DEMOCRATS ARE ASKED TO VOTE FOR JUDGE BEAN

The Guard has received the following circular letter from the Democratic State Central Committee: Portland, Or., April 11, '08.
Dear Sir:—
At the June election the proposed amendment to our state constitution will be voted upon and probably adopted, by which the Justices of the supreme court will be increased from three to five, and the two additional Justices will be selected at the November election. At a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee, held in Portland, January 18, 1908, by unanimous vote a resolution was adopted declaring in favor of making the judiciary of the state nonpartisan, thereby carrying out the plan initiated by Governor Chamberlain of selecting men for the various judicial offices with reference to the qualifications, regardless of their political affiliations. Under this resolution, Messrs. W. H. Holmes, of Salem, J. K. Weatherford, of Albany, and N. A. Peery, of Portland, all prominent attorneys and well known Democrats, were appointed as a committee to look into the question and to determine upon the best method of carrying the spirit of this resolution into effect.
After a full investigation of the subject this committee has reported in favor of electing the judiciary in such manner as to finally insure a proportional representation of each of the political parties upon the bench, and have decided that Mr. Chief Justice Bean should be nominated by all parties to succeed himself. He is the only nominee of the republican party, and his high standing as a jurist, and eminent standing as a citizen make it fitting and advisable that the Democracy of Oregon not only offer no opposition to his nomination, but as evidence of their allegiance, and to insure his election, place his name upon their ticket as well. Such course will arouse the people to the propriety of having a nonpartisan judiciary. After the principle is once established the Republicans of the state will have an opportunity of placing themselves on record in favor of this movement at the coming November election, when it is probable that under the proposed amendment two new Justices will have to be selected by the people to succeed the two commissioners, now sitting and, in effect, constituting a part of the court. For these reasons a name will be printed on the Democratic ballot to be used at the primaries on April 17th, and a blank will be left in which to write the name of the person to be nominated. In conformity to the wishes of the Democratic State and sub-committees, you are requested to write, and to cause all your Democratic friends to write, in this blank the name of Hon. Robert S. Bean, of Lane county, placing an X before the name, thus:
Vote for One,
"For Justice of the Supreme Court X Robert S. Bean, of Lane County."
In this manner his nomination by both parties, as well as his election, will be secured. We will then trust to the good judgment and fairness of the men who may occupy the supreme bench not more than three of whom shall be of the same political party, thereby assuring the nonpartisan character of that court. This is the effect of the course adopted in Massachusetts and New York, with the result that the appellate courts of those states occupy the foremost rank among the highest courts of the various states.
Very sincerely yours,
ALEX SWEEK,
Chairman Democratic State Central Committee.

DR. ANDREW TAYLOR STILL IMMORTAL.
For the ailments peculiar to women an Osteopathy is simply incomparable. It uses no drugs, seldom has recourse to the knife, and so the body is preserved intact and normal; it corrects adjustments, removing every obstruction to proper blood flow, proper drainage to parts, and adequate nerve supply. Thus it restores natural conditions which mean health. It has often been declared by prominent women well qualified to speak, that Osteopathy, even had it no other application than to the ill of woman, would have made Dr. A. T. Still immortal. As local treatments is not often necessary the system is much less embarrassing to women than are other methods.

PREMIER ASQUITH ANNOUNCES CABINET
London, April 12.—Official announcement was made tonight of the new cabinet appointments and they are identical with the forecast made and announced in these dispatches, as follows:
Herbert Asquith, Premier and First Lord of the Treasury.
David Lloyd George, Chancellor of the Exchequer.
Lord Tweedmouth, President of the Council.
Earl of Crewe, Secretary of State for the Colonies.
Reginald McKenna, First Lord of the Admiralty.
Winston Spencer Churchill, President of the Board of Trade.
Walter Runciman, President of the Board of Education.
John Morley, Secretary of State for India, and Sir Henry Fowler, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, have been made peers, but retain their present offices.
Now that it is officially confirmed, perhaps the most striking feature in the new cabinet is the leap of David Lloyd George to the front rank in political life. Some farther and other appointments outside the cabinet will be announced after the King's return to London.
The condition of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman is reported by his physicians as being unchanged.

AMUSEMENTS

The author of the new musical college girls' play, "Cupid at Vassar," knows his girl at college as well as he knows his society chaperon and hero of the West. The pranks played by the heroine, Kate Newton, and her classmates are by no means confined to the locality of Poughkeepsie. Every girl at boarding school has experienced the same trials as did the fair Kate. Fudge and French never did arise and do not in this well conducted school of higher education for women. There is more fun bottled up in the rehearsal scene of the Vassar College Glee Club than in the average dozen so-called funny plays on the road today. George Totten Smith's lyrics and A. Baldwin Slocum's music are hard to beat, and the plot contains the hallmark of genius. It is in the author's best vein. Two sisters, as dissimilar as two beings could be, are at Vassar College. Both love the same man. One of them, Kate, is loved in return, and by both the same man who, to obtain favors by fair means or foul, plots with the other sister to win both her and her sister. The keen wit of the real man of the play are enough to thwart the machinations of the bungler at crime and bring happiness to the beloved of his heart. Immediately there are shown some of the finest character studies exhibited on the road this season. Florence Gear plays the part of Kate. The play comes to the Eugene theatre on Wednesday, April 15.
