican nomination of county school superintendent. His petition is being prepared and will be filed at once.

John Dillard, formerly of the post-office force, has accepted a position in the Eugene Loan & Savings Bank. This is the second postoffice clerk to go to work there during the past two years.

C. P. Houston was today appointed administrator of the estate of his mother, Mrs. Mary J. Houston, who died November 6, 1907. The estimated value of the property of the estate is $800.

A message was received here from E. E. McClanahan this morning, stating that M. L. Sommerville would arrive here with the remains of his wife Friday evening. The funeral will probably be held Saturday.

Students of the University are inviting relatives and friends from out of town to visit them during the musical festival, which promises to be the greatest event socially as well as musically that Eugene will have to her credit for this season.

Moon & Tingley will at once close out their flour and feed business and will devote their entire time and attention to hardware, machinery and vehicles. They will soon give up the west half of their building to the new Grand theatre.

Work on the interior of the new Hullin block on East Ninth street is being rushed. E. T. Condon, who will occupy the lower floor with his bakery, will vacate his present quarters by the first of May, and the room will be ready for him at that time.
