MAY NOT SEND TEAM TO COLUMBIA MEET

UNIVERSITY COUNCIL THINKS IT NOT ADVISABLE FOR MEN TO COMPETE

The University athletic council Saturday decided that it would not be best for Oregon to enter a team in the Columbia indoor meet at Portland, April 11, for various important reasons which it did not care to give much amazed at the action, and are much amused at this action and are wondering what the cause can be.

The council decided to leave the entire matter in the hands of the track manager, O. R. Bean, and everything depends on him as to whether Oregon will be represented in the meet. It is rumored on the campus that particulars will be given out in a few days that will create quite a stir in athletic circles of the Northwest.

Tryout Held.

Trainer Hayward Saturday afternoon tried out the varsity athletes to pick a team to represent Oregon in the meet. It was decided to take part in the Columbia meet.

The time in most of the events was shown to be fast, for the weather and the tracks were excellent, but Hayward would not disclose the records of results:

50-yard dash—Woods, Bowen, Moon.

Half-mile—Dodson, Downs, Say.

220-yard dash—Reid, Moon, Overteuffer.

Mile—Downs, Stevers, Riddell.

Broad jump—Kuykendall, Huston, Bristow.

Pole vault—Moullen, Roberts.

Shot put—McIntrye, Zacharias, Moullen.

50-yard hurdle—Squires and Kuykendall.

Twenty dead-head candidates for the 440 and high jump will try out this week, Wednesday.

SMITH HAS SUED SENATOR FULTON FOR $5000 DAMAGES

Salem, Or., April 4.—Papers were filed today in a slander suit in which J. S. Smith, ex-warden of the penitentiary, brings suit against Senator Fulton for $5,000 damages. The suit grows out of the campaign statement made by the senator in answer to Heney. The papers were served on Fulton tonight.

Senator Fulton refused to make any statement. He said that he would rather keep quiet until he had learned just what the suit meant.

Smith was mentioned in the controversy between Fulton and Heney as the man "who would not stay bought," according to Senator Fulton's alleged interview which was quoted by Heney in his speeches. Fulton said that Smith told a falsehood when he said that he did not take money to vote for former Senator Mitchell and then "throw the old man."

YOUNG FORGER SENT TO REFORM SCHOOL

Ellis Vaughn, the 17-year-old boy who was arrested in Eugene Saturday charged with forging a check on the First National bank, signing W. A. Foster's name to it and passing it at Hosellon's cigar store, was committed to the state reform school by Judge Chrisman, of the juvenile court, this morning. He will be taken to Salem on this evening's train. The boy is a son of Robert Vaughn, of Walterville, who was in town today. The boy had never before done anything of the kind and has always been considered steady.

O. A. C. DEBATERS WIN FROM McMINNVILLE

Corvallis, Or., April 4.—The debate between McMinnville and O. A. C. was held last night in the armory in this city. The O. A. C. team was awarded the unanimous decision, the question being "Resolved, that labor unions, as at present organized and managed, have been beneficial to the United States." O. A. C. was represented by John Wendler, John Darling and E. R. Bond, and McMinnville by Hass, McCoy and Tillotson. The judges were E. Woodle, of Portland; President Schmidt, of Albany College, and President Campbell, of Monmouth State Normal. This is the third debate won by O. A. C. this season. The others were with Willamette University and Monmouth normal.

ROSEBURG MAN ANXIOUS TO MARRY

Roseburg, Or., April 4.—Earl Smith, who is an eccentric bachelor of this city, aged 55, today did not deny that he was the man mentioned in the Chicago dispatches as asking the Peoria, Ill., postmaster to assist him in securing a wife. Recently he wrote his biography and circulated it among the young ladies of the county, but failed to secure a mate he desired by this system. He is now supposed to have searched out a wider field. He owns a ranch near here.
