

SOCIETY

W. L. Cheshire, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fisher, Mrs. Emma Johnson, Finch was the name of the evening.

Mrs. W. C. Moran was hostess this week, on Thursday afternoon, to the Thimble club and two invited guests, Mrs. W. G. Allen and Mrs. A. T. Terrell. Miss Libby Moran and Miss Lillian Moran assisted the hostess in serving. At the conclusion of the club meeting Mrs. Moran entertained Mr. and Mrs. Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Terrell at lunch.

A pretty Easter luncheon was given on Friday afternoon to Mrs. R. Welch at her home, 73 East Seventh street. An Easter rabbit adorned the center of the table and the place cards bore Easter greetings. The invited guests were the Messdames W. L. Souders, Sidney Sladden, Laura Harris, E. E. Mink, C. H. Fisher, David Link, W. W. Calkins, L. G. A. G., and E. M. Broom, Chehalis, Wash.

On last Saturday night Miss Belle Keeney entertained the teachers of the Geary school at the home of Nettie Kray.

Senator Fulton was given the opportunity to meet a large number of our citizens, both ladies and gentlemen, on Thursday afternoon, at the reception given in his honor by the Commercial Club. The club rooms had been beautifully decorated for the occasion by the ladies of the Women's Republican Patriotic League, with Oregon grape, wild currant and Aurantina.

At Cottage Grove, Mrs. W. E. Compton, assisted by Messdames Van Winkle and Wheeler, gave Mr. Compton a surprise Monday evening in honor of that gentleman's birthday. A pleasant evening was spent by the guests in the pursuit of interesting parlor games and the discussion of a delicious luncheon. Those present and invited were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Terren, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Rosenbergs, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Abrams, Mr. and Mrs. Van Winkle, and Mrs. F. B. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Connor, Mr. and Mrs. A. Brund, Mr. and Mrs. Macey, A. S. Nickle, Mr. and Mrs. C. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lakin, Mr. and Mrs. Simer, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Benson.

Last Thursday Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Abrams entertained a whist party at their home on River street in honor of Mrs. Lillian Kraugerer, nee Lurch, who is at present visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Lurch, in this city. Those present were: Mrs. Lillian Kraugerer, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. F. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Redley, Mr. and Mrs. B. Lurch and Miss Lurch.—Western Oregon.

Mrs. E. E. Mink was given a pleasant birthday surprise on Thursday evening. The ladies walked in on Mrs. Mink, bringing their refreshments and a beautiful work-basket filled with candy, as a token for the hostess. At the conclusion of Senator Fulton's address the gentlemen came and passed the remainder of the evening. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Calkins, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Cockerline, Dr. and Mrs.

JUNCTION CITY

The little daughter of Frank Turpitt, while engaged in play Tuesday, fell and broke her leg between the knee and ankle. Dr. Ruff reduced the fracture.

The parties who so far forgot their manhood to hang an effigy of Marshal Dial on the bank building, east of the Commercial Club, are now under greater reflection on themselves than on their intended victim. Mr. Dial may have his faults and who, by the way, has not, but he is an old man and has spent the best years of his life in the defense of his country. The perpetrators were in a small business.

H. C. Roberts, the jeweler, has taken a partner in the person of W. F. Cranston. A new stock of goods will be ordered and everything usually found in a jewelry store will be on hand. We wish the new firm success. Mr. Cranston will continue in the real estate business and can always be found ready to show would-be purchasers over the country.

Ballard & Prettyman have disposed of their gun store to the Messrs. Swartz. This new firm is uncertain as to the style of firm name, but it will either be A. L. Swartz & Son or the Swartz Gun Store. We wish the new firm all kinds of success. Ray Swartz is a natural genius and can name anything that is broken.

A good deal of excitement was caused in the north part of town Saturday over the disappearance of Paul, the five-year-old son of S. S. Snell. He disappeared about noon and by 4 o'clock the whole town was aroused. It was feared that he had fallen into the lake and was drowned. Preparations were made to drag the lake when the little fellow was discovered under the house asleep. He had been asleep for hours, and as he was last seen in the neighborhood of the lake, it gave rise to anxiety on the part of his parents.—Times.

A NOTRE DAME LADY'S APPEAL.

To all knowing sufferers from rheumatism, whether muscular or of the joints, sciatica, lumbago, backache, pains in the kidneys or neuralgia, please to write to her for a home treatment that has repeatedly cured all of these tortures. She feels it her duty to send it to all sufferers FREE. You cure yourself at home, as thousands will testify—no change of climate being necessary. This simple discovery banishes uric acid from the blood, loosens the stiffened joints, purifies the blood and brightens the eyes, giving elasticity and tone to the whole system. If the above interests you, for proof address Mrs. M. Summers, Box B, Notre Dame, Ind.

