CITY NEWS

The regular meeting of the Lane County Medical Society will be held tonight.

Rev. D. E. Baker is home from Dorona, where he recently organized a Baptist church with eighteen members.

Among the carload shipments into Eugene this morning was a carload of oil for the Standard Oil Company's agency here.

J. O. Watts and son Charles left this morning for Seattle to learn the art of engraving on jewelry. They expect to be gone some time.

T. H. Ellis this morning began the construction of a cement walk in front of J. D. Matlock's old frame building on West Eighth street.

J. M. Talley and family, who went to Hermiston several months ago to reside, have decided to return to Eugene. Their household goods arrived this morning.

The county clerk's office was open here 7:30 and 9 o'clock last night for the registration of voters, and will be open between the same hours tonight.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. will meet in I. O. O. F. hall Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock for the purpose of attending the funeral of Mrs. Emma E. Bray. By order of the president.

The work of surfacing the crushed rock on East Eight street was begun this morning and the work of laying the pavement will begin early next week if the present good weather holds out.

Henry Holmbeck also concluded to build a cement walk in front of his lot near the depot, and it will be built at the same time as those of W. Andrews and W. Polders. T. H. Ellis has the job.

Since the county court issued an order a month ago that it would pay $2.50 for each coyote, wildcat, cougar and wolf scalp brought in, there have been eight or ten paid, mostly on wildcats. One coyote scalp came today.

S. S. Range, proprietor of the Electric theatre, expects to have his new nickelodeon in the Coleman building ready to open to the public next Saturday night. He will name it the "Dregmland." The front will be an elaborately and prettily finished as that of the Electric theatre, and an electric piano will probably be installed to furnish the music. The place will contain opera chairs. A hundred persons may be seated at once.

Elder K. Bales, of the Church of Christ, will preach at Dempster's hall in Fairmount Sunday evening.

Klaus Skjelderud, a subject of the King of Norway, today filed with the county clerk his declaration of intention to become a citizen of Uncle Sam's domain.

Robert N. Griffin today can suit in the circuit court against the Jaxor Lumber Company to recover the sum of $212, alleged to be due on a logging contract. Thompson & Hardy are attorneys for the plaintiff.

The funeral of Mrs. Emma Bray will be held at the residence, 55 Washington street, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with interment in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. Rev. O. C. Bell, of the I. B. church, will conduct the services.
