BARBER SHOPS WILL CLOSE AT SEVEN

Beginning on the 20th of this month the barber shops of Eugene will close at 7 o'clock each evening except on Saturday evening, when they will close at 10 o'clock, as at present. This decision was reached by the barbers at a meeting of the association held last evening. Herebefore the closing hour had been 8 o'clock, a very inconvenient one for the barbers if they wish to attend the theatre or any other place of amusement during the evening.

HARRIMAN'S MONEY SAVES MORGAN'S ROAD

New York, April 8.—While the destiny of the Erie railroad was trembling in the balance this afternoon the road's bankers having refused to meet its maturing short term notes in cash and the board of directors being in session to decide the company's future E. H. Harriman, president of the Union Pacific, stepped to the front with a personal offer of $5,000,000 in cash to save the Morgan property from default and a consequent receivership.

WANTED

The Woman's Relief Corps wants fifty young ladies each to bring a well-filled basket to their basket social Saturday evening, April 11. Then they want fifty young men to come and buy those fifty baskets. Everybody is invited. Come and have a good time and each lady bring a basket. Don't forget time and place, Saturday evening, April 11, at the G. A. R. hall.

COMMISSIONER PRICE

County Commissioner H. M. Price is a candidate for re-election, and is meeting with much encouragement and little opposition as the campaign progresses. His record during the past four years has been such that no opposing candidate has up to this time entered the field, and his unanimous endorsement at the primaries and election now seems more than likely.

PRESIDENT URGES LEGISLATION CURBING ANARCHY

has the particular case called to the attention of the governor of New Jersey by Secretary Root that the governor may proceed under the state laws. The opinion of the attorney-general which the president transmits to congress embraces the discussion of the whole subject from many angles.

His first conclusion is that the articles in question which advise the use of arms and dynamite for the purpose of annihilating the police and other officials in order that anarchy may prevail constitute a "seditious libel" and is undoubtedly "a crime at common law."

He declares that there is no federal statute which makes such publications an offense against the United States, and that the federal courts consequently have no jurisdiction in the matter. That there is full power in the possession of congress to make such publication criminal the attorney-general asserts and quotes Chief Justice Fuller of the supreme court, and Justice Field as authority.

The greater portion of his opinion is devoted to the question of whether in the absence of any legislation by congress the postmaster-general has any right to exclude such publications. On this point his conclusion is correct.

The postmaster-general will be justified in excluding from the mails any issue of a periodical or newspaper entitled to the privileges of second-class mail matter which shall contain any article constituting a seditious libel and counseling such crimes as murder, arson and treason.

In arriving at the latter conclusion the attorney-general makes a clear distinction with reference to the authority of postal officers over sealed and unsealed mail. In conveying letters and newspapers to persons to whom they are directed he says the United States "undertakes the business of a messenger."

He adds: "Insofar as it conveys sealed documents, its agents not only are bound not to know, but are expressly forbidden to ascertain what the purpose of such messages may be; therefore neither the government nor its officers can be held either legally or morally responsible for the nature of the letters to which they thus in intention ignorance afford transportation. But in the case of printed matter intended for general circulation, which by virtue of the statutes above mentioned, and in consideration of reduced rates at which it is transported the officers of the postoffice department have the legal right to thoroughly inspect, it seems obvious that neither these officers nor the government which employs them can escape responsibility for the conse-

THE PORTLAND FLOURING MILLS

Lots and Tracts in Blair Street Will Be Advanced April 15th

Only two of the acre tracts and two of the three-quarter acre tracts remain unsold, and there has been a good sale of lots. Several houses will be built in the addition this spring and summer, and other purchasers will set out shade and fruit trees. The property was priced very low to start with, and the sale and improvements made and contemplated justify an Advance of 10 Per Cent. on all unsold lots and tracts on April 15th. Blair Street Addition property will double in value in two years. It is the best investment in Eugene, because it is situated where the town must expand and grow.

Just as soon as the water runs down hill Eugene must grow down the main valley roads, where the electric roads will come up from Portland, and where the largest part of the city's business will always come from. If you want a home or wish to save money by investing it on easy installments in desirable real estate, you can't miss it in BLAIR STREET ADDITION. Small Cash Payment, and your own home on Blair.

Second street will be graded through the addition this spring--the time to buy one more of the large lots, 68 1/2 x 143 feet, is NOW--before the price is advanced.

Any of the following well-known and reliable real estate dealers will be glad to show you this property at any time.
