HATCHERY ADDS GREATLY TO COUNTY'S WEALTH

(Special Correspondence.)

Mapleton, April 16—There is probably no institution in Lane county that contributes as much money to the citizens at so small expense as the Siuslaw salmon hatchery, which has nearly completed its work for this season. The expense to the balance of the county and state is comparatively nothing, as the funds for building and running it are all or nearly all from the canning and fishing licenses paid on the Siuslaw river.

They now have about two million fish which they are putting into the tributaries of the Siuslaw as fast as practical. Allowing fifty per cent of them to be destroyed by trout, there will still be one million to return here and be canned on the river, which at a low estimate would mean 165,000 cases, which means over $666,000 added to the wealth of Lane county.

On the 14th inst. Grandma Mead, of Hermann, was buried in the Hermann cemetery. Had she lived a few months longer she would have been 90 years old. She leaves two sons, Walton and William, of Hermann, a number of grandchildren and a host of friends to mourn her death.

PIONEERS CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

MR. AND MRS. R. V. HOWARD, OF JUNCTION, HOLD ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Howard, of Junction City, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at their home at that place on April 15th. Mr. Howard was born in Knox county, Ohio, December 6th, 1833, and crossed the plains to Oregon in 1853, locating in Lane county, where he has since lived continuously. Mrs. Howard was born in Nodoway county, Missouri, on April 11, 1841, and crossed the plains with her father, Daniel Smith, in the year 1852. Her mother died on the plains after four weeks' journey, leaving her with the care of her younger sister and brother at the age of eleven years. They located at Smithfield, Lane county, the place which bears the name of her father. Mr. and Mrs. Howard were married at Smithfield, Lane county, on April 15, 1858.

Mr. Howard has been one of the most enterprising pioneer business men of the county. Fourteen children have been born to this couple, thirteen of whom are living: Carrie Eden, of Oakland, Cal.; B. F. Howard, Arvilla Powell, Ipha Lee, and Mabel Baker, of Junction; Mabel E. Hodges, of San Francisco; Wm. V. Howard, of Spokane; Andy M. Howard, of Portland; Lane L. Howard, of Roseburg; J. D. Howard, Dora Sovern, Rozilla Starr and Nora Dixon, of Eugene, all of whom were present except J. D., Andy M., Wm. V, and Mrs. Eden.

This family is represented by the fifth generation, as Mrs. Howard's father is living and has passed his 90th birthday. There were also present fourteen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. A gold clock, an umbrella and a wedding ring were presented by the children in remembrance of the happy occasion.

Death Was on His Heels.

Jesse P. Morris, of Skippers, Va., had a close call in the spring of 1906. He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and that death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung diseases in the world." Sold under guarantee at W. A. Kuykendall's drug store. 50c and $1. Trial bottles free.

MAY BUILD FRUIT EVAPORATOR AT COTTAGE GROVE

Unless all signs fail, the first of May will see another enterprise started at Cottage Grove that will be of great benefit to this section of Lane county, says the Western Oregon. C. M. Densmore, who for years has been identified with the development of Lane county, and particularly interested in the canning and fruit drying business, came up from Eugene Monday and took up the proposition of organizing a company here for the purpose of erecting a fruit dryer.

Mr. Densmore met with the Commercial Club of this city on the evening of his arrival, and the plan was put under way. Business called him home Tuesday, and the matter will rest until next Monday. During his stay here Mr. Densmore made many acquaintances, and in a general way outlined his plans that the subject might be fully discussed during the time intervening.

The Merchants' Protective Association of this city has also become interested in this project, and through them an effort will be made to interest the farmers and fruit raisers. To that end it is announced a meeting, to which every man interested in the development of the fruit industry will be made welcome, will be held Tuesday.

Mr. Densmore thinks that an organization on a basis of $5000 capital stock will be quite sufficient. In fact, he is of the opinion that if $3,000 of the capital stock is subscribed that will meet all the present needs. That is assured, judging from the enthusiasm that some of the citizens have evinced.

A very liberal plan of payment on stock subscribed is suggested, namely, one-fifth of the amount subscribed, cash down, the balance one-tenth per month until paid. Mr. Densmore will take $1000 in stock himself.

The dryer as first installed will be necessarily small, on account of the limited amount of fruit that can be relied upon, but the enterprise will be the means of developing the fruit industry here.

DIED.

Mrs. Sarah M. Cromwell-Adams, at the family home at Cottage Grove, April 10, 1908.

On May 21, 1904, Mrs. Adams was stricken with paralysis, and from that date until her death was an invalid. On the 5th of this month she suffered another stroke, and remained unconscious until death claimed her.

Sarah M. Cromwell was born in Murray county, Georgia, September 19, 1836. She moved to Texas with her parents when a girl. Came to Oregon in 1870, and was married to O. P. Adams of Cottage Grove December 23, 1873. She united with the Christian church in 1889, and had been a faithful member until her death.

She leaves to mourn her loss an aged husband and six step-daughters, one brother and a sister.

At her home at Cottage Grove, at 7:30 o'clock April 16, 1908, Virginia B., wife of J. B. Protzman, at the age of 37 years.

Virginia B. Goode-Protzman was born near Richmond, Va. She was married to J. B. Protzman at Pruntytown, W. Va., April 12, 1898, coming to the West shortly after her marriage, where she joined her husband, who had preceded her.

HOW IS YOUR STOMACH?

Easy Way to Strengthen It and Get Well.

A good digestive system, one that acts so that you do not know that you have a stomach, is God's birthright to every man—every woman.

If digestion is weak, if food turns into gas, if you suffer after eating, if you are sleepless, nervous and out of sorts—then the stomach is diseased and prompt action should be taken.

W. A. Ennis, a well known builder in Syracuse, tells an easy way to strengthen the stomach and get well; he writes: "Mi-o-na Stomach Tablets have done more for me in one week than all doctors the two years I was under their care. Thanks to Mi-o-na, I can work once more, the first time in over a year."

It is an easy thing to strengthen the stomach and cure indigestion by using Mi-o-na. Get a 50c box from Hall's Drug Store; they guarantee to refund the money unless the remedy does all that is claimed for it.