FINE SOLOISTS TO APPEAR

Four Eastern Singers with Chicago Symphony Orchestra

Seats are now selling at Burden & Graham's show store, 22 Willamette street, between Eighth and Ninth streets, for the great spring musical festival given by the Eugene Oratorio Society at Villard hall, on the nights of April 12 and 15, and afternoon of the 15th. This will be the greatest musical offering ever made in the Northwest to a community no larger than that represented by Eugene and its contiguous territory. Cities of the size of Portland, Seattle, Tacoma and Spokane often can offer an attraction as large as this attraction, but for an organization in a city no larger than Eugene to offer to the musical festivals. The general sale opens Monday, April 6th, at 9 a. m., at the box office at Burden & Graham's. Phone Black 5431.

rons of good music a feature like the Chicago Symphony orchestra in a festival series of three concerts is well-nigh unparalleled in the history of musical achievement.

With this famous aggregation of artists will appear four celebrated vocal soloists from the East, Mrs. Genevieve Clark Wilson, soprano; Mrs. Rose Lutiger Gannon, alto; John B. Miller, tenor, and Arthur Middleton, bass.

Among the instrumental soloists are Jan Van Ord, violinist, and Franz Wagner, cellist. Added to the above galaxy of stars will be the vocal chorus of 175 voices of the Eugene Oratorio Society that has been rehearsing for three months under the direction of Professor I. M. Glen. This unusual combination of vocal and instrumental musicians will render Gaul's "Holy City," the great oratorio written originally for the famous Birmingham festival of England, and Dudley Buck's "Golden Legend," the prize symphonic cantata for one of the great Cincinnati mu-

He Got What He Needed.

"Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says C. F. Chang, of Mill Creek, Ind. Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread." It was then that my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed at length. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at W. A. Keykendall's drug store, 50c.

NEWS OF INTEREST FROM SPRINGFIELD

Joan Jinks, the old reliable tonorial artist, who has for many years held a chair in the different shops in Springfield until recently, has bought out C. A. Prior, becoming a partner of Henry McCullum.

The first match game of baseball of the season will be played next Sunday on the local diamond between the Pleasant Hill nine and a bunch of home boys, consisting partly of the high school team.

We have it from a reliable source that the S. P. Company is moving the old depot and material from the old depot to Eugene in order to erect a more commodious depot at the junction to handle the rapidly increasing business over the main line through Springfield.

Miss Oa Bossmer returned last Saturday from Salem, where she has been during the past month assisting in taking care of C. H. Pickett's parents. Mr. Pickett, who has been very ill for some time, is reported much improved.

A. J. Perkins informs us that he has purchased the Milo Taylor residence at the corner of North D and Fifth streets. He says that he will eventually move the house to another location and some during the summer will erect a fine residence for his own use.

The firm of Flegat & Gerhard have secured a lease on the Old Fellows' building, known as the Opera house, of the H. M. Stewart old quarters, and are getting things in readiness to move their stock. They will make some needed improvements in the interior of the building. This will make a much better location and also give them more room.

Grand Roberts returned home from Salem Sunday, where he has been employed in one of the leading drug stores since the first of the year. He expects to remain in Springfield for about two weeks, when he has a higher position in view. He has not returned to Salem, as he says the News queered him there. For the article that appeared in the News some two weeks ago was republished in the Statesman, and as a result the old maid got to chasing him so hard that in order to save himself from a breach of promise he thought it best to leave town. He said that he promised to marry at least a dozen times.

DON'T BLAME HER

For she cannot help it. Women are often cross, irritable, hysterical, and declare they are driven to distraction at the slightest provocation. Men cannot understand why they should be so. To them it is a mystery because in nine times out of ten this condition is caused by a serious feminine ailment.

LYDIA E. PINKETTS' VEGETABLE COMPOUND

The following letter serves to prove this:

Mrs. Mattie Copenhagen, 25 St. Patrick, Kans., writes: "For two years I suffered from the most agonizing female troubles that medicine would relieve. Dr. B. Pinkett's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkett's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been standard remedy for female troubles. It has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, neuritis, abdominal tumors, irregular menstruation, backache, indigestion, nervousness, headache, dizziness, nervous prostration, and all the ailments that attend the female system. Why don't you try it?
