

THE EUGENE DAILY GUARD. PUBLISHED EVERY DAY OF THE WEEK, SUNDAYS EXCEPTED. ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS AND MAKE ALL REMITTANCES PAYABLE TO THE EUGENE GUARD, EUGENE, OREGON.

icular incident should be a warning to those who contemplate indulging in a party of this character. A recent utterance was attributed to Mr. Rockefeller while in Augusta, Georgia, to the effect that he was "going to be an old man now," but was "proud and glad" to say that he had never touched whisky in his life.

DR. C. F. STOKES OF THE NAVY.

The hospital ship Relief, which has been outfitting at Mare Island navy yard, will meet Admiral Evans' big fleet at Magdalena Bay. Her commander, Dr. C. F. Stokes, the first physician to command a United States naval vessel, is going about his business quietly and earnestly, paying no attention to the diplomatic rupture his selection caused at Washington.

BLACK HAND SOCIETY IS ONLY A MYTH

Gaetano d'Amato, former president of the United Italian Societies in New York, is the author of an article in the April number of the North American Review, entitled "The Black Hand Myth." Mr. d'Amato declares that it is a great mistake to suppose that there exists in New York or in any other part of the United States, or even Italy itself, an organization known as the Black Hand Society.

The matrimonial mix-ups of the Gould and Vanderbilt families have been crowding those of the other members of the swollen fortune hunt to the back of the stage of late, but they'll all get a chance, unless they reform.

Chancellor Day may be encouraged to try again by the unanimous decision of the New York conference that he was within his rights in abusing the president, though he may find it difficult to say anything worse than he has.

Tom Lawson is at it again and says he'll spend $1,000,000 in advertising his "Fair Finance." All right, Tom. A lot of the papers need the money, even if your new scheme hasn't as sensational head as your "Frenzied Finance" had.

Either Senator Martin, of Virginia, isn't a pink tea statesman, or he has been "stung." He has been making caustic remarks about the trouble and heartaches caused by bridge whist in the high society of Washington.

According to the Interstate Commerce Commission it would take three years and cost $3,000,000 to officially value all the railroad property in the United States. Is anybody trying to "sneak" anybody off?

In trying to head off that coal strike, the steel trust may have only been after getting on the roll of the good trusts, but all the same it will be entitled to credit for saving much suffering, if it succeeds.

If by one of the accidents of politics La Follette should be nominated by the Chicago convention, Bryan would have a lot of trouble dodging the strong endorsement he has given him.

Paris is glowering over a countless burglarious, whose exploits have put those of the most daring gentlemen burglars in eclipse. She burglarized everything, even to her title.

Tom Watson isn't anticipating that he'll be elected president this year, but he has shown that he knows how to utilize the advertising in his business.

Still, we trust that anxiety to take Castro down a peg or two will not lead to anybody getting the idea that we need Venezuela in our business.

HARRISBURG NOTES, LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Williams, on Lake creek, April 3, 1908, a daughter.

Charles Weaver, of Eugene, was looking after business matters here the latter part of last week.

Pearl Widener came down from Eugene the first of the week for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Widener, and numerous friends.

Harry Holt, who has been attending the Eugene Business College, has returned home, having completed the course he was taking.

Mrs. A. F. Knight, who has been here from Portland visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Gore, went to Eugene Saturday last for a short visit with relatives before returning to her home in the metropolis.

The controller of the currency at Washington has approved the application of Geo. J. Whelan, Samuel May, J. C. Sencars, T. J. Anderson and William H. Dale, of this city, for the organization of the First National Bank of Harrisburg, with a capital of $25,000.

The residence of W. D. Perkins, on the west side of the river, about a mile from this city, was destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon, together with most of the contents. The fire originated from the fire in the kitchen, and when discovered had gained such headway that all efforts to save anything from the burning building were futile.

He Got What He Needed. "Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says C. Farthing, of Mill Creek, Ind. Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then that my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at W. A. Kaykendall's drug store, 50c.
