CITY NEWS

A cement walk was built on front of the new Hahn block on East Ninth street today.

Geo. W. Taylor has just finished a well on the Circle place, near the I. O. O. F. cemetery, 317 feet deep.

A. F. True, a University student, is assisting at the depot until Agent Gillette can get a permanent man.

Yesterday afternoon Zoula F. Sigman was appointed guardian of Charles L. Sigman, a minor, by the probate court.

The West Eighth street pavement was completed shortly after noon today and the force is now working on West Ninth street.

The meeting of the Commercial Club to take action on the matter of Eugene being represented at the Portland rose festival will be held tonight.

Geo. W. Taylor's well-drilling plant was moved to the residence of Jacob Taylor at West First and Washington streets today and a well will be sunk there.

N. R. Gaylord, landlord at the Encore hotel, has bought a lot at the corner of West Tenth and Lawrence streets and will soon begin the erection of a 7-room house thereon.

Congressman Hawley reports the following increase of pensions for Lane county veterans: Russell J. Kinne, Goshen, $12; Hiram S. Powell, Saginaw, $20; Edwin Wheeler, Eugene, $15.

A trench was dug in the pavement across Willamette street at the alley between Eighth and Ninth streets today for the underground telephone conduit. The pavement proved to be as hard as cement.

C. J. Cook and family have arrived in Eugene from Cleveland, Ohio, as a result of reading the Eugene Commercial Club's literature. They will buy a small place near the city and engage in poultry raising.

Tomorrow C. R. Seltz, supervisor of the Tillamook and Umpqua forest reserves, will conduct in this city an examination for forest rangers. Already there have been filed in his office over 60 applications.

Roy Booth is on a trip through the South and East. He will take in the fleet celebration at San Francisco first, and then start on his trip through the Southern states, coming home by way of the northern route.

The extra gang of Japs which has been helping Foreman Strawn's gang on the local depot yard improvements for a couple of weeks was taken to Latham today to help put in the tie preserving plant for the S. P. Co. there.

The telephone company has agreed to hereafter call up each fireman by phone in case of a fire at night by ringing five short bells. This will be done so that each may be awakened, the big bell often not awakening a majority of the firemen at night.

The United States recruiting office in Eugene will be closed next Saturday and Sergeant R. J. Fuller, who has been in charge since its establishment, will be transferred to Centralia, Washington. His wife will remain in Eugene for the present.

W. H. Kay has traded his timber land in the Wolf Creek country southwest of the city to T. G. Hendricks, president of the First National Bank of Eugene, for 14 city lots on Lawrence and Lincoln streets, between West Thirteenth and West Seventeenth. He will place them on the market soon.

The Eugene barbers have organized a baseball team and will meet all comers. They authorize The Guard to issue a challenge to the lawyers of the city for a game to be played at any time the latter may name, proceeds to go toward the Eugene boost fund. If played the game promises to be a hot one. The barbers are anxiously awaiting a reply from the lawyers.

D. C. Chapman, recently from Jacksonville, Fla., is in the city. He has bought a place near Grants Pass and will locate there. Yesterday he saw Dr. W. O. Prosser's sign at his office in the Beckwith building and he called up the doctor to inquire if he is the same Dr. Prosser that he knew in Iowa over 29 years ago. He proved to be the one, and the two have been visiting and renewing acquaintanceship since.

Pendleton East Oregonian: President P. L. Campbell, of the University of Oregon, will arrive here on Thursday. News of his coming was recently received by Professor A. C. Hampton, principal of the high school. Whether or not the University man is coming in the interests of the University appropriation is not known here. An effort will be made however, to have him deliver an address while he is in the city.

W. M. Kerr has sold his 85-acre farm near the Santa Clara school house northwest of the city to Jack Campbell, United States deputy marshal for Alaska, who is now visiting Hon. I. H. Bingham. The price paid for the tract was $5500. Mr. Campbell will remove to Eugene some time in the near future and will probably cut the farm up into small tracts and place them on the market. To Eugene Real Estate and Investment Co. made the sale.

Thousands of rolls of new wall paper had received.

SUNDAY SCHOOL OFFICIALS EXPRESS SINCERE THANKS

Editor Guard:—The officers of the Junction District Sunday School Association desire to acknowledge their appreciation of the kindness and help given by many of the Sunday school workers in the district in the convention held at Santa Clara April 19-21. We should like to mention the names of everyone who contributed so largely to the success of the convention, but space forbids.

But we do want to express our appreciation for the valuable help given by State Field Worker Rev. C. A. Phipps, of Portland; and to Mrs. Delmer Trimble, of Eugene, for her excellent address on "Our Girls." Also to Mrs. M. D. Mitchell, president of the county association, who especially would we give unstinted praise to Mrs. A. C. Miller, of Riverview, and Mrs. Middleton for their splendid vocal solos, and to Miss Lucy Ricketts and Mrs. Victor Chapman for their fine instrumental solos.

The Santa Clara chorus of sixteen voices did splendid work for the convention.

We feel that the success of the convention was due in large measure to these faithful Sunday school workers, and we pray that they may have their due reward.

J. M. DAY, Sec. C. J. HURD, Pres.

SPECIALITY ARTISTS COMING TO EUGENE

ANOTHER BIG VAUDEVILLE FOR THE EUGENE THEATRE—MANAGER SMITH BOOKS THIS WEEK'S ATTRACTION AT THE GRAND THEATRE IN PORTLAND FOR ONE NIGHT

Mr. Smith, the manager of the Eugene theatre, received a wire last night that he had been successful in securing another big vaudeville show for the theatre.

