CANVAS OF VOTES STARTED THIS AFTERNOON

The official canvass of the vote cast at the primary election began this afternoon at 3 o'clock, the tally sheets from Five Rivers precinct, the last to be heard from on account of the great distance from Eugene, having arrived only a few minutes before. The canvassing board consists of County Clerk Lee, Justice of the Peace Bryson, of Eugene, and Justice of the Peace J. L. Clark, of Creswell. They are assisted by Miss P. M. Norton, of the clerk's force. The count will probably not be completed before tomorrow forenoon some time.

CITY NEWS

The excelsior company yesterday shipped a carload of excelsior to San Francisco.

The exterior front of the new Potts and Finnegan buildings on Olive street are being cemented.

Household goods for N. G. Clark have arrived here from Corvallis. He and his family have come here to reside.

H. Rae is building a new house on West Tenth street. He is the gentleman who is soon to establish green houses here.

The Warren Construction Company received this morning a carload of sewer pipe to be used in its paving operations here.

A marriage license was issued this morning to Emery Seales, aged 25, of Eugene, and Miss Bessie O. Powers, aged 18, of Greenleaf.

The work of cementing the exterior of the theatre block began this afternoon. This will greatly improve the appearance of the building.

The passing track for the street cars on Alder street has been completed and the old one on East Eleventh will be taken up at once.

A. A. Simmons will be in the photo business here again this summer. He has pitched his tent near Irish's grocery store at the corner of East Ninth and Oak streets.

A meeting of the wives and lady friends of the Commercial club members will be held tonight at the club for the purpose of taking preliminary steps toward organizing a ladies' auxiliary to the club.

Jas. A. Burrell today began suit in the circuit court against Harry Oldham to recover $416.65 on a promissory note and for goods sold and delivered. L. M. Travis is attorney for the plaintiff.

The Robert Hays will contest was heard before County Judge Chrisman today. Charles A. Hardy, the executor, appeared for the estate, J. M. Pipes for Amanda Hays and A. C. Woodcock for Robert Brady.

The paving on West Eighth street will be completed tomorrow if the weather is not too bad to stop the work. The rain this morning did not interfere, but had it been a little heavier operations would have had to cease.

The first carload of vitrified brick to be used on the street car track for the East Eleventh street pavement, arrived from Portland this morning. It is said to be of a better quality than that laid on Willamette street last fall.

than that laid on Willamette street last fall.

Last night the annual election of officers of St. Mary's Episcopal church was held and the following vestrymen elected: Professor B. J. Hawthorne, G. F. Crow, Dr. York, S. Smeeds, F. Page, C. S. Freedland, Wall, Dr. Loomis.

J. A. Nash returned this afternoon from Yaquina Bay, where he and a force of three men were busy for several days getting out a car load of stone to be used in building the addition to the First National bank. The car is expected here tomorrow.

Notice of Sale on Execution * Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an execution issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Lane on the 4th day of April, 1908, on a judgment rendered in said court on the 2d day of March, 1908, in favor of E. E. Mink, plaintiff, and against Nannie K. Belshaw, defendant, for the sum of two hundred forty-two and 20/100 dollars, which judgment was enrolled and docketed in the office of the clerk of said court on the 7th day of March, 1908, by which writ I am commanded that out of the personal property belonging to said defendant, or if sufficient could not be found then out of the real property belonging to said defendant, on or after the said 4th day of April, 1908, to satisfy said judgment, costs and accruing costs. Being unable to find personal property with which to satisfy said judgment, costs and accruing costs, I did on the 4th day of April, 1908, levy upon the following real property belonging to said defendant on the said 4th day of April, 1908, or subsequently, to-wit:

Lot No. 4 in Block No. 8 of the original town of Eugene City, now Eugene, as platted and recorded, all in Lane county, Oregon.

Now, therefore, in the name of the State of Oregon, and in order to satisfy said judgment, costs and accruing costs, I will on Monday, the 25th day of May, 1908, between the hours of 9 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m., to-wit: at 1 o'clock p. m. on said day, at the southwest corner of the county courthouse in Eugene, Lane county, Oregon, offer for sale for Belshaw's right, title and interest in the above-named defendant's Nannie K. Belshaw's right, title and interest in and to the above-described real property.

Dated this 15th day of April, 1908.

MISS JO GREELEY SMITH.

Banking By Mail

It is simply the application to the use of individual depositors of the system in vogue among banks. It is perfectly safe. In the enormous daily exchange between banks of different cities, amounting to millions of dollars, there is never a dollar lost. This method of banking is convenient, private and time-saving. It is of especial advantage to persons living in the country or smaller towns who want the satisfaction of dealing with an absolutely safe bank, or to persons in the city, not so situated that they can conveniently visit the bank in person. When you send your first deposit, you will receive notice of credit and check-book. Your money is perfectly safe when deposited in this old bank with its large capital and surplus.
