SPLENDID LECTURE BY DR. BROUGHER

LARGE AUDIENCE GREETS HIM AT BAPTIST CHURCH—SUBJECT WAS "WHAT'S UNDER YOUR HAT"

The auditorium of the Baptist church was filled last night to hear Dr. J. W. Brougher's lecture on "What's Under Your Hat?" The lecturer was in his happiest mood, caused doubtless by the enthusiastic greeting of his friends who had formed the warmest affection for him during the revival meetings of a month ago. Whatever may have been the cause of the happy mood the people last night were the beneficiaries and listened to one of the best lectures ever delivered in Eugene. The lecture was a setting forth in words of how to make life a noble success, and all felt the added power of the lecture because the speaker, in his own brilliantly successful life, incarnated the theories advocated. For an hour and a half the audience laughed or with hushed stillness seriously thought or resolved under dramatic appeal to enter the game of life to win. Eugene people will always welcome Dr. Brougher and covet an early privilege of hearing him again.

CASE AGAINST FORD IS DISMISSED

The case of the State vs. William L. Ford, charged with violating the local option law, came up in the justice court at Springfield this afternoon. Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Skipworth representing the state and L. M. Travis the defendant. A demurrer to the complaint was filed by Attorney Travis and sustained by the justice of the peace. There is another case against Ford, however, and it will come up in the same court next Monday. A motion for a change of venue has been filed, but it has not yet been acted upon.

In Estimating the Safety of a bank, it is always well to remember that the Capital and Surplus, in other words, the bank's own money, is that which gives security to the depositors.
The recently increased capital of this bank, now $100,000, fully paid, is exceeded by but three banks in the state of Oregon, and is twice the amount required by the state banking law for cities of this size or larger.
This capital and the Surplus, forms a fund of $125,000.00 that insures absolute security to those who entrust their money to us.
We always have on hand a large reserve for the accomodation of customers desiring loans and now carry 70 per cent of our demand deposits in available cash, being more than four times the reserve required by law!
Sixteen years of experience and usefulness to the people of this county, prove that this bank deserves your patronage.

Contagious diseases, 13—Diphtheria, 1; smallpox, 12.

CITY NEWS

The appraisers of the estate of Alice Shaw, deceased, have filed their inventory with the probate court. They found property valued at $1,762.

A carload of household goods for Dr. E. S. Fletcher, who recently arrived here from Eau Claire, Wis., and bought property here, arrived yesterday.

Warner W. Brown, assistant cashier of the Eugene Loan & Savings Bank, will erect a fine residence on the vacant lot north of J. A. Seavey's residence on Lincoln street this summer.

C. S. Freeland is clearing away the ground for the erection of his apartment house at the corner of East Ninth and High streets. It will be two stories high and 60x80 feet in dimensions.

Clarence Bailey, of Myrtle Creek, was discharged from the Eugene hospital today and he left for his home on the afternoon train. He has been suffering from an affliction of the lower limbs.

Albany Democrat: Charles Welch has let the contract to B. F. Thayer for a one-story six-room cottage, with basement, on the corner adjoining Mr. Welch's present home. It will cost nearly $2000.

Charles Mayhew underwent an operation at the Eugene hospital yesterday for appendicitis. Dr. T. W. Harris performed the operation. Charles is getting along very well and expects to be stronger than ever when he recovers.

The W. R. C. will give a basket social in the G. A. R. hall in the theatre block Saturday night. Each lady is requested to bring a basket containing an ample lunch and her name enclosed. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Policeman Graham jailed a drunk last night, but as no one appeared to prosecute him, Chief Farrington turned him loose at noon today. The fellow created a disturbance at Griffin's restaurant and broke out a glass window.

The Commercial Club of Eugene has received from Chief Engineer Boschke a water color sketch of the S. P. Company's new depot in Eugene, and it will be placed on exhibition in the lounging room of the club for inspection by the public.

The death is announced of Stanley D. Herbert, of [illegible], California. Mrs. Herbert was [illegible] ly Miss Gertrude Barclay, formerly, and was well known in Corvallis. She was a sister of Mrs. W. O. Heckart, of this city, who left last night to attend the funeral.

Supplementary articles of incorporation of the [illegible] Twin Rocks Gold Mining and Milling Company were filed with the county clerk this morning. The articles allow the changing of the principal place of business of the corporation from Corvallis to Cottage Grove. The capital stock is $1,500,000.

The S. P. block signal crew arrived here this morning to rebuild the system from Pearl street to the Geary school. The poles for the system were removed to make room for the new passing track, and since then the wires have been on the telegraph poles. The signal poles will be erected along the south line of the company's property.

The special term of circuit court convenes tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Among the cases to come up is that of the State vs. G. M. Whitson, the former traveling salesman who obtained money under false pretenses by passing several bad checks on the Hotel Smeede and the Chambers Hardware Company. This is the man who was arrested at Walla Walla and brought back several weeks ago.

A good-sized audience witnessed the vaudeville performance at the Eugene theatre last night and were well entertained. There were a number of clever specialties, and the rifle shooting exhibition by Sam Brooks, assisted by Mlle. Vera and his trained dog, was little short of marvelous. This feature alone would have made the show a success. The company will appear again tonight, and popular prices to all parts of the house will prevail.

