JOHNSON TALKS ON LANDMARKS OF LIBERTY

Houghton, Mich., April 27.—Governor Johnson spoke here on "Landmarks of American Liberty" today. He said in part:

"Progress of this republic as guided by the landmarks of constitutional liberty is today opposed by two dangers. One is the tendency of the federal government to centralization of power and the assumption of sovereign powers not delegated to it by the constitution and belonging to the states and to the people. The other is the power of centralized and predatory wealth, fostered by special privileges and defiant of both the public welfare and the law of the land. The existence of these two dangers is not only contemporary, but in a measure co-operative. Both threaten the liberty and power of the people and the untarnished perpetuity of our institutions. Although the profitable development of the great industrial trusts of today is largely due, first to the special privileges of the federal government and especially to unjust tariff laws which those in control of the government refuse to abolish or amend, and second, to gross favoritism in administration and to lax interpretation and enforcement of the constitution and laws. The very existence of these trusts is today urged as a reason why still further powers should be centralized in the federal government, the states deprived of their constitutional rights and powers and the guarantees of the constitution further encroached upon, evaded and broken down. In spite of statutes which declare industrial trusts and combinations in restraint of trade illegal, in other words to be statutory outlaws in the land, the government today maintains a tariff system avowedly for the protection and profit of the enterprises in which these trust outlaws are interested and engaged. These tariff laws are themselves in restraint of the trade of the American people and the discriminating taxation of this trade is admittedly one of the chief sources of the dividends and interest coupons for which these trusts exist and on which they grow and prosper. And whenever at any time the American people demand the reform of these tariffs and their extortions, the answer is that the tariff must be revised by its friends.

"It is claimed that if the government at Washington is restrained in its functions by the principles of the declaration of the guaranties of the constitution the American government cannot assume among the nations of the earth its proper station as a world power.

"My answer is that if the people of the United States do not continue to dwell under the principles of the declaration and enjoy the guaranties of the constitution to protect their liberties and sovereignty, the American people cease to be a world power.

"The present contest is on the issue plainly raised by the present government—does sovereignty in America reside in the government or in the states and the people?

"A government of unlimited power means a people and states of dependent powers.

"A people and states with sovereign power implies a government of restricted and delegated powers. No nation can have both kinds. The American people must make their choice. Shall we have a sovereign government or sovereign states and a sovereign people?"

"Why do you women talk so fast?"

"Why?"

ITCHING ECZEMA FIFTY-FIVE YEARS

Suffered Torments from Birth — Boils Formed as Big as Walnuts — In Frightful Condition and Could Hardly Work — Tried All Kinds of Remedies to No Avail — At Last

WHOLLY CURED IN 8 MONTHS BY CUTICURA

"I had an itching, tormenting eczema ever since I came into the world, and I am now a man fifty-five years old. I tried all kinds of medicines I heard of, but found no relief. I was truly in a frightful condition. At last my blood was so bad that I broke out all over with red and white boils, which kept growing until they were as big as walnuts, causing great pain and misery. I thought they would take the skin off my whole body, but I kept from scratching as well as I could. I was so run down that I could hardly do my work. Mr. Nelson R. Burnett recommended the use of Cuticura Remedies, telling me he was confident they would benefit and, in time, cure me. I used the Cuticura Soap, Ointment, Resolvent, and Pills for about eight months, and I can truthfully say I am cured. I cordially recommend Cuticura Remedies to all who are afflicted the same as I was, believing that, if they will use them according to directions, they will find them all they are represented to be. Any one doubting the truth of the above can write to Mr. Burnett, who will cheerfully vouch for my statements.

"Hale Bordwell, R. F. D. 3, Cedar Corners, Tipton, Ia., Aug. 17, 1907."

"I cheerfully endorse the above testimonial. It is the truth. I know Mr. Bordwell and know the condition he was in. He never tires of praising the Cuticura Remedies.

"Nelson R. Burnett, Tipton, Ia."