As mentioned before, he is trying to catch all of the attractions that play at the Grand, but all the artists do not jump from Portland to Frisco every week.

All the attractions that are at the Grand this week jump to Frisco next week and Mr. Smith has prevailed upon them to give him one night, Tuesday, April 29.

The prices will be 15c, 25c and 35c; box seats, 50c.

CRITICISE CRUISE AROUND THE WORLD

Washington, April 21.—The reported purpose of the president to send the fleet of battleships now on the Pacific coast around the world, was the basis of a discussion in the senate today when the naval appropriation bill was taken up for consideration.

Mr. Bacon, of Georgia, asked what would be the cost of this cruise around the world. Mr. Hale, chairman of the committee on naval affairs, replied that it would be difficult to state the cost, but he was satisfied that the war and tear on the fleet would be very great. The cost, he said, would not be known for a year. He referred to the cruise as a "spectacular performance."

Mr. Bacon agreed that it was a spectacular performance, "but," he added, "it may be a very dangerous performance." Mr. Hale disclaimed any purpose to charge that no good would come of the trip around the world. He referred to it as spectacular performance in the sense "that it was most remarkable and wonderful."

Hopelessly Split. At a meeting of the Republican steering committee of the senate today the legislative committee was discussed, but no decision was reached to add any important measures to the present session of congress. In regard to currency legislation, it was stated that if the house passed a bill providing for a commission to investigate financial matters, the senate would immediately upon receipt of this measure vote to add the Aldrich currency bill, with a view of putting the whole subject into conference.

Senator Aldrich made it clear that if there was to be financial legislation of any character at this session it would be along the line of what had already been done in the senate, with concurrence in the provisions for a commission to sit during the recess of congress to consider currency matters.

J. O. STOREY BUYS MORE EUGENE PROPERTY

While J. O. Storey, president of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern railroad, was here last Saturday he closed a deal with E. J. Frasier for the purchase of the J. M. Cox property adjoining Eugene on the southwest. The terms are private. At the same time Mr. Frasier bought from Mr. Storey all of that portion of the Whitney tract lying south of the county road passing through the place.

CORTELYOU'S SPEECH

point of view, has always been how to secure concerted action among men on a great scale without sacrificing local independence. Equally true is it that we must deal with the present aspects of that problem as they affect our people and with all of our perplexing problems of self-government and business, of individual and national well-being, with an open-minded appreciation of their difficulties, with a firm resolve that their solution shall be reached under constitutional restraints, through the factors of impartial justice and American common sense.

DOESN'T PAN OUT.

We keep forgetting all the while About this leap year game Since not one strange, suspicious thing Reminds us of the same, For all the ladies that we know Pursue us down the line The even tenor of their way And never make a sign.

We didn't think the girls would come And grab us by the mitt The very first day of the year And say, "Old man, you're it." But after waiting several weeks We hoped perhaps they might Make bold to get their courage up To seize their pens and write.

We'd heard so much about the time When girls would take the lead And give the world a chance to see How well they could succeed; How when the gentlemen held back The question, they would press Or gently mention with their eyes Some things words can't express.

We used to think so, but no more For us are dreams like that. And our chances for that source We wouldn't bet a hat. At least they haven't come around 'Till we have cried "Enough!" And it is our opinion now That leap year is a bluff.

What He Knew About.
"Do you think, Mr. De Guff, that absence makes the heart grow fonder?"
"I am sure I do not know, having had but little experience with affairs of the heart. I know that absent treatment makes the stomach grow fonder all right."

Razzle Dazzled.
Sing a song of love time, Ozone in the air. Now is mating dove time. Joy is everywhere—Apple blossoms shaking Pink perfume about. Little young branches quaking In the west wind's rout.

Sing a song of love time Just for Mand and me, Now is turtle-dove time. Cooling dove is she. Really do I think so. But the air of May Has me on the blink, so I don't know what to say.

Proof Enough.
"Taking any sides in this controversy about the authorship of Shakespeare's plays?"
"What is the controversy about?"
"They claim Shakespeare didn't write them."
"Pshaw, I know better than that."
"What makes you so sure?"
"Haven't I seen his name on the book?"

Demonstration.
"Do you know as much about politics as Wiseguy?"
"Him?"
"Sure."
"Say, I forgot more politics in a week than he knew in a year."
"I thought you must have forgotten an awful lot, judging from the small amount you know in that line."

No Choice.
"How did you like the play?"
"Not at all. How did you?"
"I had to get up money's worth. I was sitting in a seat that cost me $3."

Needs Backing.
Truth crushed to earth will rise again. Subdued, but not undone. But what's the use of doing that Unless it has a gun?

PERT PARAGRAPHS.
It is a good thing both to be able to work and to be able to keep from being worked.

Even truth itself becomes intolerable when it is pronounced tyrannically and pressed home dogmatically.

Banking By Mail

It is simply the application to the use of individual depositors of the system in vogue among banks.

It is perfectly safe. In the enormous daily exchange between banks of different cities, amounting to millions of dollars, there is never a dollar lost.

This method of banking is convenient, private and time-saving. It is of especial advantage to persons living in the country or smaller towns who want the satisfaction of dealing with an absolutely safe bank, or to persons in the city, not so situated that they can conveniently visit the bank in person.

When you send your first deposit, you will receive notice of credit and check-book.
Your money is perfectly safe when deposited in this old bank with its large capital and surplus.