Albany Democrat: H. J. Clark was down from Cottage Grove today and ordered some brick of J. S. Morgan to complete a couple of brick blocks at that city. He reports a good deal of building this year all through the valley. Mr. Clark will probably be a bidder on the big Elks' block, the contract for which will be let about the 20th. He helped build quite a number of Albany's prominent bricks twenty or thirty years ago, including the Odd Fellows' temple.

Sheriff Fisk is of the opinion that the man arrested by Deputy Sheriffs Hammond and Croner Sunday is not the one wanted for the murder of Julius Wallande at Silver Lake, yet he has not evidence enough to turn him loose, and is waiting further word from Lake county. Peterson, as the fellow gives his name, is in a bad shape both mentally and physically, and he will be kept in jail till he gets better, whether he is the man wanted or not.

The work on the addition to the First National Bank building was begun this morning under the direction of W. O. Heckart. The first work to be done will be the building of a false wall between the present quarters of the bank and the room adjoining, so that while the brick wall is being torn out the dirt and trash will not interfere with the work of the bank. The stairway will be moved to the north side of the building, next to Friendly's store, and the entrance to the bank will be doubled in size. The front of the building adjoining the bank's quarters will be taken out and a second story added.

REGISTRATION CLOSES FOR THE PRIMARIES

Registration for the primaries close this evening at 5 o'clock. Registrar McFarland has not had a chance to make a count for several days on acount of the rush of the closing hours, but he thinks the total for the primaries will be larger than the total for both elections two years ago. As usual, there are a large number of voters who put off registering until the last moment, just the same as they do everything else in life.

MAY PAVE WEST EIGHTH STREET OUT TO BLAIR

A petition is being circulated among the property owners on West Eighth street from Charnelton to Blair, asking the city to order that portion of the street paved. It is said a majority of the owners have signed the paper and the circulators are confident of securing the required number of signers. The present contract with the Warren Construction Campany calls for the paving of the street as far west as Charnelton and the work will be done within the next few weeks. If the remainder of the street to Blair street is ordered paved, it will make eight blocks for West Eighth street. There will be three blocks of the pavement on East Eighth street.

ROYALTY MEETS TO FIX PRICE ELKINS MUST PAY

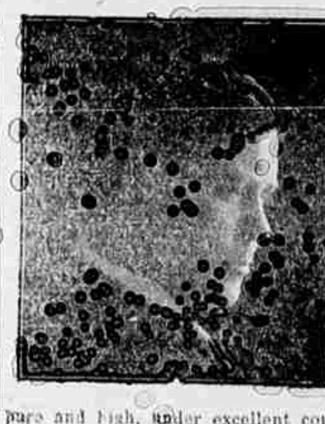
Rome, April 7.—The Duke of Aosta arrived today and will breakfast with the King. Duke of Abruzzi and Count of Turin, after which there will be a family conference relative to arranging the marriage engagement between the Duke of Abruzzi and Miss Elkins. Although not officially confirmed as to the reported engagement, the rumor has been confirmed that it is the intention of the Duke to return to the United States shortly.

GREAT NORTHERN GUILTY OF REBATING

New York, April 7.—The Great Northern Railway Co. was convicted of granting rebates to the American Sugar Refining Co. by a jury in the United States circuit court today and sentence will be imposed by Judge Holt. The shipments on which the rebates were paid were made to Sioux City in 1902 and the rebates were paid in 1904.

JOHN B. MILLER.

Tenor Soloist Who Appears at the Eugene Musical Festival, April 14-15.



For the past five years, John B. Miller, of Chicago, has been one of the leading American tenors. No oratorio tenor in the country has received more enthusiastic treatment at the hands of musical writers than Mr. Miller. He has an extensive repertoire and his artistic standing is definitely and permanently established.

As an interpreter of oratorio he is in every way equipped—vocally, artistically and mentally. With a voice that is celar, steady and true, he grasps the meaning of the different solos and translates them successfully to his hearers.

Mr. Miller's voice is genuine tenor, pure and high, under excellent control and at all times remarkable for its tone quality. He sings authoritatively and the opportunity to hear this glorious tenor which the Eugene Oratorio Society offers to music lovers of the upper valley is indeed a rare one.

The choral works chosen for production at the festival next week are most admirably adapted to bring out Mr. Miller's best efforts. In the Holy City on Tuesday night, April 14, he has several beautiful solo numbers, while in the "Golden Legend" on Wednesday night, he has not only exquisite solo numbers, but trio and duet work of great dramatic power and impressiveness.

The festival this year will not be handicapped by inefficient soloists, but in addition to the great orchestra that has been secured to accompany the chorus it presents a peerless array of soloists. The whole arrangement is on a most ambitious scale and deserves the hearty support that it is securing. Remember the dates and the place—Villard Hall, April 14-15.

Poyner & Hunt are moving B. F. Goodpasture's residence on Willamette street, near Twelfth, to one side and a fine new house will be built there.
