THE WEAK AND THE STRONG

The hopeful man sees good wherever his glances fall;
The hopeless one finds everywhere gloom over all;
The hopeful man has strength to dare; the doubting one,
When darkness overspreads the sky,
Sits down to wearily whine or sigh, with nothing done.

Be brave to have the hope they used who press ahead;
Be weak that they have who heed the voice of dread;
They are the strong ones who proceed by courage led;
The cowardly alone admit however hard they may be hit, that hope is dead.
—S. E. Kiser.

OREGON ELECTRIC MAY BE BUILT TO COOS BAY

Discussing the railroad situation, affecting Coos Bay, the Marshfield Bay Times has the following:

But there are other rumors which seem to have some foundation beneath them. One of these is that the Seat Northern or Hill interests are building southward under cover and have already built a standard gauge electric line from Portland to Salem.

Yes; the man with a daughter or two can surely save them a lot of trouble by neglecting to pile up a few millions. And, between us, many of them are doing it, right in this town.

Florida, by gubernatorial appointment, now has a Milton in the senate, but he is not a poet, however—only a scatherer of shovels, commonly called a banker.

They do say that some of the most talkative men in congress are struck as dumb as claims when prohibition is brought into a conversation. Wonder why?

A timely warning: During the next six months never speak of any other man as the "whole show" in the hearing of the baseball editor.

ATTORNEY LOUIS E. BEAN LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATE
Louis E. Bean, who is a candidate for representative before the Republican primaries, is well equipped for the position he seeks.

Furthermore, Mr. Bean has been raised in Lane county, knows our people, their wants and wishes, knows the rough and the smooth personal acquaintance and business acquaintance among them.

THE SALTIN STATESMAN
The annual meeting of the Oregon State Association of Patrons of Husbandry will be held in Eugene in May, and the program of that part of the committee have been to make a preliminary arrangement for the reception of the large number of delegates and other members of the order that will be present.

a membership of 7187, and more names being added every month. The Patrons of Husbandry is one of the solid farmers' organizations of the country and is doing good work in behalf of the agricultural masses of the nation.

The figures of the engineers upon the cost of the Eugene water system are presented with a view to informing the voters upon a subject that will come up for decision at a special election, April 18. The figures show the position that the city can afford to pay considerably more than the actual value of the plant in order to clear the way for municipal ownership, guaranteeing needed improvements and extensions during the present year.

If there is any lingering doubt that there has been a universal rise in the cost of living it should be dispelled by perusal of consular reports from China, which show that "increased prices of provisions, meats and other current expenses are becoming a continual subject for newspaper discussion" in that country.

Twenty Illinois counties went dry yesterday, but Milwaukee for the fifth time elected David Rice mayor on a "personal liberty" platform, which literally construed means the right to imbibe without restraint the beverage that made Milwaukee famous.

A strenuous future, indeed, is that predicted for the newspapers by the prophet who says they'll all be manned by college grads some day. A staff of football artists ought to be rood on rush stories, and make a scrappy sheet.

Americans have been called many things by foreigners, but it remained for a member of the Italian chamber of deputies to call us "cannibals" because a dago was hung in Washington for brutally murdering a young girl.

They must be looking for better times in Wall street, as it is announced that the price of orchestra seats in the Metropolitan opera house will be advanced from $5 to $6 during the next grand opera season.

Harry Orchard would probably be the most astonished man in Idaho if his lawyer took him at his word and allowed him to be executed, instead of making the necessary move to get his sentence commuted.

No matter how strong the evidence may have been, the millionaire convict can always count of finding, after he gets out, a good bunch who will agree with him that his conviction was unjust.

Every once in a while somebody uses District Attorney Jerome for a punching bag, and instead of sympathizing with him the public makes a noise like "soak him again, and harder."

Yes; the man with a daughter or two can surely save them a lot of trouble by neglecting to pile up a few millions. And, between us, many of them are doing it, right in this town.

MISS JULIA MARLOWE.

Among America's stage beauties Julia Marlowe stands in the front rank, for she is considered one of the prettiest women connected with the legitimate stage. In England during her appearances with Southern the critics gave her unstinted praise both for her acting and her rare grace in classic roles.

HOP ACREAGE WILL BE LESS FOR 1908

According to Harry Schlosser, the hop acreage in Oregon this year will be less than last year. Mr. Schlosser says that from present indications growers will not raise so extensively this year, and he estimates that the acreage under cultivation this year in Oregon will be about 3,000 less than last year.

JUDGE WHITNEY OUT FOR CONGRESS

Judge J. J. Whitney, of Albany, who has been prevailed upon by the Democrats of the First congressional district to become a candidate for the Democratic nomination for congress, is planning to make a short campaign in order to bring himself clearly before the voters of this district.

DR. ANDREW TAYLOR STILL IMMORTAL

For the ailments peculiar to woman an Osteopathy is simply incomparable. It uses no drugs, seldom has recourse to the knife, and so the body is preserved intact and normal; it corrects adjustments, removing every obstruction to proper blood flow, proper drainage to parts, and adequate nerve supply. Thus it restores natural conditions which mean health. It has often been declared by prominent women well qualified to speak, that Osteopathy, even had it no other application than to the ills of woman, would have made Dr. A. T. Still immortal. As local treatments is not often necessary the system is much less embarrassing to women than are other methods.

Dr. H. L. Studley, osteopath, office over Chambers' Hardware store, Ferry Block 1324, Residence, 734 Perry street. Phone Red 3197.
